Who Told You So?

W. T. Crawford says that H. G. Ewart told him that he heard Jim Gudgeon say that Bob Vance told him that Kope Blais heard that there was no doubt that W. W. Hollis said that Tom Johnston thought that Bob Farman had told sitting Bull that Buffalo Bill had declared to J. H. Courtney that it was generally believed that Dan Reynolds had said in plain terms that he heard Jack Worley say that his friend John L. Sullivan had said that Bill Deaver informed him at the congressional convention in this city that it was a well known fact that the House-keepers' Union had caught Gen. Clingman in saying that in his opinion it was a matter of fact and of great public interest that J. J. Mackey intimated to Jess Lowry that Bill Nye had said while attending the county convention last Saturday that anyone caught reading this shall repair at once to the store of A. D. COOPER, North Court Square, and inspect his mammoth stock of all kinds of Groceries, Provisions, &c., where arrangements have been made to furnish you all kinds of Staple and Fancy Groceries of the Best Quality at the Lowest Prices.

COMMON SENSE TALK.

Our Fall and Winter stock of goods is all in, and is complete. This stock was bought so that we can sell it at our old prices. All goods bought since the new republican tariff went into effect Oct. 6th will be from 10 cts. to 50 cts. on the dollar higher, particularly Shoes and Tinware. We shall sell our present stock of Fall and Winter goods in all lines at same prices as heretofore, and that is cheaper than any other store in Asheville. We keep everything in Dress Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Factory Cloth, Tinware, Lamps and Glassware. We can fit out a family with everything to wear, from a tiny shoe for the baby to an overcoat for the grandfather, from a marriage to a funeral. You must buy your sugar and coffee from the grocer, then come to us, we can fill out the balance of your wants. It is but little trouble to come to our store and learn our prices before you buy, and it often amounts to a big saving in money. Country people particularly will save money if they will price our stock before they buy their winter supplies of Shoes, Hats, Clothing, Dresses, Overcoats, Pant Cloth, and Blankets. If we do not sell them as good goods for less money than anyone else in Asheville they can buy elsewhere, only be sure to come to our store before you buy, and remember the place, The "BIG RACKET"

THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN.

THE GOVERNOR OF UTAH ON WOODWARD'S MANIFESTO.

HE BELIEVES IT GENUINE AND THAT POLYGAMY IS DEAD.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The Independent has the following from Governor Thomas of Utah:

"The manifesto of the president of the church has been confirmed by the conference. It comes with the force of a new revelation, and whatever doubts may have existed as to the purpose and effect of the manifesto, as first sent out, they now seem to be removed. The Gentiles rejoice that the contest begun so many years ago against polygamy has finally triumphed, for they believe that never again will polygamy flourish on American soil. It has been buried never to be resurrected. The country is to be congratulated on the triumph of the christian home in Utah."

SOCIALISTIC CONGRESS.

Following Science and Have Nothing to do with Religion.

HALLE, Oct. 16.—At the session to-day of the Socialistic Congress the discussion of the program was continued. Herr Bloh held that religion must be a private matter, especially when the combat against the Catholic Church was being carried on.

Herr Ruedell said: "We follow science and have nothing to do with religion."

Then Herr Wileburh declared that any agitation which ignored the church would be worthless and barren of result.

Herr Metzner said that though he held very free religious views, he would deprecate any change in the program. He condemned the productive association.

UNEASY REPUBLICANS.

They Don't Like the Appearance of Things in North Carolina.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Collector Rollins is here. Soon after his return home the office will probably be moved from Statesville to Asheville. A well informed gentleman tells me, however, that is not the main object of his visit here. He says it is to get some much needed funds from the Republican campaign committee to take back to North Carolina with him to help the brethren along in the coming campaign. My informant tells me the Republicans are scared, and have good reason to be very uneasy about the outlook for their party in North Carolina.—Wilmington Messenger.

THEY ARE IN PARIS.

O'Brien and Dillon Arrived There To-Day.

