WE THANK YOU

For your liberal patronage in the past, and are trying to make ourselves more worthy in the future. Never before have we had such an excellent stock to select from, having increased it wonderfully, especially in Fine Goods, and we always make prices low. In fact this is characteristic with us, and we have found some trouble with the better class of trade on account of low prices. We admit this is a great incentive to raise prices, yet we rely upon the good judgment of the masses to sustain us. Remember, we guarantee every article sold, and if not as represented, or does not give you entire satisfaction, we kindly ask you to return it and we will cheerfully give you back your money or anything we have in exchange. We keep 'most everything in the Grocery and Provision line, including Grain and Feed, and would be glad to have your trade. We deliver goods free of charge to any part of the city, and keep a two-horse wagon for delivering Groceries in large lots and for our Grain and Feed trade.

THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN

COL. POLK RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE ALLIANCE.

THE ST. LOUIS PLATFORM, AND MORE, HEARTILY ENDORSED.

OCALA, Fla., Dec. 6.—Clover, one of the Kansas delegates, introduced and had passed at yesterday's national alliance meeting a resolution reciting that the United States census returns with respect to farm mortgages were grossly incorrect, and calling upon all the county and sub-alliances to secure accurate statistics and make prompt reports thereon.

National Secretary Turner submitted his annual report last night. During the past year 1,069 new charters were issued to sub-alliances.

The feeling over the passage of the anti-election bill resolution of Wednesday is high and there is a strong pressure being made for the introduction of a resolution to expunge it from the records of the alliance.

Western and northwestern delegates are said to be practically united on endorsing the Rice-Davis call, and it is predicted that they will demand of the southern democrats and the alliance that they join the movement—in the payment of the debt incurred by the latter to the western alliance men who sat by and raised no protest against the passage of the anti-election bill resolution. It is not believed, however, that the southern members will renounce one particle of their allegiance to the democratic party.

Some question having been raised as to the unanimous endorsement of the St. Louis platform by the national alliance last year, Livingston, of Georgia, moved its adoption by the present body. The motion was adopted with an amendment so as to demand government control of railroads and telegraph lines, and it shall not result in relief to the masses and in checking or curing the existing evils the government shall become the actual owner of such lines. This platform does not include the sub-treasury bill.

Wade, of Tennessee, offered an additional amendment to the St. Louis platform that every alliance lecturer, state or national, and all newspaper organs of the alliance shall support the St. Louis and Ocala platforms, or suffer suspension from the order. This was adopted and the whole platform as amended was adopted unanimously upon the call of roll by the states.

At last evening's session of the alliance Chairman McIlwain presented the report of the committee appointed to investigate the charges affecting the official conduct of Polk, McNamee and Livingston. The committee found nothing impugning President L. L. Polk, but regretted "the writing of the Norwood letter." As to Livingston, the committee said it was not prepared to endorse his course in the Georgia senatorial contest. As to Dr. C. W. McNamee, the report says: "We regret his official connection with the Georgia senatorial contest."

The report was adopted without debate. Col. L. L. Polk was re-elected president of the national alliance, J. F. Clouse, of Kansas, vice president, J. H. Turner, of Georgia, secretary.

For national lecturer J. H. Willets was elected. H. D. Tillman was elected to the vacancy on the legislation committee for a term of three years, and Delegate Cole, of Michigan, was elected a member of the judiciary committee.

The alliance met at 9:30 this morning. Much dissatisfaction was expressed at the report of the committee on the investigation of the charges against Polk, McNamee and Livingston. There are rumors that the matter will be brought up again for discussion.

At yesterday's morning meeting of the colored alliance the following resolution was adopted: "That we, the delegates attending the national colored Farmers' Alliance, do hereby urge upon congress to pass the colored election bill and let it apply to all sections of the United States."

DIVIDED NATIONALISTS.

FORTY-FOUR OF THEM LEAVE PARNELL.

Great Crisis in Irish Affairs—Parnell Refuses to Put a Motion and Open Rupture Follows.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—At the meeting of the Irish members of the house of commons today Barry Sexton and Healy insisted that there be immediate division of the members on the question of the retirement of Parnell. Sexton moved that Parnell vacate the chairmanship of the party.

Parnell refused to allow the motion to be put whereupon McCarthy, followed by 44 other members, left the room.

BOUNCED!

How Secretary Blaine Gave Mizer His Dismissal.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The president has sent to the house the correspondence as to the killing of Gen. Barrandia on board the Pacific steamer Acapulco in San Jose de Guatemala, called for by resolution of September 2, last.

