Who Told You So?

W. T. Crawford says that H. G. Ewart told him that he heard Jim Gudgeon say that Bob Vance told him that Kope Blass heard that there was no doubt that W. W. Rollins said that Tom Johnston thought that Bob Furman had told him that Buffalo Bill had declared to J. H. Courtney that it was generally believed that Dan Reynolds had said in plain terms that he heard Jack Worley say that his friend John L. Sullivan had said that Bill Denver informed him at the congressional convention in this city that it was a well known fact that the House-keepers' Union had caught Gen. Clingman in saying that in his opinion it was a matter of fact and of great public interest that J. L. Mackey intended to Jess Lowry that Bill Nye had said while attending the county convention last Saturday that anyone caught reading this shall repair at once to the store of A. D. COOPER, North Court Square, and inspect his mammoth stock of all kinds of Groceries, Provisions, &c., where arrangements have been made to furnish you all kinds of Staple and Fancy Groceries of the Best Quality at the Lowest Prices.

COMMON SENSE TALK.

Our Fall and Winter stock of goods is all in, and is complete. This stock was bought so that we can sell it at our old prices. All goods bought since the new republican tariff went into effect Oct. 6th will be from 10 cts. to 50 cts. on the dollar higher, particularly Shoes and Tinware. We shall sell our present stock of Fall and Winter goods in all lines at same prices as heretofore, and that is cheaper than any other store in Asheville. We keep everything in Dress Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Factory Cloth, Tinware, Lamps and Glassware. We can fit out a family with everything to wear, from a tiny shoe for the baby to an overcoat for the grandfather, from a marriage to a funeral. You must buy your sugar and coffee from the grocer, then come to us, we can fill out the balance of your wants. It is but little trouble to come to our store and learn our prices before you buy, and it often amounts to a big saving in money. Country people particularly will save money if they will price our stock before they buy their winter supplies of Shoes, Hats, Clothing, Dresses, Overcoats, Pant Cloth, and Blankets. If we do not sell them as good goods for less money than anyone else in Asheville they can buy elsewhere, only be sure to come to our store before you buy, and remember the place, The "BIG RACKET"

Our Autumn stock is now very full and attractive, and we are selling a large quantity of goods. As we shall have to pay higher prices in the near future, the moral would seem to be: Buy early such articles as you expect to use this season.

THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN.

CLEVELAND ON THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

A MAJORITY PREDICTED FOR THE HOUSE.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 1.—The Argus this morning published the following interview with ex-President Cleveland on the political situation, sent to it by its New York correspondent:

"Of course it is needless for me to express the deep interest I feel in the election now pending. I am sure that there never was a public question discussed more thoroughly and more intelligently than has been the subject of tariff reform by its democratic advocates. The people's appreciation of the true province of government has been demonstrated and they have for years been led to believe that the conduct of public affairs might properly administer to their profit, not by securing a general prosperity founded on principle, but by giving a direct advantage to certain classes. There can be no advance in tariff reform where these ideas prevail."

"It is certainly true that in such a selfish operation the interests of some of the people must be neglected. Protest on the part of these has been stifled by the most ardent deception and cajoling. At last, however, these neglected ones are aroused, and in spite of the clouds of misrepresentation and delusion which surround them, they begin to see the light. Our agriculturists and others whose interests have been disregarded, while advantages have been accorded to a favored few, are discovering more and more clearly that the toll and uncompensated labor which should have added to their own comfort and prosperity, have been diverted to the aggrandizement of others, while they have constantly grown poorer. They fail to see in the accumulation of vast fortunes any compensation for their discouraging labor or for the forced and pinching economy."

"I am confident that we shall secure a majority in the next house of representatives. Our success may not be so sweeping and decisive as many of our sanguine friends anticipate, but it will be safe and substantial. The effective inculcation of the doctrine which characterizes the democratic policy, the thorough discussion going on in every part of the country, the undisguised salience of the republican party to secure its reputation in power through reckless enactments which stifle the results of the people's suffering, its brutal methods of legislation, and above all the positive distress daily threatening our people's homes under the operation of the new and iniquitous laws—a law which not only enhances the cost of necessities of life, but fosters the extortion of trusts and combinations—make certain the advent of a freer, better time, and the ascendancy of true democracy."

"The party that knew no discouragement in 1888 will not waver or falter in 1890."

THAT BEAR HUNT.

