formula for the manufacture of the same. Laid over.

The morning hour having expired, the presiding officer laid before the senate the election bill. Air Paddock gave notice that, after consideration of the pending bill (and before it should be concluded if debate on it was to be protracted to any great extent) be would ask the senate to take up his pure food bill which was demanded by the farmers from one end of the country to the other. Goods for shipment packed

The United States senate passed a bill to terminate the reduction in numbers of he engineer corps of the navy.

The election bill was further discusse by Senators Coke and Bate in opposion, and by Senator Cullom in favor. Republican Senators give different ac-counts of their caucus Wednesday night and it is not believed any solid agreement as to the financial propositions or the force bill was reached.

The house, after considerable skirmishing, took up the bill to place the American marine engaged in foreign trade on equality with that of other nations, and Mr. Parquhar, of New York, spoke in favor of the bill.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Dec. 20.-The ournal's South Dakota special says: General Miles has received advices from General Brooke that 500 friendly Indians left Pine Ridge yesterday to attempt to bring in the hostiles at Port Yates, announce that the Indians there are quiet. Thirty-nine of Sitting Bull's Indian who left the agency Monday have sent in word that they will return. Carr has thrown out a cavalry force to intercept a band now reported moving across the reservation to the Bad Lands. If the force fails to intercept them they will be pursued and arrested.

Gen. Miles says no advance will be made until the result of the Pine Pidge embasay is known. Big foot and Hump have surrendered, and returned to the agency. No Indians except the band mentioned are now going to the hoatiles and the cordon is constantly tightening. No further engagements are reported from the lower ranches. The government herd has been located at Alkali creek and a force of twenty men leave here to-day to round it up. Two companies of the 17th infantry from Fort Russell are expected here this afternoon and will at once follow the forty-five Cheyenne scouts from Pine Ridge who started for Cheyense this morning. The available force along the Cheyenne under Gen. Carr is about 1,000.

A Child's Clothing Ab' are Witho Any One to Quench the Fire.

About 10 o'clock this morning the ten months old child of W. P. Kilpatrick, who lives on the corner of Silver and Blanton street was fatally burned, by its clothing accidentally catching on fire, clothing accidentally catching on fire, when no one was in the room except a child three years old.

Mrs. Kilpatrick left the infant with its three year old brother in a room in the house in which they lived and went across the street to a neighbor's house. While she was out the child's clothing caught fire and its screams attracted its aunt, another Mrs. Kilpatrick who was in the yard. She went in and extinguished the flames but qot until the victim had been fatally burned.

Dr. L. B. McBrayer was sent for and did all in his power to alleviate the little sufferer, but about two o'clock this afternoon, after having undergone fearful agony, the child died.

W. P. Kilpatrick, its father, is a carpetter by trade.

THE CONCORDIA SOCIETY.

It is Re-Organized for the Wisi and Officers are Elected.

The Concordia musical society held its first meeting last night for practice for the chorus, which has been formed from its members. The society has been or ganized this year on a different basis, only active members, those who belon to the chorus, or who will take part in the programs, or act on committees being eligible. Monthly musicals will be held as last year, and weekly practices of the chorus. Miss Champion at a previous meeting was unanimously elected president and Mr. H. D. Child secretary and treasurer. The membership alread numbers about fifty, and thirty of th chorus were present last night for practice Under Dr. C. A. Garrett's efficient training the Under Dr. C. A. Garrett's efficient training the excellent material already in the chorus, should do good work and already gives promise of most satisfactory results. It is proposed to give one or more concerts in the spring, so that the public may have the privilege of hearing them. All desiring to join should send their names to the secretary, who will present them to the membership committee. The fee is two dollars and each member is allowed an extra admission to the monthly musicals. The meetings are held in the Y. M. C. A. lecture hall.
