For your liberal patronage in the past, and are trying to make ourselves more worthy in the future. Never before have we had such an excellent stock to select from, having increased it wonderfully, especially in Fine Goods, and we always make prices low. In fact this is characteristic with us, and we have found some trouble with the better class of trade on account of low prices. We admit this is a great incentive to raise prices, yet we rely upon the good judgment of the masses to sustain us. Remember, we guarantee every article sold, and if not as represented, or does not give you entire satisfaction, we kindly ask you to return it and we will cheerfully give you back your money or anything we have in exchange. We keep most everything in the Grocery and Provision line, including Grain and Feed, and would be glad to have your trade. We deliver goods free of charge to any part of the city, and keep a two-horse wagon for delivering Groceries in large lots and for our Grain and Feed trade.

THE NEWS!

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE CITIZEN

THE ALLIANCE DEEP IN POLITICS NOW.

A PROLONGED DISCUSSION ON THE SUB-TREASURY BILL.

OCALA, Fla., Dec. 8.—The Citizens Alliance perceived a national organization here Saturday. It is designed to supplement the Farmers' alliance, and its purpose are solely political. Its membership is restricted only by endorsement of the St. Louis and Ocala platforms.

Its subordinate alliances will be organized only in cities, towns, and incorporated villages. The president is J. D. Holden, of Kansas; secretary, Ralph Beaumont, of New York; treasurer, L. P. Wild, of Washington.

The declaration of principles says that the organization is formed for the purpose of co-operating with the Farmers' alliance, the Knights of Labor, and other orders in the support of the St. Louis platform, "and to this end the organization is political in its nature." It is declared that the present national organization is temporary, and that as soon as the country is organized in a majority of the states full national conventions shall be held to revise it.

The representatives of the alliance exchanges throughout the country have formed an important national organization. The figures submitted by the state managers of the exchanges showed that a business aggregating more than ten millions was done by them last year. Contracts were made here last week with representatives of manufacturers for the purchase of more than fourteen million dollars' worth of goods during the coming year. The state managers organized with J. B. Dines, of St. Louis, president; W. L. Peck, of Atlanta, vice-president; Oswald Wilson, of New York, secretary; and J. K. House, of Kansas City, treasurer. It was decided to adopt the Georgia system of doing business throughout the country. The alliance exchange in that state does practically a cash-brokerage business.

The colored alliance finished its work Saturday. They re-adopted the St. Louis platform without amendment. They decided not to deal with third party officials, but all the delegates, with the exception of those from Georgia, signed the call for a third party conference to be held at Cincinnati, Feb. 23.

The committee on the president's message, with reference to the salaries, reported in favor of making the president's salary $30,000, with the exception of one of which he must pay his private secretary; and in fixing his official residence in Washington. Adopted.

A tremendous row was created by President Hall, of Missouri, who insisted on reading, amid great disorder, his "reasons" for not signing the report of the committee that investigated the charges against Polk, Macune and Livingston. Hall thought the report censured Polk too much and Macune and Livingston not enough, charging that they had pleaded guilty to some of the charges from which the committee's report exonerated them. Finally Livingston secured the adoption of the motion making a continuance of the investigation a special order for 8 p. m. Before that hour Hall withdrew his "reasons" in the interest of harmony, but said, "they are true and I do not change my mind."

The alliance assembled again this morning and listened to the report of the committee on legislation with reference to the sub-treasury bill. A warm controversy on that subject went on all the morning.

Washington was chosen as the next place of meeting, but it may be changed to Indianapolis.

THE TOBACCO TAX.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The ways and means committee to-day voted to report the bill authorizing the secretary of the treasury to refund so much of the tax collected on tobacco (which shall be in the hands of dealers and manufacturers January) as was abolished by the recent tariff act.

The house has passed the pension appropriation bill.

Sherman A. Johnson has been nominated as collector of customs at Georgetown, D. C.

Secretary Noble has announced a plan for aiding claimants to secure pensions without the help of attorneys.

The republican caucus committee of the senate has decided to postpone consideration of the resolution shutting off debate.

