Who Told You So?

W. T. Crawford says that H. G. Swart told him that he heard Jim Gudger say that Bob Vance told him that Kope Hiss heard that there was no doubt that W. W. Rollins said that Tom Johnston thought that Bob Farman had told Sitting Bull that Buffalo Bill had declared to J. H. Courtney that it was generally believed that Sam Reynolds had said in plain terms that he heard Jack Worley say that his friend John L. Sullivan had said that Bill Deaver informed him at the congressional convention in this city that it was a well known fact that the House-keepers' Union had caught Gen. Clingman in saying that in his opinion it was a matter of fact and of great public interest that J. J. Mackey had said to Jess Lowry that Bill Nye had said while attending the county convention last Saturday that anyone caught reading this shall repair at once to the store of A. D. COOPER, North Court Square, and inspect his mammoth stock of all kinds of Groceries, Provisions, &c., where arrangements have been made to furnish you all kinds of Staple and Fancy Groceries of the Best Quality at the Lowest Prices.

COMMON SENSE TALK.

Our Fall and Winter stock of goods is all in, and is complete. This stock was bought so that we can sell it at our old prices. All goods bought since the new republican tariff went into effect Oct. 6th will be from 10 cts. to 50 cts. on the dollar higher, particularly Shoes and Tinware. We shall sell our present stock of Fall and Winter goods in all lines at same prices as heretofore, and that is cheaper than any other store in Asheville. We keep everything in Dress Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Factory Cloth, Tinware, Lamps and Glassware. We can fit out a family with everything to wear, from a tiny shoe for the baby to an overcoat for the grandfather, from a marriage to a funeral. You must buy your sugar and coffee from the grocer, then come to us, we can fill out the balance of your wants. It is but little trouble to come to our store and learn our prices before you buy, and it often amounts to a big saving in money. Country people particularly will save money if they will price our stock before they buy their winter supplies of Shoes, Hats, Clothing, Dresses, Overcoats, Pant Cloth, and Blankets. If we do not sell them as good goods for less money than anyone else in Asheville they can buy elsewhere, only be sure to come to our store before you buy, and remember the place, The "BIG RACKET"

THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN.

HEROIC RESCUE OF SHIPWRECKED MARINERS.

FOUR MEN RISK THEIR LIVES TO SAVE OTHERS.

NEW GLASGOW, N. S., Oct. 15.—A thrilling story is that of the rescue of four men who remained on the wrecked bark Melmerby stranded at Little Harbor while on a voyage from Quebec for Greenock with lumber.

The captain, first and second officers and twelve men were drowned. All day Monday the crowd stood on the beach watching the poor unfortunate men on the crumbling wreck, but the spectators were powerless to effect, or even attempt, a rescue, so wild was the sea. Night settled down without any abatement of the terrific storm. Two men remained on shore and occasionally waved lanterns to show the shipwrecked men that they were not forgotten.

When morning dawned Tuesday an immense concourse assembled, but it was noon before it was considered at all possible to make an attempt at rescue. Then a boat was launched, manned by a volunteer crew of four men. These brave fellows fought a terrible battle with the waves, but eventually reached the wreck when a mighty cheer went up from the anxious watchers on shore. One by one, the exhausted and benumbed shipwrecked men were lowered into a boat and after a second desperate battle with the waves were conveyed safely to land.

The work was facilitated by the liberal use of oars. Two of the rescued men were sick and one had his shoulder broken. The rescued men were seamen Kane and Evans and the steward and captain of a schooner, who went to supply the bark with provisions and were unable to regain their own vessel.

AN ALLIANCE STOCKYARD.

Farmers Determined to Drive Out Commission Men.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 15.—The Farmers' alliance of the southwest are to establish an independent stock yard in Kansas city. The Missouri, Texas, Nebraska and Iowa alliances are back of the scheme.

Fifty acres of land adjoining the present stock yards is the site of the new yards. By maintaining their own yards, the farmers believe they can save much money in marketing their cattle by doing away with commission men and a great part of other expenses.

SUMMONED TO ROME.

