THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN. A SUSPENSION ON THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE. AUGUST BELMONT, THE BANKER, DIED THIS MORNING.

New York, Nov. 24.—The suspension of Edward Belmont was announced on the stock exchange this morning. He was one of the oldest and most prominent members of the exchange, having been admitted September 8, 1852, and considered one of the wealthiest brokers on board. It is said the suspension was caused by the large decline. He was a bull and carried large lines of stocks, but when prices touched the bottom after losing an immense amount of money on the bull side, he turned bear and sold the stocks short and was caught in the rapid advances that followed. He was for a number of years located at No. 19 Broad street, but now his office is at No. 2 Wall street.

August Belmont died at 3 o'clock this morning. Belmont's banking house is closed to-day, and on the glass door was a notice of the banker's death. In the office itself nothing but business of the most pressing character was attended to. Mr. Belmont's death resulted from a severe cold he contracted at the late horse show. If he had lived until the 8th of next month, Mr. Belmont would have been 74 years old.

At the time Mr. Belmont died, there were present at his bedside his three sons, August N., Perry and Oliver, and Belmont's physician, Dr. Wm. M. Polk. Mr. Belmont was out Thursday last. That night he was taken sick and gradually grew worse until he died, as yet no arrangements have been made for the funeral.

The run on the Citizen's Savings bank here, which has lasted several days, is practically over. The services of the police were no longer necessary to-day, and this morning there were only about fifty depositors who called for their money. Some of the first depositors who drew their money, the amounts of which were very small, wanted to deposit, but the bank officials declined to take anything more to do with them on the ground that they were among those who inaugurated the trouble.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 24.—Thos. Fawcett & Sons, one of the largest coal firms in this city, made an assignment to the Central bank this morning. Their liabilities are estimated at $400,000. It is claimed by members of the firm that their assets exceed this amount by at least $150,000. A statement of their financial condition is promulgated this afternoon. The senior member of the firm, Thos. Fawcett, is president of the Central bank.

BISHOP BECKWITH DEAD. He Was Born in Raleigh, This State, in 1831.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 24.—Early yesterday morning Bishop John Watrous Beckwith, of the Episcopal Diocese of Georgia, died at his home in this city. For many months Bishop Beckwith suffered from an abscess of the jaw and throat. Bishop Beckwith was one of the most notable men in the Episcopal church. He was the finest pulpit orator in the south, if not in the entire country, and has been a power in his church in Georgia. He was born at Raleigh, N. C., in 1831.

A REVOLUTION. It is Promised by Socialists in Paris. PARIS, Nov. 24.—A meeting of anarchists was held here yesterday to discuss the arrests of nihilists recently made in this city. The meeting was attended by 150 persons. Palevsky, a Russian Pole, suspected of the murder of Gen. Selivskoff, was appointed honorary president. A number of violent speeches were made, and resolutions adopted declaring that in the event of failure to effect socialist reform there would be a revolution.

SULLIVAN ON A TEAR. The Brute Nearly, But Unhappily, Not Quite Breaks His Neck. TAUNTON, Mass., Nov. 24.—When John L. Sullivan and Duncan B. Harrison, with other members of their company, came here Saturday, Sullivan celebrated in his usual manner and nearly broke his neck by falling through a window at the hotel. During the afternoon he kicked Harrison in the back, injuring him so that he could not appear at the evening performance.

A VIOLENT GALE. A Great Blow Around the Right Little, Tight Little Island. LONDON, Nov. 24.—A violent gale prevails in the English channel and elsewhere along the coast of Great Britain. A number of wrecks and collisions are reported. The British steamer Uppingham, from Cardiff for Port Said, is ashore at Hartland. Twenty-one persons were rescued from the steamer. The first officer was lost. A boat containing five of the crew is missing.

CANT' DENOUNCE FARNELL. A Priest Nobbed for Trying to Do No. LONDON, Nov. 24.—In the Italian Catholic church at Hutton Garden to-day the rector, Rev. Mr. Bannin, took occasion to denounce Farnell, whereupon several members of the congregation left the church. In leaving the church Father Bannin was attacked by a crowd and struck several times.

ALEXANDER CHAPPEL. This Plan of Worship Dedicated Yesterday. Alexander Chapel, five miles north of Asheville, was dedicated yesterday. An immense crowd was present and a number of them could not gain an entrance to the building. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Presiding Elder J. H. Weaver, of the M. E. church, south, and was highly spoken of by those who attended. The services were conducted by Rev. J. S. Burnett.

The trustees of this church are J. R. DuBose, J. W. Aiken, J. A. Gwaltney, T. A. Clark, W. C. Aiken, and W. A. Waggoner.

VANCE ON THE SPEAKERSHIP. He is in Favor of a Man From the North. Hon. Z. B. Vance, United States senator from this state, was in town to-day on his way from Gombroon, his summer home, to Washington. He reached Asheville last night. Senator Vance was seen by THE CITIZEN at the Battery Park hotel at noon. With reference to the speakership of the next congress, he says that he thinks the south should allow a northern man to be elected. "The northern people are having much bigger gains than those in the south and I think they are entitled to it," he said.

