THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN

PARLIAMENT OPENED BY THE SPEECH FROM THE THRONE.

EXTENDED REFERENCE TO IRELAND'S MISERIES.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Parliament re-assembled to-day. The Queen's speech opening the session said that the security of the peace of Europe appeared to be undiminished. "The general condition of Ireland," says the speech, "has sensibly improved under the salutary legislation which you have applied to it, but I have learned with deep regret that a serious deficiency of the potato crop in certain parts threatens the recurrence of those periods of severe distress to which the population of the west is peculiarly exposed by industrial and economic conditions under which they live. I trust the measures of my government may mitigate the immediate evil and diminish the probability of its return."

"It appears to me desirable, for an increase of content and a diminution of political disturbances throughout Ireland, to take measures for augmenting the number of owners engaged in the actual cultivation of the land. Measures having this object in view will be laid before you."

The speech also called attention to the various reforms needed in the kingdom.

FEW FINANCIAL TROUBLES

A CRISIS PREVAILING IN BUENOS AYRES.

A suspension in New York and one in Memphis—Neither Have Great Importance—Assets More Than Liabilities.

PARIS, Nov. 25.—A dispatch from Buenos Ayres says a financial crisis prevails in that city.

Several credit houses have closed. There was a tumult on the bourse and the police were called upon to quell the disturbance. The premium on gold has advanced to 250.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The suspension of J. C. Weldon has just been announced on the stock exchange.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 25.—Thos. H. Allen & Co., cotton factors and commission merchants at No. 8 Madison street, made an assignment this morning. The firm is one of the oldest in the south and has a branch office in New York. The firm is composed of Thomas H. Allen, Sr., Thomas H. Allen, Jr., Harry Allen, and R. H. Allen, Jr. The assignment made this morning was precipitated by the suspension of the Richard H. Allen & Co., the New York branch.

The announcement of the suspension has caused a profound sensation. The firm was one of the largest in Memphis and considered one of the most substantial in the south. Harry Allen, one of the members of the firm and, "Our assets are largely in excess of our liabilities and with time the firm can pay dollar for dollar in settlement of all its indebtedness and have a large surplus left."

THE SCOTTISH SOCIETY.

Preparations for the Annual Meeting Being Made.

If anything can be judged by the spirit manifested last evening, the worthy Scots of Asheville intend to have a celebration on next Hogmanay night which will eclipse any of its predecessors. About a score of the lovers of the immortal Bruce assembled at the store of Mr. D. R. McKinnon and quickly dispatched the important business which had called them together. This was accomplished by the appointment of the following COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS: Hugh Petrie, James Simpson, James Frank, James Colvin, Sandy Munson, John Miller and William Strachan.

To this committee was referred all the details of the annual meeting and no doubt it will be thoroughly well done.

It was then proposed that the organization of the society should be perfected more permanently, and a fund provided for relief of such of their countrymen or women as may be in need. For the latter purpose a subscription from those present was at once proposed and $78 was collected. All the other members will have the privilege of contributing to this worthy object by sending such amount as each can spare to the treasurer, Mr. James Frank.

For drafting a plan of permanent organization and such by-laws as may be required the following committee was appointed: T. W. Patton, J. S. Grant, James Frank, James Colvin, D. R. McKinnon and G. S. Arthur.

It was resolved that all members of the society shall wear balmoral caps at the annual meeting, and such as wished to do so, might appear in full Highland costume. The meeting then adjourned to reassemble at the same place on Monday, December 8, at 7 p. m. when the committee will report.

TERRIBLE EPIDEMIC.

Ten Thousand Persons Afflicted in One Town.

PRESTI, Nov. 26.—An epidemic of influenza prevails at Puenfkirchen, Hungary. One thousand persons in the place are suffering from the disease. Many cases of the disease resemble typhoid fever, while others are attended with copious hemorrhages from the intestines.

The Alabama Senatorship.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 25.—The democratic caucus to nominate United States senator met last night. Several ballots were taken. Senator Pugh gained ten. The last ballot stood: Pugh, 54; Kolb, 37; Seay, 25; Watts, 7.