Was it of a Kind Not Creditable all Around?

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—I heard a gentleman, an old hunter, say yesterday that he had never had so much sport out of a hunt as he enjoyed in the bear chase of Thursday. If the two hundred participants and spectators, including the ladies enjoyed the chase equally, the amount of fun must have been considerable. Now, if the bear chase can be made the occasion of an equal amount of profit, everybody ought to be satisfied. I hope the profit will in the end be found to be so much more than the fun that the latter will seem very little in comparison even to those who enjoyed it. And that this may be the result I ask the local press unequivocally to express its disapproval of such doing which coming themselves to the conclusion that in the future there will be more pleasure to them and more of good to the community in the omission than in the renewal of such sports.

Asheville, Nov. 1.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

J. H. Woodward States His Position in That Respect.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—A circular signed by F. M. Stockton, chairman, and G. G. Hopson, secretary, purporting to be the proceedings of an alliance meeting, has been issued and needs attention at my hands.

On the 30th of September a mass meeting of members of the alliance and laboring men met in Asheville and nominated a ticket, my name being among the nominees for the office of register. I subsequently I announced my withdrawal from the ticket and the canvass. A number of gentlemen who participated in the September 30th meeting, united in a card announcing their determination to support the democratic ticket, and expressed their willingness as a candidate that card met with my approval. I hereby report that I am not a candidate, but desire to thank my friends of both parties for their expressions of support. I am a democrat and expect to remain so, in which I hope to have the active aid of all my neighbors and friends.

Respectfully,

J. H. WOODWARD.

Asheville, Nov. 1.

THE REPUBLICAN G. A. R.

Was the Letter in Yesterday's "Citizen" a Campaign Lie?

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—In your paper of yesterday was an article on "The Republican G. A. R.," which I, as a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, pronounce as a campaign lie. No true veteran would stoop to violate his sacred obligations in that way.

The G. A. R. is composed of men from both political parties. Respectfully,

GEO. F. SCOTT.

Asheville, Nov. 1, 1890.

The letter we quoted Mr. Scott can see at the office of the Democrat in this city.—ED. CITIZEN.

KILLED HIS RIVAL.

Terrible Tragedy in Anson County Last Monday.

From the Winston Daily. Lemuel Allen, a young man of prominence in Ansonville, this State, accompanied Miss Grace Greene to a dance near that place Monday night. While the affair was at its height, Julius Tyson, an old admirer of Miss Greene, called round Allen out of the room. The young man present knew that the two, and several followed them. By the time they reached the spot Tyson had his knife out and was literally chopping Allen. They tried in vain to separate the rivals. Allen reached for his pistol, which he steadily aimed at the trigger. The ball took effect in Tyson's temple. Tyson fell to the ground dead.

Allen gave himself up, saying that it was in self defense.

TRIED TO DO MURDER.

Desperate Attempt to Assassinate Capt. Mills.

From the News and Observer. It appears that a lot of desperadoes who are fostered in this state by the odious internal revenue system deliberately undertook the murder of Capt. Joe Mills. He had left the place of speaking at Dysartsville, when five of these desperadoes assaulted him, and were about to murder him when others intervened. The names of the alleged assassins are said to be one Vashero, ex-deputy United States marshal, Joe Patton, Alk. Cowan and Joe Walker.

$200,000 LOSS.

The Town of Chillicothe Almost Destroyed.

FROM THE ILL. NOV. 1.—The business portion of the town of Chillicothe was almost entirely destroyed by fire last night. The fire originated in Hancock's livery stable and spread rapidly in all directions. The telegraph and telephone offices were burned and all communication cut off so that it is impossible to obtain the details as yet. The loss will not fall short of $200,000 on which there is only a partial insurance.

Miners May Strike.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 1.—A convention of the miners of state is being held here to consider the proposition to strike to-morrow.

LAST OF THE CAMPAIGN.

CANVASS IN COUNTY AND DISTRICT CLOSED.

The County Candidates Speak at the Court House and Crawford and Ewart at the Farmers' Warehouse—Ewart Refuses to Reply.

The county canvass closed here this morning. The democratic candidates have been making a strong fight and have good prospects of success. The speech making began at 11 o'clock this morning in the court house.

The audience was large, the court room being crowded. The larger part of the audience was democratic. M. L. Reed, one of the democratic candidates for the house of representatives, made a splendid speech on the principles of the tariff and the McKinley bill.