Secretary Blaine's letter to Mr. Mizer concludes as follows: "For your course in interfering to permit the authorities of Guatemala to complete their capture of Barrandia to me, you have no justification. You were informed that your act was regretted, and I am now directed by the President to inform you that it is disavowed. The President is of the opinion that your usefulness in Central America is at an end. You will, therefore, leave your post with all convenient dispatch."

Marriage Licenses. Marriage licenses have been issued to the following named couples: R. N. Buckner and Lucinda Whites; J. P. Sheppard and S. E. Bradley.

M. L. Reed Appointed. Mark L. Reed, one of Buncombe's new legislators, has received a commission from Gov. Powe as a delegate to the immigration convention.

THE MARKET NOT CROWDED.

A Misstatement by a Paper in a Town in Catawba County.

The Hickory Press-Carolinian, in its issue for this week, makes this astonishing assertion: "Asheville, we understand, is overladen with lumber, and the dealers there have reduced the market price."

W. H. Westall, a prominent lumber dealer and absolutely denied that such is the case. "In the contrary," he said, "the demand is very heavy, and the dealers have raised the price of lumber an average of $1.00 per thousand feet. For some kinds of lumber the demand is greater than the supply. This condition has been so for several months."

HEAVY COTTON FAILURE.

V. A. AND A. MEYER'S LIABILITIES ARE $2,500,000.

Their Assets are at Least as Much and the Firm Expect to Pay Dollar for Dollar—North Carolina Interested.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6.—The cotton firm of V. A. and A. Meyer has suspended with liabilities aggregating $2,500,000 and assets $3,000,000.

This is the third largest cotton house in the country and it was supposed to be one of the wealthiest. They will ask for an extension and say they will pay dollar for dollar. The recent financial panic, the slowness of collections and the decline in the price of cotton each had its share in the result. The house composed of Victor Meyer, vice-president of the Union national bank, Adolph Meyer, recently elected to congress from the first Louisiana district, and Cassius Meyer, a capitalist.

The firm is interested in 25 or 30 cotton plantations and owned half a dozen of the best sugar plantations in the state.

The failure was not announced until after business hours.

It is feared that the wreck of this great commercial house may involve several other firms.

Solomon Meyer is a resident partner and the manager of the New York office of the firm. V. and A. Meyer are part proprietors of the Robt. Gibson cotton mills, the Natchez mills, and the Strips manufacturing company of North Carolina.

SOCIAL, MUSICAL.

The College of the Seaside of a Pleasant Entertainment.

A delightful social musical was given in the parlors of the Asheville female college last night. The entertainment was given by President B. E. Atkins and wife, and the teachers and pupils of the school and was attended by a number of the patrons of the school and also by the young men of the city. An excellent musical and literary program was rendered and the pieces showed wonderful talent on the part of the young ladies, developed by the great skill of the instructors. The program was as follows:

FIRST PART. Piano Duets—Sonata in D.....Clement 3 Mov. G. Wilbur, A. Russel. Vocal Duets—When the Swallows Fly..... Besse Reeves. L. Newland, P. Arnold.

A divorce was granted to Maggie Worties from her husband Joe Worties on the ground of adultery on the part of the husband.

Finley & Nelson were given a judgment for $50 in a suit against the R. and D. railroad company for overcharge in freight on a car load of hay from Nashville.

Cotton Crop Report. New York, Dec. 6.—The total visible supply of cotton for the world is 2,078,081 bales, of which 2,506,181 are American, against 2,828,434 and 2,439,036 respectively last year. Receipts of cotton all interior towns, 218,495 bales; receipts at plantations, 279,181; crop in sight, 4,381,919.

THE INDIAN GRIEVANCES.

A PRIEST VISITS THEM IN CAMP.

He Does So at the Risk of His Life But With the Result, Probably, of Advancing War.

OMAHA, Dec. 6.—The Bee has received the following from its special correspondent at Pine Ridge agency, S. D.:

As perilous a mission as a man of God has undertaken for many a day toward averting bloodshed and loss of human life, was completed to-day when good Father Jule, the Catholic priest whom Gen. Brooke requested to go out and talk with the hostile Indians, returned to the agency. The reverend father was accompanied by Jack Red Cloud, the widely respected son of the famous chief, but he went more as a guide than as a protection.

The day after the Indian camp was reached the chiefs met Father Jule in council. There were present Two Strike, the head chief, Turning Bear, Short Bull, High Hawk, Crow Dog, Kicking Bear, Eagle Pipe, Big Turkey and High Pipe. The pipe of peace was conspicuous by its absence. Father Jule opened the council by asking the chiefs to state the particular cause of the grievance that had led them to assume so startling an attitude of war.