Senator Gray, of Delaware, threw the republican members of the senate into confusion by his attack on the domiciliary clause of the force bill.

The correspondence between Secretary Blaine and Minister Mirner over the Barvin affair shows that Mirner was severely reprimanded for exceeding his powers and was then recalled.

HAS SHE FOUNDERED?

Possibility that 100 Naval Apprentices are Drowned.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 8.—A fishing smack arrived at Ostend to-day and reported that the Belgian training ship, Ville D'Auvera has foundered at sea. She has on board 100 naval apprentices.

The government has received indefinite advice of a disaster to the training ship but does not believe that she has foundered.

A BAD FAILURE.

The Collapse of a Pennsylvania Bank—Small Assets.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Dec. 8.—Reports continue to come in of sufferers who have lost more or less heavily in the collapse of Delamater & Company's bank. Liabilities may reach $200,000; assets probably half that.

INTENSELY COLD.

The Kind of December the North is Now Having.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 8.—A terrible storm set in here last night. Sleet, snow and hail fell. It has now turned into a snow storm and rages furiously. The weather is intensely cold.

IS PARNELL CRAZY?

He Strikes One of His Supporters—A Revolution.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—At 3:15 Saturday the members of the nationalist party re-assembled. A strongly worded letter from Archbishop Walsh was read demanding Parnell's removal.

Then followed Abraham's motion, but Parnell refused to put it. As a written resolution to the same effect was being handed in by Justin McCarthy Parnell leaned across the table, struck McCarthy's hand, and seized the resolution and tore it to pieces. Justin McCarthy denounced Parnell as the insulter of his father and an enemy to his country. He declared that he had hitherto acted with Parnell but that henceforth he would re-ignite him.

The opponents of Parnell who withdrew met immediately in another room, elected Justin McCarthy chairman and unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

"We, members of the Irish parliamentary party, solemnly renew our adhesion to the principle that the Irish party always must remain independent of the other parties. We will never entertain any proposal for the settlement of the home rule question except such as satisfies the aspirations of the Irish party and the Irish people."

This resolution was immediately communicated to Gladstone. Upon learning what had been done he exclaimed: "Thank God, home rule is saved!"

In response to a call issued by Justin McCarthy, leader of the anti-Parnellites, they assembled to-day and named the committee to assist Mr. McCarthy in deciding the future action of the party.

FOURTH REGIMENT.

J. G. Martin, of Asheville, Re-Elected Lieutenant-Colonel.

The fourth regiment of the North Carolina state guard held its annual election at the armory of the Hornets' Nest rifle-men at Charlotte. Five companies—located at Statesville, Lincolnton, Asheville, Concord and Charlotte—were represented either in person or by proxy. The Monroe, Dallas and Waynesville companies were not represented. Col. J. T. Anthony was re-elected in spite of his recent resignation. This is regarded as an endorsement of his course. Lieut.-Col. J. G. Martin, of Charlotte, was re-elected in nomination and received three votes to Col. Anthony's twelve. Mr. Martin was unanimously re-elected lieutenant-colonel. Maj. E. F. Young was re-elected by a vote of eleven to four over L. N. Schiff.

THE CHURCH STONED.

A Reward of $25 is Offered by the Catholic Congregation.

The congregation of the Catholic church on Haywood street have been considerably annoyed of late by miscreants stoning their house of worship. The windows of the building are closed with canvas until the glass comes, and on two occasions this has been found torn and rocks have been found in the interior. Saturday night the pastor, who lives next door, heard a rock strike the side of the church, but on going to the door could see no one as the street is without light at that point. The congregation has offered a reward of $25 for the discovery of the person or persons doing the work.

CUT WITH A RAZOR.

Mary Henson Hurt by Her Husband.

Jas. Henson, colored, was put in jail several days ago for mistreating his wife's child. He was released Friday, his sentence having expired. Saturday he went to the house of his wife, Mary Henson near the Asheville tobacco works and the trouble between the two was renewed. In the quarrel the woman was badly cut with a razor in several places on her hands. Henson escaped and has not been caught.