A motion to adjourn until day was then carried, sixty-three to fifty-nine.

Big Floods.

CARLEBAD, Nov. 24.—The floods have swept away the Goethe statue. The river Rger and Moldau show an alarming rise since yesterday.

ELECTRIC KILLING.

It is Not Cruel or Unusual, the Supreme Court Says.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The supreme court of the United States to-day affirmed the judgment of the circuit court for the southern district of New York in the case of Shibusha Jugiro, Japanese, confined in Sing Sing prison, New York, under sentence of death by electricity. It was sought to secure Jugiro's release on the ground that the Kemmler case had demonstrated that electricity was cruel and an unusual punishment and as such prohibited by the constitution.

Chief Justice Fuller announced the decision of the court, affirming the judgment upon authority of the decision in the Kemmler case. This, it is believed, destroys the last legal resort of the counsel for Jugiro.

THE STARVING PROCESS.

THE ONLY WAY TO SUBDUCE THE INDIANS.

No Outbreak as Yet, and Perhaps There May Be None—Ration Day Passes Off Quietly—Meating Beef.

VALENTINE, Neb., Nov. 25.—Ration day passed off quietly at Rosebud yesterday. Not over twenty of Short Bull's followers were present. This is accounted for by the fact that they had already helped themselves to the government beef herd. There will probably be no conflict with the Indians unless the troops attempt to make arrests of the fanatics who are responsible for the theft of beef from the agency herds.

The number of troops is entirely inadequate for anything except defense of the agency against an attack. Four companies are on their way to reinforce the Rosebud agency. This will make seven companies of infantry and two troops of cavalry at that place. This force is still too small for aggressive purposes.

Without at least two regiments of cavalry it would be useless to try to force the Indians into subordination. The most economical plan would be the starving process by placing the cattle herd beyond the reach of the Indians and arresting the leaders in detail as they come for something to eat.

MEETING OF THE LADIES.

They Assemble to Arrange for Entertaining Delegates.

The meeting of the ladies of Asheville, to make arrangements for the entertainment of delegates in attendance upon the southern inter-state immigration convention, in December, was held in the Grand opera house yesterday afternoon.

Col. J. D. Cameron, secretary of the Asheville executive committee called the meeting to order and made a full explanation of its objects. He dwelt on the immense importance of the movement and expressed his great confidence in the ability of the ladies to effect by their cooperation what the men could not do. He spoke of the large number of guests to be provided for. Col. Keuben McBrayer also made a pleasant talk advocating the movement among the ladies.

Col. Cameron then announced that as it was a ladies' meeting the permanent organization was in their hands and withdrew, but on motion of the ladies he was made permanent chairman and Col. McBrayer permanent secretary. The following officers were elected: First vice president, Miss Lillie Buxton; second vice president, Mrs. J. M. Smith; third vice president, Mrs. M. T. Fitch; fourth vice president, Miss Mary Coffin.

These ladies are to have charge of the business of procuring accommodations in their respective districts of the city, with the aid of a committee. Miss Buxton, appointed as her helper in the section south of Patton avenue and west of South Main street these assistants: Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Miss Hattie Scott and Miss Mary Smith. Miss Coffin, for that part west of North Main street and north of Patton avenue, appointed Mrs. C. E. Graham, Mrs. G. L. McDonald and Miss R. Porter. Mrs. Fitch, for east of South Main and south of College streets, appointed Miss Cushman, Miss Clegg and Miss A. Broyles.

PARNELL IS THE LEADER.

CHOSEN BY THE HOME RULE MEMBERS TO-DAY.

Mr. Gladstone Has Hinted That "Twere Best That Parnell Should Not Attend the Coming Session of Parliament."

LONDON, Nov. 25.—A meeting of the Irish home rule members of parliament was held to-day before the opening of the session of the house of commons. Parnell was present. He was loudly cheered as he entered the room. A motion was made that Parnell be elected chairman of the Irish parliamentary party. It was carried unanimously.