Mr. J. A. Harris, who is opposing Mr. Reed, followed and made a vague speech on what he called shortcomings of the democratic party. Mr. Folsom, who is Mr. Harris' fellow candidate for the house of representatives, talked about being a yankee and said he was opposed to the Force bill, although he said he wanted some kind of a law for the freedom of the ballot.

Mr. E. L. Brown, republican candidate for register of deeds, made an empty attack on Mr. Mackey, the democratic candidate, and Mr. Mackey, in his reply, met these points and made a strong point against his opponent. He charged him with scattering democratic tickets with his (Brown's) name substituted for his own. Brown admitted this.

Mr. Lowry, democratic candidate for the house of representatives, made a vigorous speech on the general issues of the day.

Sheriff Reynolds said that he would not speak as the crowd would adjourn to the Farmers' warehouse and hear the congressional candidates. Mr. Reynolds said he would defy any one to make truthful charges against his record as sheriff.

The county candidates were all limited to ten minute talks.

AT THE FARMERS' WAREHOUSE.

The crowd adjourned to the Farmers' warehouse, which had been secured for the congressional speaking, because of the fact that the court house was too small.

The crowd at the warehouse was large and was enthusiastically democratic. Mr. Ewart spoke first, and talked for an hour. Mr. Ewart spent a large part of his time in telling about mica, and what had been done for the mica mines in western North Carolina. He did not appear as happy and buoyant of spirits as six weeks ago, before he began the canvass. Crawford's speeches have told on him. He was cheered two or three times.

Mr. Crawford replied to Ewart's speech in a speech lasting an hour. He was greeted with rousing cheers and the audience was so enthusiastic when he appeared that he could not be heard for some time. He put in some heavy blows on Ewart when he did talk, and the crowd enjoyed his scathing exposure of Ewart's promises on the "Repeal of the Internal Revenue Law."

Mr. Crawford scored a good point when he told of how Ewart had read a party of the repeal of the tobacco law at Sandy Mush but had stopped before he came to the provision saying that every farmer should give an account of the tobacco raised.

He spoke of the republican party's action on the silver question amounting to the demonization of it in July 1, 1890, and said that the democratic party had never struck a single blow at silver. Mr. Crawford pleased and delighted his immense audience, many of whom saw for the first time our next representative.

Mr. Ewart was entitled to a reply of fifteen minutes, but the crowd seemed to be so enthusiastic over Crawford that he got rattled and refused to speak.

The Skyland cornet band was present and furnished some excellent music. The members attracted considerable attention by their handsome uniforms.

The members of this band are E. A. Levene, leader, O. A. Miller, Chas. Case, Arthur Case, Thos. Case, M. C. Bell, Alonzo Sumner, J. B. Merrell, M. W. Dawkins, Chas. Sumner, J. H. Sumner, A. M. Clark, J. Pinner, J. R. Rickman.

The band favored THE CITIZEN with a serenade of select music after the speaking closed, for which they will accept hearty thanks.

Mr. Crawford will very probably speak at the court house to-night.

ACROSS THE RAILS.

Attempt to Wreck a Train in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Dastardly attempts to wreck a train on the Pittsburg, Wayne & Chicago Railway, at the corner Thirtieth street and Fourth avenue, was frustrated by a policeman early this morning. As the officer was crossing the track he discovered a bar of iron about twenty-four feet in length stretched across the tracks and tied down.

Count of Paris Falls.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Comte de Paris and suite sailed for Liverpool to day.

Julius Ferry a Candidate.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—Julius Ferry will be a candidate for the senate January next.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

HOME.

Ex-Governor Pattison's libel suits cannot be heard till Monday week.

The United States government building at Chicago is sinking, and engineers say it may collapse at any moment.

The sixth annual conference of the College Young Men's Christian Association of Virginia will be held in Richmond November 14.

Republican state associations in Washington are flourishing vigorously just now, and officeholders complain of being forced to join them.

The monument in honor of the men who lost their lives in the Jeanette Arctic expedition has been unveiled in the Naval academy cemetery at Annapolis.

A "Conference Association" of Unitarians was formed at Chicago, yesterday, to effect a reconciliation between the Unitarian churches of the West, which have been divided since the attempt was made in 1886 to put the churches on a purely ethical basis. About half the churches objected and withdrew.
