Who Told You So?

W. T. Crawford says that H. G. Ewart told him that he heard Jim Gudgey say that Bob Vance told him that Kope Elias heard that there was no doubt that W. W. Rollins said that Tom Johnston thought that Bob Parman had told Hitting Bull that Buffalo Bill had declared to J. H. Courtney that it was generally believed that Dan Reynolds had said that Bill Denver informed him at the congressional convention in this city that it was a well known fact that the House-keepers' Union had caught Gen. Clingman in saying that in his opinion it was a matter of fact and of great public interest that J. J. Mackey intended to Jess Lowry that Bill Nye had said while attending the county convention last Saturday that anyone caught reading this shall repair at once to the store of A. D. COOPER, North Court Square, and inspect his mammoth stock of all kinds of Groceries, Provisions, &c., where arrangements have been made to furnish you all kinds of Staple and Fancy Groceries of the Best Quality at the Lowest Prices.

COMMON SENSE TALK.

Our Fall and Winter stock of goods is all in, and is complete. This stock was bought so that we can sell it at our old prices. All goods bought since the new republican tariff went into effect Oct. 6th will be from 10 cts. to 50 cts. on the dollar higher, particularly Shoes and Tinware. We shall sell our present stock of Fall and Winter goods in all lines at same prices as heretofore, and that is cheaper than any other store in Asheville. We keep everything in Dress Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Factory Cloth, Tinware, Lamps and Glassware. We can fit out a family with everything to wear, from a tiny shoe for the baby to an overcoat for the grandfather, from a marriage to a funeral. You must buy your sugar and coffee from the grocer, then come to us, we can fill out the balance of your wants. It is but little trouble to come to our store and learn our prices before you buy, and it often amounts to a big saving in money. Country people particularly will save money if they will price our stock before they buy their winter supplies of Shoes, Hats, Clothing, Dresses, Overcoats, Pant Cloth, and Blankets. If we do not sell them as good goods for less money than anyone else in Asheville they can buy elsewhere, only be sure to come to our store before you buy, and remember the place, The "BIG RACKET"

THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN.

HOW THE MCKINLEY BILL HELPS THE LABORER.

NARROWING OUR MARKET FOR MINNESOTA FLOUR.

MANKATO, Minn., Oct. 30.—The Mankato flouring mills have been informed by their Chicago correspondents that, owing to the McKinley law, the flour merchants of Holland and Belgium will not buy any more of the second grade bakers' flour made in this country. This shuts out a market which has annually taken over 12,000 barrels of this grade of flour from the Mankato mill alone.
The result will be the discharge of a large number of men.

A BOGUS TICKET OUT.

THE REPUBLICANS ARE CIR-CULATING IT.

Democrats, Look Out for Tickets Having Smuthers' Name on Them in Place of Jones'—They Mean Fraud.

The ticket given below, typographical errors and all, is being circulated throughout the district by the republicans. It is apparently the straight democratic ticket, but the name of George H. Smuthers, the republican nominee for solicitor, appears at the bottom in the place of George A. Jones, the democratic nominee.
Here is the ticket:

For Chief Justice of the Supreme Court:

A. S. MERRIMON.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court:

WALTER CLARK.

For Superior Court Judge:

1st Dist. Geo. H. Bauman, Jr., of Beaufort.

2nd Dist. Henry R. Ryan, of Craven.

3rd Dist. Spier Whitaker, of Wake.

4th Dist. R. W. Winston, of Greenville.

5th Dist. E. T. Boykin, of Sampson.

6th Dist. James D. McIver, of Moore.

7th Dist. R. F. Armfield, of Iredell.

8th Dist. J. G. Gray, of Burke.

9th Dist. W. A. Hoke, of Lincoln.

For Solicitor, Twelfth Judicial District:

GEO. H. SMUTHERS, of Haywood Co.

This means that the republican party is becoming desperate and is determined to carry the coming election at all hazards.
Every democrat should see that he votes the democratic ticket, the whole democratic ticket and nothing but the democratic ticket.

Watch out for frauds as there are sure to be attempts made to perpetrate them.

AN IMPORTANT POINT.

Is Payment by Another of Naturalization Fees Bribery?