It is announced that Parnell will retain the leadership at the express desire of his followers.

It is learned that after a verdict had been rendered in the O'Shea divorce case the conservatives held a private conference at the Carlton club and unanimously decided that parliament should be immediately dissolved.

DUBLIN, Nov. 25.—The Freeman's Journal says a report that Parnell is to retire from the leadership of the Irish party is absolutely without foundation. The Dublin Express states that Gladstone has hinted to Parnell that it would be better for the Irish cause if he should not attend the coming session of parliament. Parnell's friends, however, say that they will not allow him to absent himself.

Harold Frederic, who has represented the New York Times in London for half a dozen years, has been interviewed by the Utica Observer, and he makes public a phase of the Parnell case which has been long known to those who have made a special study of this matter. Mr. Frederic said:

"The loyalty of the entire body of Irish members to their leader has been, perhaps, the most remarkable feature of the whole nationalist campaign in parliament. It is now five years since the great majority of them took their irrevocable oath to follow Mr. Parnell on all questions involving the issue of home rule. I am bound to say that they have conducted their obligation to fidelity in a manner simple, wonderful. No one not in the actual field can realize how difficult it has been for them to maintain this attitude. Mr. Parnell has done a great work; he will go into history as the statesman and not as the leader of a generation who has served most of Irish gratitude. But in his personal capacity as a leader he has been the most exasperating and depressing thing imaginable. The Irish party has made its position in the house of commons, and won its potential place as a balance of power in British politics, solely as a fighting party. The strain upon its members through all these years has been prodigious. Eternal vigilance was demanded of them—incessant attendance, perpetual alertness of watch, untiring readiness to fill up gaps in the time of the house which had otherwise work to Ireland's disadvantage. Imagine the feelings of these men, fighting day and night, as it were, when for months at a time their leader would absent himself, refusing even to give an address or enter into communication with his lieutenants, and when their opponents all knew that he was off at Eltham or Brighton with Mrs. O'Shea."

LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY.

To be Presented at the Grand Opera House.

About the performance of "Little Lord Fauntleroy," which is to be presented at the Grand opera house to-morrow, matinee and evening, the Nashville American says:

"Little Lord Fauntleroy won his way to the hearts of a representative audience at the Vendome last night, and the interest which had been aroused by the promises made for this play was fully answered. As a play it is delightfully sympathetic, and as a story it is told with a delicious and an easy flow, its march is followed without a conscious effort. The parts are more strongly drawn than in any other play in which a child is the leading figure, and each of these parts was last night in excellent hands, with a combined result which has not been surpassed at the Vendome this winter. So much has been said of the principal role, that the aggregate force of the cast was an agreeable surprise. After the first act, which is merely preface to its function, the story becomes absorbing, and strong dramatic situations evolved with each new phase."

Not Had Time Yet.

BURLING, Nov. 25.—Bergmann in his clinical lecture to-day warned his patients that no absolute cures had yet been effected by the use of Prof. Koch's curative lymph.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

FOREIGN.

Lord Salisbury has, it is reported in London, decided to dissolve the British parliament in the spring.

Professor Koch will prosecute a series of experiments for scarlet fever, measles, typhus and other epidemics.

Experts are beginning to concur in the opinion that a cure of cases of tuberculosis on the lungs by the Koch treatment is uncertain.

The British foreign office has promised to extradite Padlewski, who is suspected of having murdered General Seliverson, in Paris, if he is arrested within the British dominions.

HOMER.

The sugar crop of Hawaii this year is estimated at 120,000 tons.

Several large shipments of silver from the interior of Mexico have been made to the United States.

Republican leaders in congress still talk of passing the force bill and oppose any modifications of the McKinley tariff.

Gen. Bradley T. Johnson suggests a Maryland-Virginia oyster commission and the presentation of 10,000 acres of oyster lands to the Johns Hopkins university.

Col. W. S. Sapp, of Council Bluffs, one of the best known politicians of Iowa, is dead, aged sixty-six. He was a member of the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth congresses.
