A BIG FIRE AT OWENSBORO, KEN-

HOTEL GUESTS JUMP FOR THEIR LIVES.

FIVE PERSONS MISSING AND MAY BE BURNED.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Nov. 7.—Owensboro was visited last night by the most de-structive fire in her history, and when the debris is cleared away the conflagration will probably be found to have been attended with loss of he At 1 o'clock the fire had destroyed property to the amount of $250,000 and was still burn ing. At that time it was believed that serve you at all hours. Night at least five persons had met their death under falling walls, while others were seriously injured in jumping from the burning building. The fire originated in a pantry in the pasement of the Rudd house, a handsome modern hotel which was filled with guests. The guests ran out into the streets in their night clothing, while many, crazed by fear, jumped from the windows of the hotel. Among these were two ladies and a child, both of whom are badly injured. William H. Hohn jumped from a third story window of the Rudd house, fell on his back and is fatally injured.

fatally injured.

Five guests of the Rudd house are missing and they are believed to have been burned to death while sleeping.

Charles Lubeck, a traveling salesman from Philadelphia, and Charles Barcford, of New Albany, had a narrow escape and were badly burned.

A high wind was blowing at the time the fire originated and after the hotel had ocen swept away the flames reached the Bank of Commerce building, next door, and that, with the building occupied by Marks and organ, grocers, and Quicksere & Co., merchant tailors, was soon in askies.

In a few minutes the fire-spread around the corner and burned the buildings occupied by Markers and Dolar Smith, butchers; Williams, furnishing goods; John Reinhardt, furniture; A. J. Wadley's five store building and D. A. D. Euans livery stable.

ONLY FIRE WAS LACKING LOCOMOTIVE CRASHES INTO A SLEEPER.

No One Killed, but Several Hadl Injured, and the Wonder is Tha Any Survive the Accident.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7 .- An almost mirae alous escape from death by the occu pants of the Jacksonville, Fla., sleeping car on the Cincinnati Southern road hap pened at Innetion City at 3.38 o'clock his morning

The Louisville and Nashville railroad crosses the Southern road at this point When train No. 8 of the Southern road reached the station this morning or schedule time and stopped at the usua place the middle of the sleeper stood directly across the track of the Louisville and Nashville. On the latter road a heavy freight was coming from the west It should have stopped two hundred feet from the crossing until the track was clear, but it did not stop. It is said the brakes would not work and that the grade was too steep.

At any rate the trainstruck the sleeper in the middle, the cogine ploughing brough and breaking the car to piece and throwing the occupants right and lett on either side of the track. The engine left the track and crashed into the aggage room of the Louisville and Nashille depot.

Fortunately the wrecked car did not take fire and no one was killed outright. The injured are: Herbert F. Tonsley, Belvidere, Ill., concussion of the brain; Mrs. S. W. Wheeler, Milwaukee, knee out slightly; Jennie R. White, three years old, Milwankee, injured about the head. There are at Junction City, Ky., under ordical treatment: D. J. Wheeler, Findlay, O., slight scalp wound; bruises on neck, Fred A. Shaler, boy, Findlay, O.; slight bruises. Davis D. Shaler, Findlay, O.; compression of citest. These three are able to travet and will reach this city this afternoon: W. T. Harder, Jacksonknox, Edward Gruntard and Col. Pulley Anderson, who, while on the New York Herald, sent Stanley on his first African expedition to find Livingston.

Stanley was asked to say something about the rear guard troubles, and the stand the London papers have taken on it since Stanley's departure from England.
He said:

Slight bruises. Davis D. Stanler, Fundary, O.; compression of chest. These three ere able to travel and will reach this city this afternoon: W. T. Harder, Jacksonrille, Fla., general freight agent Savananh, Florida and Western, badly injured

McLean, conductor of the steeper, was slightly injured, as was also the engineer of the freight train. Mr. E. D. North-rup, of Ebeotrsville, New York, a pas-senger on the wrecked sleeper, said he could not account for the escape of anybody on the car. The engine crashed through it with such force that the brough it with such for whole car was in rains and the sleeping assengers were thrown promisenously among the debris. The delayed train reached Cincinnati over three hours late little after 10 o'clock to-day.

Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING BLSE.

ANTIMIGRAINE Has carned for itself tion of being the firest, most effective and reliable article is the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and bose who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such oisonous drugs as ANTIPYRINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE, Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from mjurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is n n Cathartic, does not lisarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients. The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of head sche-without respect to cause-leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "barmess" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in he market, wherever known.