Death from Consumption.

Miss Mary Beckman, of Bardstown, Ky., died at the Oaks hotel yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Miss Beckman had been in Asheville for two weeks. She came here suffering with consumption, which caused her death. Her mother was with her. The remains were taken to her former home this afternoon for interment.

Important.

The elected republican superior court clerk of Craven county could not give bond.

Mr. Hurwell Blanton, of Shelby, has given $100 to the Wake Forest endowment funds.

FREIGHT TRAIN WRECKED.

FIVE MEN ARE INJURED, BUT NONE FATALITY.

Brakeman Gaines has his Thigh Broken—Caused by a Broken Brake Beam—Passengers to be Transferred.

Through freight train No. 19, loaded chiefly with coal and cotton, and which left Asheville early this morning, was wrecked by a broken brake beam beyond the Swannanoa tunnel about nineteen miles east of Asheville, at half past six o'clock. The engine and the train were derailed.

Conductor R. B. Leinster, of Statesville, and Engineer George Beaver, Fireman J. H. Sullivan, brakemen Sylvester Downs and James Gaines, of Salisbury, were injured. Down's arm and Gaines' thigh were broken and Sullivan was cut on the face. The injuries of the others were not serious.

Dr. W. D. Hilliard, of this city, surgeon for the railroad company, was sent to the scene of the wreck soon after the news reached Superintendent Melce's office here.

Passengers on east bound passenger train No. 53, leaving here at 1:32 this afternoon, were to transfer at the scene of the accident to west bound train No. 52, which is to return to Salisbury. No. 53 is to bring the passengers of the other train here and take them through. The officers say the track will be cleared by 7 o'clock to-night.

AN ALARM OF FIRE.

Members of the Fire Companies Dissatisfied.

An alarm of fire, so badly mixed up that nobody could tell from which box it came was sounded yesterday afternoon at about 4:30 o'clock. It was thought that the bell was attempting to strike the number of a box in the western part of the city and the fire companies all started in that direction. After a run for some distance out Haywood street and finding nothing they turned back. No fire was found or has since been reported.

The members of the fire companies are getting considerably dissatisfied at the frequent alarm which have called them out of late for nothing but burning chimneys. A prominent member of one of the companies in conversation with THE CITIZEN this morning spoke of the ordinance which provides that any person suffering a chimney within the fire limits to become foul with soot so as to blaze out at the top, except in damp or rainy weather, shall, on conviction be fined $5. He said that there should be an ordinance of this kind, embracing the entire city as far as the water supply goes and that it should be enforced so that there would not be so much trouble from this source.

He also called THE CITIZEN'S attention to box No. 432 on South Main street which is so broken as to permit anybody to turn in an alarm from the outside of the box with a stick. This same member said that there was danger of a disbandment of the company should there be so many calls to take them from their business in all sorts of weather for nothing. "One good thing," he continued, "would be for the city to have several chimney sweeps who could be employed by anybody to clean chimneys. This would avert much of the trouble."

Just a Little Behind Now.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—How gratifying to know that, "the world do move." The article in Friday evening's paper, "Co-operative cooking and washing," is absolutely savored with salvation. After reading it, I shouted three hallalujahs, amen. This is something unusual for me to do, and I beg your pardon if I did wrong.

On the 13th of September last, I suggested this co-operative plan, with the exception of details in the cooking department, to the members of the housekeepers' union. The prices were identical; the shares to be $25. However, later I proposed to reduce the shares to $10 and begin with the laundry alone at twenty-five cents per dozen or two dollars per hundred, all plain pieces to be mangled; the others requiring hand ironing to be rough dried—to send home, or change for ironing at the laundry, optional of course. But after consulting husbands, the ladies seemed to think the idea too premature and (I hope the hubbies were not to blame) no action was taken in the matter, only a little work or fizzle on my part, the result of which was a slight shock to neighbor Girdwood's nerves.

How much I do regret that Asheville could not have seen the point first. Moral—Wake up! Time and tide wait for no man. Respectfully yours, P.