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 30.—E. E. Thomas, of Omaha applied to the supreme court for an injunction restraining 600 recently naturalized citizens of Omaha, from attempting to cast their votes at the next election and several judges of election of that city from receiving such votes if offered.

The claim made by Mr. Thomas was that the personal rights league, an anti-naturalization organization, had paid the fees required for the naturalization of these parties and that this action amounted to bribery.

The court refused to take jurisdiction on the case, but it is understood the question will be presented to the court again in another form.

CATHOLIC CELEBRATION.

A Great Demonstration in Chicago
Last Night.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Amid the most impressive ceremonies of which the ritual of the Catholic church is capable, Archbishop Patrick A. Fehan celebrated yesterday morning the twenty-fifth anniversary of his elevation to the episcopacy.

The scene in the cathedral of the Holy Name on Superior and State streets was a brilliant one. But the crowning glory of the celebration was the torchlight procession, which in point of magnitude and brilliancy has probably never been surpassed in the west.

Over 25,000 men were in line bearing transparencies, flambeaux and colored lights, while over the entire line of march the streets seemed arched in fire by a continuous stream of rockets.

IS IT MALICE?

A Tennessee Judge Indicted for Forgery.

GALLATIN, Tenn., Oct. 30.—Judge O. H.
Foster, of the county court of Sumner county, was indicted yesterday by the grand jury for forgery. Against him there are two counts. One that he issued his salary of $5,000 in advance, and the other is that he fraudulently issued warrants to the clerk of the circuit court. The indictment was taken up yesterday in the criminal court and has held the undivided attention of the public. Judge Foster's attorneys claim the prosecution is actuated by malice.

Railway Train Men's Meeting.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30.—The national convention of the brotherhood of railway train men which has been in session here for the past ten days closed its labors last night and adjourned. All the old officers were re-elected and the federation was ratified. Boston is the next place of meeting. The adoption of the master car builders' couple was entertained.

Died Just After Marriage.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Mr. Haughmont Howe, of the state department, married yesterday to Miss Mary Butterworth, daughter of Representative Butterworth of Ohio, died to-day of pneumonia.

The Egyptian Cotton Crop.

CAIRO, Oct. 30.—Latest estimate of the size of the Egyptian cotton crop places it at 3,900,000, contra an increase due to the recent fine weather.

Strike Declared On.

BOSTON, Oct. 30.—The strike of the journeymen free stone cutters, which has been in progress since February 28, is declared off.

MOST DEPLORABLE.

The Son of a Rich Englishman Shot at Cumberland Gap.

KNOXVILLE, Oct. 30.—Young Morris Watts, the son of the noted steel and iron man of London, went to Middleboro recently to visit his brothers, who are erecting an immense furnace there.
Late yesterday afternoon he was out hunting, when suddenly some one shot him through the groin. Watts fell insensible, but later regained consciousness and crawled to a residence. It is reported that he may not live.

Watts' father is many times a millionaire, and is said to be the largest coal dealer in the world. His investments at Cumberland Gap and Middleboro, when the plants are completed, will amount to $3,000,000 or more.

There is no clue.

GOES BACK ON MR. EWART.

EDITOR MORRIS WILL VOTE FOR CRAWFORD.

Ewart's Memory Becoming Too Slow for His Followers to Bear With—That Begging Circular.

The Hendersonville Times of this week quotes Mr. Ewart as follows:

"The gentleman [Crawford] lays great stress on a circular sent in open envelopes to the census takers and other federal officers in the district, requesting them to contribute a small amount, $5, to defray the expense of publishing the Farmer and Mechanic at Asheville, by Messrs. Stansill and Morris, two young men at Asheville who are publishing that paper.

The expression occurs in the circular, "Mr. Ewart recommends you to, and hopes you will give us your cordial cooperation and support."

"Now, I wish to say that the mention of my name in that circular was entirely unauthorized, and I regret that the young editors of that paper should have assumed to use my name in soliciting their subscriptions."

Mr. Morris, on seeing this article, sent the following communication to THE CITIZEN:

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—Under the caption, "Ewart an Assessee," Mr.
H. G. Ewart has an article in the last issue of his organ, the Hendersonville Times, in which he disclaims the fact of his authorizing the use of his name in a circular letter sent out by the former editors of the Farmer and Mechanic to census enumerators asking for contributions to aid in the publication of that paper.

