COMMON SENSE TALK.

Our Fall and Winter stock of goods is all in, and is complete. This stock was bought so that we can sell it at our old prices. All goods bought since the new republican tariff went into effect Oct. 6th will be from 10 cts. to 50 cts. on the dollar higher, particularly Shoes and Tinware. We shall sell our present stock of Fall and Winter goods in all lines at same prices as heretofore, and that is cheaper than any other store in Asheville. We keep everything in Dress Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Factory Cloth, Tinware, Lamps and Glassware. We can fit out a family with everything to wear, from a tiny shoe for the baby to an overcoat for the grandfather, from a marriage to a funeral. You must buy your sugar and coffee from the grocer, then come to us, we can fill out the balance of your wants. It is but little trouble to come to our store and learn our prices before you buy, and it often amounts to a big saving in money. Country people particularly will save money if they will price our stock before they buy their winter supplies of Shoes, Hats, Clothing, Dresses, Overcoats, Pant Cloth, and Blankets. If we do not sell them as good goods for less money than anyone else in Asheville they can buy elsewhere, only be sure to come to our store before you buy, and remember the place, The "BIG RACKET"

Our Autumn stock is now very full and attractive, and we are selling a large quantity of goods. The stock was selected with great care, assuring very late and fashionable styles at bottom figures, the important advance in prices which has occurred since the purchase making the goods specially cheap. As we shall have to pay higher prices in the near future, the moral would seem to be: Buy early such articles as you expect to use this season. Aiding the Lottery. NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The United States express company has ordered its agents not to receive or carry Louisiana lottery association money. The other express companies are not likely to issue such an order, and are inclined to think that Platt's order will fail in its purpose. The Adams express company has handled more lottery packages than any other company because it controls the Southern express company.

THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN.

A CASE OF YELLOW FEVER IN NEW YORK.

THERE IS NO CAUSE FOR ALARM, HOWEVER. NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Health Commissioner Griffin, of Brooklyn, is investigating a suspicious case, which may turn out to be yellow fever. The victim was a man who arrived here from Santiago, on the steamer Santiago on October 17, and died last night at No. 79 Gold street. Dr. Hamilton, in charge of the bureau, said that the case was undoubtedly one of yellow fever. Another person, he said, from the same vessel had appeared at the marine hospital last week. His case was developing into yellow fever and he was sent back to quarantine.

A MOTHER'S FEELINGS. Her Daughter was Killed and the Murderer is Pleased.

MAUCH CHUNG, Oct. 24.—W. H. Campbell, was convicted in court last week of involuntary manslaughter for the killing of Gertrude Hickey. He was sentenced yesterday by Judge Dreher, to an imprisonment of six months in the county jail and to pay a fine of $20. The aged mother of the dead girl grew fairly wild in her dissatisfaction with the sentence. She sprang to her feet and with arms raised on high, in a loud, shrill voice, called out: "God Almighty, come down and do justice! I am not satisfied to see my dear daughter slaughtered in cold blood and him [pointing her finger at the prisoner] have only six months in jail. No, no! God Almighty, come into this court house and do the fair thing. Oh, come down; oh, do justice to this case."

Excited New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 24.—The Provenzano-Mattiangolo vendetta trial came up in the criminal district court yesterday. It is to this case that the killing of Chief Hennessy is attributed. Both the district attorney and the counsel for the defense united in asking for a continuance of the case on the ground that it would be unwise to try it in the present excited condition of the public mind. Judge Marr granted the continuance with some reluctance.

Can He See Irish Distress?

DUBLIN, Oct. 23.—Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, has started on a tour through the western counties in which the alleged distress prevails in consequence of the failure of the potato crop. Balfour's object in making the tour is to make a personal investigation as to the condition of the crop.

Has Given Nearly $1,000,000.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 24.—At the meeting of Cornell University trustees yesterday Henry W. Sage added $200,000 to his previous gift of $100,000 for the establishment of a department of philosophy. Mr. Sage's gifts to the university now aggregate more than a million dollars.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—President Harrison desires to go home to vote next month, but it is doubtful whether he can do so on account of the pressure of executive business at Washington.

MRS. MORRISON'S FRIENDS.

They Have Not Seen Her Since Thursday. A CITIZEN representative visited friends of Rhoda Morrison who is believed to have been murdered by her husband Henry T. Morrison, last Thursday night, at the Clayton farm yesterday afternoon. The people with whom she stayed there are colored, and she is now said to have been a mulatto, although Morrison was apparently white. It was learned from Letta Mayberry, the wife of Anthony Mayberry, that Mrs. Morrison came to her house on Sunday, October 12th and said she was going to stay for some time. Thursday, during the day, Morrison came to the house but there was no quarrel or fight. He left and Mrs. Morrison went down to the house of Jim Whitesides, Letta's father. After dark she came back to Letta's house and called for her heavy shoes. She put them on and taking nearly all of her clothes started off. Morrison did not come to the house with her, and if the two were together it was after leaving there.