The replies were, substantially, as follows: "We object to the recent census return made by Mr. Lee. His enumeration, as he is now making it, would not give food sufficient for us to live on. Lee puts us down as less, many less, for each tepee, than it contains. We are to receive food according to that enumeration. We shall starve; we know we shall starve. If the great father chooses to cheat us we will have one big cat before the starving time comes. After that we shall fight our last fight."

"The great father has done another wrong. He put a boundary line between the Rosebud and Pine Ridge agency that makes many of us lose our homes. The great father broke an old treaty when he did this. We can no longer believe the great father. He says: 'Children you shall never be moved again, unless you want to go;' and then he goes away and moves us."

"We are not coming in now and will not lay down our rifles because we are afraid of the consequences. If we stop now the great father will send many of us to his big iron house to stay many moons. We would die."

After a long pause Crow Dog said that they might come in if the soldiers were taken away. Father Jule urged them to give up their designs of war. Finally he urged the chiefs that they come back with him. To this some of the older ones answered favorably, but the young ones, who were heavily in the majority, said no; but they finally agreed they would in a few days all come back to Father Jule's house, four miles northwest of the agency, and meet General Brooke and tell him in person just what they had told Father Jule.

While in the hostile camp Father Jule said there were 2000 men all fully armed. The camp is wholly inaccessible, he says, to the military.

"God alone knows," continued the priest, "the fearfulness of the results of awaiting an effort to conquer these hostile people if they continue in their present stronghold."

WHY HE WORE IT.

The Explanation a Superstitious Witness Gave in Court.

A sleepy looking witness for the plaintiff in the case of Dockery vs. the R. & D. railroad company caused considerable merriment in the court house yesterday. When being questioned by the attorney for the railroad his manner was decidedly interesting. Upon being asked a question relating to himself, he would look the dignified attorney straight in the face and with a peculiar drawl inquire:

"What, me?" The lawyer would invariably shout at the top of his voice in reply to this: "Yes, you!"

This did not seem to disconcert the witness however and the answer was always the same. When he was leaving the stand, the attorney noticed a string tied loosely around the neck of the witness. This seemed to give him another chance at the man and he at once yelled: "What are you doing with that string around your neck?"

"That is to keep my nose from bleeding," quietly responded the superstitious mountaineer.

"You can be excused!" thundered the lawyer, and the witness shambled to a seat and became a spectator to the administration of justice.

The Matrimonial Market Affected.

From Judge. Chicago Daughter—Pa, Baron le Grand and Prince Joinville have both asked my hand in marriage.

Father—Two months ago, my child, I could have bought you the price, but I'm afraid a baron is all I can afford to-day.

Chicago Daughter—Pa, your business has suffered no serious shock, has it?

Father—No, daughter; but under the McKinley bill foreign importations have gone 'way up.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

A fight to a finish for $6,000 has been arranged between James J. Corbett, the San Francisco pugilist, who stood up against Jake Kilrain at New Orleans, and Frank P. Slavin, of England, who defeated Joe McAuliffe. The fight is to take place at New Orleans before April 15, 1891.

ANTIMIGRAINE.

NEVER FAILING CURE FOR HEADACHE.

TRADE MARK REGISTERED. ABSOLUTELY SAFE, PERFECTLY PURE AND ALWAYS SPEEDY.

Cures Every Variety of Headache AND NOTHING ELSE.

ANTIMIGRAINE Has earned for itself the enviable reputation of being the finest, most effective and reliable article in the market for the speedy relief and cure of every variety of that common trouble, HEADACHE. The immense favor which has greeted it from all quarters, proves its true merits and acceptability to the public. It is something which almost everyone needs, and those who have once tried it, will never be without.

For its curative powers it does not depend upon the subtle influences of such poisonous drugs as ANTIPYRINE, MORPHINE, CHLORAL AND COCAINE.

Since it does not contain an atom of either of these. It is absolutely free from injurious chemicals, and can be taken by young and old without fear or serious results. It is not a Cathartic, does not disarrange the stomach, and contains no noxious or sickening ingredients.

The peculiar advantages of Antimigraine consist in its being thoroughly reliable as a cure for any kind of headache—without respect to cause—leaving no unpleasant or annoying after-effects, as in the case of other so-called "harmless" remedies. These qualities make it the most popular and saleable article in the market, wherever known.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. The dose for an adult is two teaspoonfuls in a wine glass of water. Dose for children in proportion, according to age. In either case the dose can be repeated every thirty minutes until a cure is effected. One dose will always drive away an attack of Headache, if taken when first feeling the premonitory symptoms; but if the attack is well on, and suffering is intense, the second or third dose may be required. Usually a greater number of doses is required to effect the first cure than is needed for any succeeding time thereafter, showing that the medicine is accumulative in its effects, tending toward an eventual permanent cure.