The Pope Wants Information On Politics in Ireland.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—The Star announces that most Rev. Michael Logne, D. D., archbishop of the diocese of Armagh and primate of all Ireland, the most Rev. William J. Walsh, D. D., archbishop of Dublin; the most Rev. Thomas Croke, D. D., archbishop of Cashel, and the most Rev. John MacEvilly, D. D., archbishop of Tuam have been summoned by the Pope to appear at Rome in the early part of next year. The Star says it is believed the summons is issued in connection with the Irish political situation.

THE AVARICIOUS STANDARD.

Its Gould, Like Methods to Crush Opposition.

FINDLAY, O., Oct. 15.—The Standard Oil company has again reduced the price of buckeye oil and is paying out 32½¢ for the product, a drop of 5¢ on the barrel within two weeks. This depreciation caused a loss of $50 on every 1,000 barrels to the producer, while the Standard saves by the operation in the Ohio field alone $45,000 a month. The Standard now has the field in its power and is the absolute master of prices.

IT KNOCKS OUT "FLOATERS."

One Good Result From a Ballot Reform Law.

NEWARK, Oct. 15.—New ballot reform law was tried at the city election for the first time yesterday. The system worked satisfactorily. There was a general falling off in voting, almost one-third, which is attributed to the new system, many supposing it complicated and undesirable. Displaying their ignorance, remained away from the polls. Very little money was used and "floaters" found their occupation gone.

W. J. ROGERS DECLINES.

His Health Will Not Permit Him to Make the Canvass.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 15.—W. J. Rogers, democratic nominee for congress in the Second district, has tendered his resignation on account of ill health. The executive committee has accepted the resignation, but decline to make another nomination as the time does not now permit a canvass of the district.

Not Dead Yet.

ATLANTA, Oct. 15.—A few days ago, Gen. Gordon in the course of a speech, referred to Senator Brown as having one foot in the grave. The patriarchal senator has pulled that leg out of the grave by announcing that he will address the people of Georgia on National Day at the state fair, to be held at Macon. Uncle Joe's announcement has stirred up a big sensation throughout the entire state.

The Editorship of the "World."

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Yielding to the advice of his physicians, who represent it to be necessary to complete the restoration of his sight, Joseph Pulitzer has withdrawn entirely from the editorship of the World. The control of the paper has been vested in an executive board of its principal editors.

Porter's Miss of 197,344 People.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The police census, completed, gives New York city a population of 1,710,715 an increase of 197,214 over Porter's figures.

Fifty Cholera Deaths Daily.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 15.—The deaths from Cholera at Aleppo average fifty daily.

WEST VIRGINIA'S FLOOD.

A Great Deal of Damage Done by the Cloud Burst.

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 15th.—Further particulars from the interior are to the effect that in Braxton county great losses have been sustained by the farmers and lumber men by the cloud burst Sunday evening. Many thousands of feet of lumber were swept away, crops were destroyed and a number of farmers almost ruined.

WICKEDER THAN CHICAGO.

CINCINNATI GIVEN A VERY BAD NAME.

The Extra Session of the Ohio Legislature Called Because of the Deplorable Condition of Public Service of the Chief City of the State.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 15.—The extra session of the legislature began here yesterday. The Governor sent a message in which he sets forth that the session was called because of the deplorable condition of the public service at Cincinnati, and for the purpose of securing the necessary legislation to give the people an opportunity to select members of certain boards at the November election.

The message cites the statement of a prominent citizen that Cincinnati has the lowest grade of political morals of any city in the country. An appeal is made for the restoration of home rule and a new charter for Cincinnati. In both branches the message was referred to the judiciary committee.

THE NEWS AT TRINITY.

On the Eve of a Religious Awakening—The "Archive."

TRINITY COLLEGE, Randolph county, N. C., Oct. 12, 1890.—This little Piedmont village is more full of business, and the hum of life than ever. There are at present 153 students in attendance. The intellectual life of the place is broadening and deepening and the college is believed to be on the eve of a great religious awakening. Arrangements have been made for 7 o'clock meetings daily throughout the week. State secretary Coulter, of the Y. M. C. A., is here in consultation with the members. Among the members here is a large measure of religious interest.