PARIS, Oct. 16.—Wm. O'Brien and John Dillon, who succeeded in evading the Irish police last week with the intention of proceeding to America to lay the course of Ireland before the people of that country, and who arrived at Chebourg yesterday, reached the city this morning.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHE IS DEAD.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16.—When the circuit court convened in criminal session yesterday at Lexington, Mo., Judge John F. Ryland, in making his charge to the grand jury, ordered them to investigate especially reports that games of cards for money known as progressive euche and high five were indulged in at private residences.

Where Are Southern Exhibitors?

ATLANTA, Oct. 16.—One noticeable fact concerning the Piedmont annual exposition which opened yesterday at Piedmont Park is that there are more exhibitors from the north than from the south, notably from New York, Boston and Providence.

WEDDED TO THEIR IDOLS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The census office will not accept the revised returns made by the New York city officials, but is determined to maintain the correctness of the original federal count.

NORTH CAROLINA FOLKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. W. Moore, who went from here two months ago as missionaries to Japan, have landed at Yokohama and are waiting there for passports to go through the island to Kochi, where they will be stationed. Both well and write in good spirits.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The mother of Justice Miller, of the United States supreme court, who has just died, was Maria Freeman. She was born in North Carolina, but while an infant her father moved to Kentucky. There she married Mr. Miller, a maker of hats. Mrs. Miller lived to be eighty-four years of age, and bore nineteen children.—News and Observer.

The Abbot's Creek correspondent of the Lexington Dispatch writes: "We claim the most economical woman. She is a good truck raiser, but always takes up her onions when some larger than a hen egg. An inquisitive gentleman asked her why she did this, and she replied: "I board myself only, and when larger they is so much waste, for I can't eat a whole one at a mess."

Cards are out for the marriage on October 22, in Tarboro, N. C., of Mr. Herbert Worth Jackson to Miss Annie Hyman, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Frederick Phillips.—Cards are also out for the marriage of Captain Wm. G. McLaughlin, of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad service, and Miss Agnes, daughter of Captain T. J. Green, of Fayetteville, on the same date.

Yesterday morning Mr. Adam Ryles, an expectant bridegroom of fifty summers, got into his best suit of clothes and taking Miss Lizzie Lewis, a maided lady of forty summers in his buggy, drove to this city to get the "fatal noose," to get married. On reaching the city the lady said she would marry him at 3 o'clock p. m. At 3 o'clock Mr. Ryles was on hand, but the lady again objected to marrying him just then, saying "she did not come to town to marry but to get a new dress." This was the last straw and Mr. Ryles indignantly ordered Miss Lewis to get in the buggy. She told him he had to take her home. When last seen they were homeward bound and their conversation was not of a very amiable character.—Greensboro Patriot.

MRS. GOULD'S TRIAL.

She Pleads Not Guilty, But is Deeply Agitated.

MURPHY, N. C., Oct. 16.—The superior court for the county of Cherokee is in session here to-day, his honor, Judge Phillips, presiding. This term excites especial interest because of the trial of the English woman, Mrs. Lillian M. Gould, for the murder of her husband in June last. A special venire of 100 jurors was ordered and the trial set down for to-day.

Mrs. Gould appeared in court on the arm of her counsel. She is a typical blonde, with golden hair and large, full, blue eyes. She is fair and her features are figure-comely.

When called upon in court to hold up her right hand and answer "guilty" or "not guilty" to the charge, her voice was tremulous, and her countenance betrayed the deep agitation she was in. She pleaded not guilty. The general impression is that she will be acquitted.

BEUKNAP'S FUNERAL.

Buried To-day in Arlington National Cemetery.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The remains of the late ex-secretary of war, Wm. W. Belknap were today interred in the Arlington national cemetery in the ground tendered by the war department for the purpose. The religious services were conducted in the St. John's Episcopal church, which has been the scene of funerals of so many persons prominent in political, military and social life in Washington.

THEY KNOW A GOOD THING.