"I think we have gained four or five senators in the present congress," he continued, "and if the revolution goes on as it has started, we will have no trouble in getting control of the senate in March 1892."

Senator Vance was asked about his own reelection to the senate. "I have no doubt about that," he said, "as the men who are pledged to vote for me are all honorable I think there will be no trouble about my reelection." He would not speak of the possibilities of Cleveland or Hill, for the presidency in 1892. "That is a forbidden subject," he said.

Murdoch, of Salisbury, N. C. Dr. Murdoch is well known to the people of Asheville, and has had experience in conducting mission services. Ryan won easily in three rounds. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—The steamer Almada brings the news that Peter Jackson and J. Woodford fought an eight-round draw at Melbourne, Oct. 20. Jackson was out of condition.

Rev. A. Shaw has been called by the Fayetteville presbytery to conduct the evangelistic work in this district. He has given notice to his church here of his desire to leave his pastoral relations dissolved.—Carthage Blade.

The trustees of the Oxford orphan asylum selected Rev. Dr. William S. Black MeCune as a very ambitious man and it appears that Calloun played upon this very ambition. There does not appear to be any love lost between Col. Polk and McCune.

A PLOT TO MASSACRE.

THE KIND OF FRIENDS UNCLE SAM SUPPORTS. A Plot to Murder Col. Brooke and His Command Revealed by a White Man Who Overheard It. PINE RIDGE AGENCY, Nov. 24.—The first knowledge that the ghost dancers had commenced plotting to entrap the soldiers was brought to Indian Agent Royler last night by Wm. D. McGaa. McGaa enjoys a wide friendship among the Indians generally and last night stayed at one of the lodges about midway between this point and Buffalo Gap. A little curiosity, prompted him to feign sleep during the early part of the night. After he had laid down an hour or so one of the red-skins bent over to discover whether he was asleep. To all appearances he was, and he heard them get up and begin a whispering consultation, deliberately plotting to lead Gen. Brooke and his soldiers into ambush and shoot them down.

Their plan is to continue the ghost dance until the troops try to stop it. The place selected to carry out their murderous design is a place sixteen and a half miles north of here, and a more advantageous locality for so devilish a deed probably does not exist anywhere. It is in some part of an amphitheater shape. The plot is to have the ghost dance in the center of this amphitheater and have the woods on either side of the road full of Indians, and when the military come up to stop the dance they would be easily shot down by the Indians in ambush on either side. By lining the road with their Winchester traps the distance of a mile and letting the troops get well into the amphitheater, they were calculating they could wipe out every soldier that came, and their calculation was a perfect one.

THE SCARE SUBSIDING. Maybe There Will be no Indian War After All. MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 24.—The Journal-Pierre, S. D., special says. This is the ratio day at the Cheyenne agency and the Indians are congregating there in large numbers. The scare is subsiding. Indian Agent Norville has just returned from the Bad River country. He says the Indians there are abandoning their dance promises not to participate in them again.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Several dispatches from Fort Mills, received at the war department this morning, were taken by Secretary Proctor to the white house for the President's information. The substance of them is mainly confirmation of the news already received from the west. It appears that affairs at Standing Rock agency show much improvement. A considerable number of Indians from Rosebud agency are reported as moving toward Pine Ridge.

THE NEW YORK CITY LOCAL REPORTER SAYS OF THE "OUT OF SIGHT" COMPANY which appears here Thursday night: "Out of Sight" is the title of the satirical farce-comedy which was placed on the boards on Monday night, and the name is most appropriate. The plot of such a term may be applied, consists in the introduction of a young lady and her father to 'society life' in New York, and it is in devising the preparations for this all-important event, that the principal scenes are enacted. A French dancing-matter shows his terpsichorean and etiquette qualifications, an Irish comedian gives vent to his vocal abilities, a bout at fisticuffs takes place with the gloves, and a highland fling and various other dances are indicated. The whole affair is most laughable, for mirth and folly prevail during the entire time."

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE. FOREIGN. A bill has been introduced into the chamber of deputies, of France, regulating American life insurance companies in that country.

The governments of Turkey and Bulgaria have received a notification that the United States will create a diplomatic agency at Sofia.

Professor Koch has been granted, temporarily, the use of five buildings in a suburb of Berlin, where he will carry on experiments relating to the discovery of a cure for infectious diseases.

Special telegrams to Bradstreet indicate that the money stringency has had no serious effect upon general trade.

Since the passage of the anti-lottery law there has been a reduction in the revenues of the New Orleans postoffice of about one third.

The official count of the recent vote in New York shows that thousands of blank ballots were cast and that there were many defective tickets.

It is understood that Birchall did make a full confession to Rev. Mr. Wade, his spiritual adviser, and that it will be made public as soon as Mrs. Birchall leaves the country.

ANTIMIGRAINE.

NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE. TRADE MARK REGISTERED. ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY SURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY. Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.

ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPIRYNE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE, since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age in either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of headache, it taken when first feeling the premonitory symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