The Archive comes out to-morrow. This year it will be published with unusual vigor and has every prospect of prosperity before it. The editors have arranged for a regular edition of 500 copies, have increased the amount of reading matter, and enlarged its scope. The editorial board, as elected by the society, is as follows: Editor in chief, L. S. Mosley, Hesperian; assistant chief, R. L. O'Neil, Columbian; review, C. E. Turner, Hes; D. A. Houston, Col; exchange, W. A. B. Hearne, Hes; C. L. Raper, Col; alumni, Fred Harper, Hes; W. F. Black, Col; locals, A. W. Plyler, Hes; A. H. Powell, Col; Y. M. C. A. Department, W. B. Lee, Col; General business manager, James Halleck Crowell, Hes; Jos. S. Betts, Col.

The constitution of the loan association is the hands of the printers and will soon be given to the public. The object of this association is to place within the reach of every one the necessary means for obtaining an education at college. Several of the young alumni of the college are pushing it.

The football is booming over the campus from 4 to 6, evenings. George S. LaBar, Wilkes-Barre, Penn., has been elected captain. The material for a good team is more plentiful than last year and a great deal of fine playing may be seen even at this early day in practice.

O'BRIEN AND DILLON.

In France and the Government May Ask Them to Leave.

PARIS, Oct. 15.—La Presse says that Dillon and O'Brien after their flight from Ireland took passage on a sailing vessel and landed on the coast of Normandy. On Sunday they passed the night at the residence of M. Raffalovich's, a banker whose daughter is the wife of O'Brien. On Monday they came to Paris and thence proceeded to M. Raffalovich's country house at Gif. They then returned to Paris last night, but their address in this city is kept secret. If the news received from America is favorable to the Irish mission to that country they will start for New York at the end of the week. If it becomes manifest that it is their intention to remain in Paris, the government will request them to leave.

What Might be of Asheville.

RALEIGH, Oct. 14.—[Special]—The state fair is one of the best ever held. The exhibits are very good and well arranged. The amusements are plentiful and really inviting. The speaking is of high order. The stock display is the best ever seen. Every race is full and the crowd is the largest ever known on Tuesday.

INTO NEW QUARTERS.

Strauss to Move Into New Quarters.

Strauss, the popular restaurateur, will soon move into his new quarters on South Main St., in the new Johnston Building. The building is being fitted up for Mr. Strauss as a hotel. The dining-room and restaurant are on the first floor and the second and third floors will be devoted to sleeping apartments, parlors and private dining-rooms. The house is to be lighted by gas and heated by grates. Electric bells and a hydraulic passenger elevator will be some of the modern conveniences.

North Carolina's Population.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The census bureau gives out the following figures: Newberne, N. C., 7,832; increase, 1,389; per cent, 21.56. State of North Carolina; 1,617,340, increase, 217,590; per cent, 15.34. Kansas, 1,423,485; increase, 427,380; per cent, 42.91.

He is Not a Gentleman.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Col. Elliott P. Shepard has been suspended for ten days from the Union League club for publishing in the Mail and Express the secrets of the club.

MODEST J. WILEY SHOOK.

NO AFFIDAVIT FOR HIM, THANK YOU.

He Has a Chance to Enter a Debate, but Falls to do so—Ewart May as Well Own up to the Whole Matter Now.

From a Staff Correspondent.

PIGEON RIVER, Haywood Co., Oct. 10, 1890.

The crowd assembled here to-day was doubtless the largest ever brought together for a similar purpose in this section. It numbered between two and three hundred voters, and the majority for Crawford almost amounted to unanimity. There is something remarkable in the universality of the esteem in which Crawford is held by these people. Men who have never voted any other than the republican ticket were as warm in the greeting they gave him as the most ardent democrats. There were men present to-day who told me that they had not attended a political discussion in fifteen years. These things make it impossible to estimate what majority Crawford will have in Haywood. There can be no doubt about its going for him beyond any majority ever before given. When the returns come in it will be a good way to estimate the worth of the two men to compare the votes of Haywood and Henderson, the respective homes of the candidates, where they are best known and most thoroughly understood in all their relations toward their fellows. Mr. Ewart will certainly suffer by the comparison.

The crowd to-day was too large for the school building, and so the discussion occurred in the grove just outside the house. Crawford's throat was giving him considerable trouble, and his speech was not as animated as usual, but he was on his feet and not in the bushes like his competitor a week ago. When Crawford read the readers of THE CITIZEN will be duly apprised of the fact.