HE CALLED HIM A FOOL.

AN OPEN LETTER TO J. C. PRITCHARD.

A Few Plain Words on Political Bosses That He Should Take to Heart—Will Abandonment Not be Allowed to Register by the Republicans? CALIFORNIA CREEK, N. C. [Oct. 22, 1890.] Open letter to J. C. Pritchard: Sir:—It has been brought to my attention that you have been engaged in the most villainous abuse of me, calling me a fool simply because I am not going to vote for you in this election. No I am not going to vote for you. I can tell you that plainly, even if I have always voted for you before when you ran for office, which is the case.

Yes, you have said you would move the postoffice if I voted against you. Who are you, that man should fear you and when did you get control of the postoffice department? Why, sir, I did not know that you were the postmaster-general, nor even the first or third assistant, nor even a clerk in the department. But still you say you intend to move the postoffice if I vote against you, my brother.

I thought this was a free country. I thought and still think that I have a right to vote as I please, and God being my helper, I intend to do it. I am informed that you called me a fool—fool, my friend, did you ever read the fifth chapter of Matthew, 21st and 22nd verses. If you never did I will read it to you. Now listen: Twenty-first verse: "Ye have heard that it was said by them of old times, Thou shalt not kill, and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment."

Twenty-second verse: "But I say unto you, that whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment, and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca shall be in danger of the council; but whosoever shall say, Thou fool shall be in danger of hell fire."

That's what the Bible says about it, and it seems to me that you ought to repent. I fear if you don't when the harvesting angel comes to harvest the earth you will be left standing with the black stumps of the field.

I am one of those that believe that man does sin, and having sinned, I believe in most repent, and sometimes having sinned and having repented makes him a better man than he was before. Oh, how badly you need it. You seem to think it a crime for any one to oppose you for office, and a crime for any one to vote against you. Why, sir, you are the most tyrannical political boss I ever read of. Now, however, is not what the people need; and thank God, there is a large percent of the American people that don't want it and don't intend to have it. Put that in your pipe and smoke it.

We want more manhood and less money, employed in the management of political campaigns, more brains, and more losses. It is, therefore, fitting that the patriotism of the country be enlisted in behalf of the betterment of the condition of affairs. Nothing else can avail. That is the reason I stand where I do to-day. Yes, sir, I believe in the good old doctrine advocated by Washington and Madison of rotation in office.

It seems that some of you people who have been enjoying office so long here in Madison county have lost sight of this doctrine. I believe that when one set of men have enjoyed the emoluments of office long enough they should let another portion of the people have a chance.

Bossism is the curse of American politics. It is the child of infancy. It is the parent of political crime. The political boss has no legitimate business of his own. During the exciting days of a political campaign he is at work concealing campaign lies in his office, or telling them on the street to willing listeners; this he does for political effect. Such a character is fit for the penitentiary; now I have apology to offer for this. If you get insulted you ought to be sure before you begin to throw your rocks, that you don't live in a glass house.

I know you have your understrickers out all over the county who are trying to teach the old farmers how to vote. Republicans that are going to vote against you, they are calling toploodes and traitors, Judas and all that. There was a Judas once, and there were unbelievers too; yes, men who persecuted and condemned and put to death, and this same persecuting people, would shed the blood of innocent men to carry out their purposes. I saw an instance of it this evening; a man with his head all mangled and bleeding; done by the politicians that you had appointed, and done for nothing only he wanted to register to vote the alliance ticket. Respectfully yours to vote the alliance ticket.

W. C. BRYANT, A Farmers' alliance man. BRICKBAT REGISTRATION. How Democrats are treated in Madison County. CALIFORNIA CREEK, N. C. [October 21, 1890.] EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—The registrar appointed by the county commissioners of Madison county, at the suggestion of Mr. Pritchard in place of registering democrats by placing their names on the books simply places a brickbat over their eyes and sheds the blood of his fellow man.

One John White, a very humble citizen of the fifth township, started out early yesterday morning to hunt the registrar for the purpose of registering his name for the coming election. After going to the house of said registrar and failing to find him at home, according to his advertisement, he rushed into Middle Fork township and from thence back into Fifth township, thence up California Creek to the head springs into Laurel township at a still house, the said registrar secreting himself in a house and closing the door.

Mr. White happened to discover the registrar through a broken window and asked Mr. Edwards, the registrar, to register him, whereupon no answer was made. Then Mr. White went to the head of the house where a hole was cut for a stovepipe. He attempted to look in the hole in order to talk to the man face to face when a brickbat met White in the face, cutting a very serious gash over his left eye, whereupon Mr. White quietly walked away all mangled and bleeding. This is the way Mr. Pritchard would slide into the legislature of North Carolina. Respectfully, MANY CITIZENS.

ANTIMIGRAINE.

NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE. TRADE MARK REGISTERED. ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.

Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.

ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPIRYNE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE. Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls of a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of Headache, if taken when first feeling the preliminary symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