OTTAWA, Oct. 16.—The removal of Canadian export duties on logs is showing its effects. Already there is an enormous revival of shipments to the United States. One dealer has applied for 400 cars.

That's Right.

ROME, Oct. 16.—The government at Washington has notified the government here that no Italian emigrants who have been sentenced in Italian courts will be allowed to land in United States port.

NOT TOO MUCH.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Dr. McGonagall, charged with malpractice in the case of Annie Goodwin, was yesterday sentenced to fourteen years in the State's prison.

"Love and Law" Last Night.

The audience which greeted Milton Nobles and his company at the Grand opera house last night was large and appreciative. The house was filled. The performance of "Love and Law" was excellent and Mr. Nobles, author of the play, as Felix O'Paff, the hero played his part admirably. Mr. Nobles showed himself to be thoroughly conversant with his part and by his splendid acting won much applause. The other parts were well played and the entire cast of the performance was good. Louis F. Howard as Giovanni Coati, the Italian organ grinder, did some very creditable work, and Miss Lizzie Lambert as Ritta, the heroine, was a decided success.

Progress of Registration.

The total registration in the two wards of the city at 3 o'clock to-day was 1392. The east ward book showed 648 names, 392 white and 256 colored. In the west ward the number is 744, 566 white and 178 colored.

Strange News From Kansas.

From the Richmond State.

Kansas, Columbia's pride, is dying. She was once the one bright star of the entire west, but that star has now sunk into obscurity, leaving it a darkened land, where discontent stalks abroad over her boundless prairies, or more properly, sun-scorched desert, for a truth it is the "Great American Desert." Kansas is to-day struggling like a drowning man who clutches at a straw. Topeka, her fair capital, is falling into a sleep that perhaps will know no waking. It is the solemn, awful truth, as every town and city in the entire commonwealth is gradually sinking to financial ruin.

WHAT IS THE CAUSE? It is hard to tell.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

FOREIGN.

The strike of the dock laborers in Limerick, Ireland, has ended in a victory for the men.

The king of Denmark gave a dinner to the officers of the United States cruiser Baltimore.

The cabinet of Holland has declared that owing to the physical condition of the king he is unfit to reign.

An Austrian tailor traveled from Vienna to Paris inside a trunk and repeated the feat by traveling in the same manner from Paris to London.

An international securities bank, with a capital of $10,000,000, is to be established in Paris. It will issue bonds covered by government securities.

At a meeting of the London Trades Council it was resolved to call a delegates' meeting on October 23, representing 153,000 men, to consider the raising of 20,000 for the Australian strikers.

The premier of New South Wales said in a speech delivered before the chamber of deputies of that colony that the present strike in Australia has been almost as disastrous to that country as a bombardment would be.

HOME.

The president has returned to Washington from his western trip.

The late General Belknap will be buried at Arlington national cemetery.

The ancient Pausanias hotel, at Patterson, N. J., once the headquarters of Washington and Lafayette, was partially burned by fire yesterday.

The Count of Paris and party visited the battle-field of Antietam, in Washington county, Md., and then went on to Gettysburg via Hagerstown.

Patrick Gorman, foreman of the gas department of the Otis Iron and Steel company, Cleveland, went into the drying department to take a nap. Soon afterward the heat was turned on and Gorman was literally roasted to death.

General Reuben H. Davis, of Aberdeen, Miss., died suddenly of apoplexy at Huntsville yesterday. Gen. Davis was enroute home from Chattanooga when he was struck. He was a second cousin of Jefferson Davis, and the author of a recent publication entitled "Mississippi and Mississippians." He served as a member of the Thirty-fifth Congress and was re-elected to the Thirty-sixth.

DIED IN A HOTEL FIRE.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY AT SYRACUSE THIS MORNING.

ONE OF THE FINEST BUILDINGS IN THE COUNTRY BURNED.

IT WAS NOT FIREPROOF AND EIGHT LIVES WERE LOST.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 16.—The magnificent Leland, the most modern and the finest appointed hotel in Central New York, is to-day nothing but a mass of smouldering ruins.