While Mr. Ewart did not place his signature to this circular, and did not, as he says, authorize us to put it there, it was nevertheless in accordance with his explicit instructions that we should call on the enumerators and deputy marshals for aid. If Mr. E. attempts to deny this statement and shirk the responsibility by insinuating that we made false representations in said circular we can furnish abundance of proof of what we say, and will do so.

Mr. E's name was not signed to the circular, but merely mention to show that we had his approval, and sanction in making the call upon the office-holders in the district, and we consider his article in the Times as very unjust to us and entirely uncalled for by the facts in the case. I will not vote for Ewart this year, but on the contrary will vote for Crawford and will work against Ewart.

G. H. MORRIS.

Mr. Stansill refuses to talk on the subject.

DESERVED HIS DEATH.

Tom Woolfolk's Last Word Was a Plea of Innocence.

PERRY, Ga., Oct. 30.—Tom Woolfolk was hanged at 1:30 p. m. yesterday, for the murder, August 6, 1889, of Capt.
Richard F. Woolfolk, sr., his wife, Mattie Woolfolk, and their children, Richard, aged 20; Susan, 17; Annie, 10; Rosebud, 7; Charlie, 5; and Mattie, 18 months; also Mr. Temple West, aged 84. All were killed by blows on the head with an axe.

Woolfolk made no statement on the gallows but Dr. Warren read the following:

"I, Thomas G. Woolfolk, realizing the existence of an infinite and wise and holy God, sworn to meet Him, knowing all that I have ever done and fully understanding that I must stand before the judgment seat of God, and that today in a few hours I shall be called into His presence, so solemnly declare my innocence, and I leave, as my last declaration, that I did not take the life of my father, or any member of his family, or have any knowledge of the person or persons who did the murderous deed."

AN EARLY MORNING FIRE.

It Destroys the Residence of Mr.
J. D. Brevard Near the City.

The residence of J. D. Brevard, six miles east of Asheville and near Long's station, was destroyed by fire this morning about daybreak. The fire originated in the part of the house occupied by the servants and is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue. The neighbors gave all the assistance they could but the house was entirely consumed. A considerable amount of the furniture was lost. The loss on the house, which was thought to be about $1,000. Mr. Brevard, who is away from home, has been telegraphed the news.

EXPRESS RATES.

They are Advanced and the Public Suffers.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—A committee of the express companies, appointed to raise the freight tariff, has finished its work and a circular has been sent out notifiing shippers of merchandise by express of the advance in rates. The new schedule takes effect Nov. 1, and is based on an advance of 50 cents per 100 pounds between Chicago and eastern cities.

Made Him Insane.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Hogg, the London porter whose wife and child were found murdered in the locality of South Hampstead a few days ago and for whose killing Mrs. Creighton, alias Pursey, Hogg's mistress, was held by the coroner, has become insane.

Assassination of Chief Hennessy.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—The police here are in possession of information to the effect that three of the suspected Italians implicated in the assassination of Chief Hennessy have fled from their hiding places in New Orleans and probably they are now hiding in this city.

SWALLOWED HIS OWN OATH

PITIFUL CONDITION OF H. G.
EWART.

He Tells at Sandy Mush that He Has Signed the Alliance Demands, but Doesn't Say It Was Only a Newspaper Clipping.

From a Staff Correspondent.

SANDY MUSH, Oct. 28, 1890.

Ewart has signed! Defeat, overwhelming and certain, is staring him in the face and in his speech here to-day he announced that he had signed the demands of the Farmers' alliance. This was Ewart's day to open the discussion. He did not mention the fact that he had signed the demands in his first speech, but put it off till his fifteen minutes rejoinder, so as to postpone the scourging that Crawford is sure to give him one day later.

I can see Ewart now as he stood under the shade of the great oak at Hayes's store, in Rutherford county, with his hands uplifted toward heaven, and declared that before God he would rather resign and quit the campaign than to humiliate himself by signing these or any other demands that might be presented to him for his signature. I can see his lustreless eye almost glisten and shine as he shouted at the top of his voice that he would suffer his right arm