This place is only a few miles from Clyde, the home of Mr. J. Wiley Shook. Mr. Shook was present at the discussion to-day, and the ample opportunity to deny by affidavit the sworn statement of his own townsman, Mr. Osborne, concerning his avowal that he had proposed Ewart's great anti-force bill speech, and then had to use force to get him to deliver it. Crawford read the affidavit and certificates, and gave Mr. Shook an opportunity to contradict, but Wiley was too wily to come to time. The fact is, Wiley is in the soup, and soup of his own making, at that.

You can put down Haywood anywhere from five to seven hundred majority for Crawford. The county candidates will begin their canvass on the 20th. R. D. Gilmer, the candidate for the legislature, is unusually popular, and will run close up to Crawford. J. S. Davis, the candidate for the senate, will carry the county by a fine majority, and I think will beat Moody in the district in the neighborhood of two hundred votes.

To-morrow we go to Fine's creek, where another great crowd awaits us. J. P. K.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

R. M. Furman, County Chairman, Appoints It.

I hereby appoint the following gentlemen to constitute a central executive committee of the democratic party of Buncombe:

Jos. S. Adams, J. M. Gudger, G. T. Jones, J. R. Rich, S. R. Kepler, J. C. Cowan, E. W. Burkholder, J. E. Hampton, J. W. Starnes, N. P. Corn, J. M. Westall, E. D. McCullum, W. B. Clayton, N. A. Reynolds, W. W. West, Ed. Green, S. H. Reed, Geo. H. Burnham, J. Hamy McDowell, G. Green, W. B. Marx, W. F. Randolph, C. C. McCarty, J. M. Carter, D. W. Caudle, T. J. Mitchell, W. P. Porter, Erwin Patton, J. M. James, W. W. Barnard, J. H. Loughran, J. T. Bostick, J. C. Merriam, S. P. Means, A. Jones, Dr. E. Burd, J. B. Whiteside, Locke Craig, M. E. Carter, C. M. McLeod, T. C. McCoy, H. C. Fagg, Clarence Sawyer, F. Stickleather, Dr. W. D. Hilliard, W. B. Williamson, G. F. Adams, Wayne S. Ray, W. R. Penman, Jr.; W. R. Benard, J. M. Young, John Donohue. The above committee is hereby requested to meet on Friday night at 8 p. m. in the clerk's office at the court house for immediate work.

R. M. FURMAN, Chairman Democratic Executive Committee, Buncombe county. Oct. 15, 1890.

A Buncombe Man Honored.

R. P. Henry, a son of W. L. Henry of Lower Honty, and now living in Rockingham county, has been nominated by the democrats of that county for the legislature. Mr. Henry moved from Buncombe about ten years ago and is now about thirty-three years of age. He is vice-president of the Rockingham county alliance. Rockingham has a democratic majority of about 800.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

FOREIGN.

As a precaution against cholera a quarantine of twenty-one days is imposed against all arrivals from Barcelona.

Twenty-five thousand persons attended memorial services for the late Mrs. Booth, wife of Gen. Booth, of the salvation army, at Olympia.

HOME.

Col. Fellows and Delancy Nicoll are both Tammany candidates for congress in New York.

The revolt of Pennsylvania republicans from the boss-made candidate for governor is growing, and the pulp is giving encouragement to the disaffection.

Superintendent Porter, in a letter from Europe, claims that the census of 1890 "will stand for all time to come as the best and most accurate up to date."

Rev. Loyal Young, D. D., one of the most eminent ministers of the Pennsylvania church in Western Pennsylvania, died at his home in Butler Saturday night, aged 85 years.

In the superior court in Lawrence, Mass., yesterday, William McKenna, of Lawrence, and Haverhill, known as the "king of horse thieves," was sentenced under the habitual criminal law to twenty-five years in state prison.

Although there has been a great deal of speculation during the past few days as to the President's intention with regard to an extra session of congress, there has not been a single indication, one way or the other, from any one in authority on the subject.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ANTIMIGRAINE.

—TH—

NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.

TRADE MARK REGISTERED.

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.

Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.

ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPIRINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE.

Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.

The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of headache, it taken when first feeling the premonitory symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for