It was 12:45 this morning when fire was discovered in the region of the kitchen, located on the second floor, in the rear of the west side of the building. Inside of fifteen minutes the building was in flames from end to end, and before thirty minutes had elapsed the walls had fallen, with the exception of the north-east corner.

The whole was one seething furnace, to which was added the horror that many lives were involved. At first it was feared that the loss of life was in the neighborhood of thirty, but as the day wore along the number of missing and dead was reduced to seven or eight.

When the flames began to sweep through the hotel the night clerk and porter set the automatic fire alarm bells ringing, and before the rudely awakened guests could realize what was the matter the flames and smoke rushed through the halls cutting off all ordinary means of escape.

The scene was a frightful one. Strong men seemed paralyzed with fear and knew not what to do. Others more cool hurriedly donned some of their clothing and girded about them the patent fire escape with which each room was equipped. It was nothing but a piece of webbing and a rope, but by this means many lives were saved.

AN AGONIZING SIGHT.

The burning hotel, viewed from the street, presented a scene which will never be forgotten. It was agonizing in the extreme. In many of the windows of the five stories of the burning building could be seen men and women piteously calling for help or making their escape by means of the rope appliances.

In a window on the fifth story a man and woman were seen to be apparently struggling in each other's arms. The woman evidently wanted to throw herself out of the window. Below them was a sea of flames. Soon after they were lost to view.

On the fifth floor, toward the Lafayette street side, four women appeared at the window. Their screams for help could be heard above the din and roar. The firemen shouted to them to stay where they were. A ladder was put into position, but the overhead wires prevented the raising of the ladders. Minutes seemed hours while one ladder man mounted the rounds and cut the wires.

Among the frightened women at the window was Annie Cummings, one of the servants. Her companions tried to persuade her from jumping head long into the street. While the ladder men were at work raising the ladders, willing hands had held the jumping net. The Cummings woman jumped with the evident intention of landing in the net, but struck on the pavement and fractured her skull fatally.

STRUCK THE WIRES.

The Cummings woman in her descent struck the wires and her body bounded over and over and she fell a bruised and mangled heap seven feet from the net.

Meanwhile the ladder men were working with a will and succeeded in placing an extension ladder against the building. A cry of horror rang out from the spectators when it was found that it was too short, but this was quickly succeeded by a cheer when one of the ladder men mounted the ladder and standing on the topmost round reached up and helped down three women.

It was the work of a hero. Had the Cummings woman waited a moment or two her life would have been saved.

FIERCE BURNING FLAMES.

On all sides men and women could be seen dropping from the windows or sliding down the fire escapes. In the center of the buildings was the court yard. Here was being enacted similar scenes to those outside the building. Some of the guests jumped while others used fire escapes.

On the roof of the boiler house, located at the west side of the building, at one time lay six or seven persons unconscious and injured. They were removed by the firemen and carried to a place of safety.

The flames swept through the building with unparalleled rapidity. Chief Engineer Riley, of the fire department, says that when he arrived at the scene and his men made for the upper portion of the building he with a couple of hosemen had reached the fourth floor and found they could go no further.

THE KILLED.

The following is the list of the dead so far as known: Annie Cummings, of New York, aged 24. William B. Harp, of Elizabeth, New Jersey. He lowered himself by a rope half way down from the fourth floor when the rope burned off and he fell to the ground. He died at the hospital at 4 a. m.

Rose Schwarz, 23 years, hotel domestic, jumped from the fifth floor. The right side of her face was smashed, she sustained a compound fracture of both arms, and received wounds about her head and face. She died from the shock and internal injuries.

Unknown woman jumped from the fifth floor. The back of her head was completely crushed in. She was killed instantly. She is supposed to have lived in New York.

ANTIMIGRAINE.

—THE—

NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.

TRADE MARK REGISTERED.

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.

Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.

Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPIRYNE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE, either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.

The dose for an adult is two teaspoonsful in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of Headache, symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending to ward an eventual permanent cure.
