PARNELL'S DAY OF FATE.

THE ELECTION ON IN KILKENNY.

Police and Soldiers Guard the Polls as Though It Were not a Country of Freemen.

KILKENNY, Dec. 22.—The polling opened briskly this morning. Everybody is looking forward to a most exciting day. The presence of the military in large force and the police scattered throughout North Kilkenny seem to be guarantees against any serious breach of the peace.

Parnell and his candidate Vincent Scully arrived upon the scene at an early hour.

The town is occupied by a body of police and a company of fifty soldiers. Timothy Healy has gone to Castle Corner, which place, in his opinion, will be the keynote of the fight.

It is a strong and enthusiastic contingent of supporters from both sides have arrived at Castle Corner which point others besides Healy apparently regard as the key of the country. The feeling of a majority of the voters, so far as can be judged by outward appearances this morning, seems to be against Parnell. A rumor which caused considerable excitement was circulated during the morning to the effect that a large number of persons had been confined in a coal pit in order to prevent their voting. Wild threats were made by both sides and it was announced that the miners would be rescued at any cost. Investigation showed, however, that the rumor was a "campaign lie" and howls of derision were exchanged between the opposing parties when it became known that the miners referred to would, later in the day, march in a body to the polls.

As a rule the leading members of both the Parnellites and the McCarthys meet and treat each other in a courteous manner, but the same cannot be said of the rank and file. The latter may be said to be boiling up to a point where they would like nothing better than a rattling free fight.

At the morning advanced an altercation took place between Harrington and a number of priests. This wordsy warfare was occasioned by what Harrington termed the priest's interference with the voters. Hot words were exchanged on this subject, and in spite of Harrington's protest the government continued to work influencing voters who were thought to be leaning towards Parnell. The priests later marched to the polls amid cheers and counter cheers at the head of a body of voters. The action of the priests is causing many of the Parnellites to indulge in considerable talk of petitioning against the validity of the election in North Kilkenny should Scully be defeated.

BENEFITTING PARNELL.

Another Manifesto Makes its Appearance To-Day.

KILKENNY, Dec. 22.—Timothy Harrington has issued a manifesto, as it is called, declaring that citizens of the United States and the Irish in America would never submit to the deposition of Parnell. The manifesto has formed one of the prominent features of the last stages of the election campaign in this section of the country. It is undoubtedly having considerable effect on both sides and is possibly benefitting the adherents of Parnell.

WANT PLEDGES.

The Indians Might Come in if Promises Were Kept.

PINE RIDGE, via Rushville, Neb., Dec. 22.—Short Bull came in from the Bad Lands yesterday and had a talk with Gen. Brooke. It was the same old story, that there were men in his camp who would come in provided promises were kept and pledges given that no one should be arrested and sent to prison. What Gen. Brooke said is not known, but from what was said yesterday by Gen. Miles the government officer or other official can make any promises with assurance that the government will carry them out. To bring in these Indians under the pledges that they ask and then to attempt to arrest or disarm them would precipitate a massacre at Pine Ridge.

By telegram it is learned at Rapid city that Col. Stanton found some of the Sitting Bull fugitives and some of the Cherry Creek Indians crossing the Bad Lands toward Kicking Bear's camp. Stanton chased them into the Bad Lands near White river, opposite the mouth of Wounded Knee creek. No soldiers were hurt and probably no Indians.

YOUNG AND POOLISH.

A Fourteen Years Old Girl Married in Tennessee.

FLORENCE, Ala., Dec. 22.—J. C. Berryman and Miss L. B. Carpenter, J. S. Lowery and Miss Mary Summond, of Leighton, Ala., two runaway youthful couples, were in the city to-day en route home from Lawrenceburg, where they were married yesterday.

The young Leitchvians stole their bride from the homes of their parents in the night, and fled across the country on horseback.

Arriving here they drove across the country to Tennessee, where they secured licenses, and were married. They started for Mississippi, but learning they could not be married under the laws of the state, they turned their course to Tennessee. Miss Carpenter is fourteen years old and Miss Summond just nineteen.

WAY OF THE TRANSGRESSOR.

It is Sometimes Hard and Sometimes Harder.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Dec. 22.—Rev. James Campbell on Saturday was found guilty of criminal malpractice. His infant child, a boy seven months old, died while he was on trial, and Campbell was on yesterday refused the privilege of attending the funeral.

The judge of the circuit court made an entry allowing the defendant this privilege, but the sheriff refused to carry out the wishes of the court.

Campbell offered to go in chains bound hand and foot.

Big Cotton Receipts.

HELENA, Ark., Dec. 21.—The cotton receipts of Helena up to date have been the largest in the history of this place, an increase of 9,000 bales over last year's receipts. Seventy-five thousand bales will be received by the time the cotton season closes.

SCOUTING BACHELORS.

The Young Girls of Scottdale All of a Tremble.

SCOTSDALE, Pa., Dec. 22.—The unmarried men employed at the Standard works of the H. C. Frick coke company, claiming that they were discriminated against in the recent shut-down, when only married men were retained, at a called meeting unanimously passed a resolution declaring that each single man should take unto himself a wife by the first of the year.

The young men have evinced a determination to carry out the resolution to the letter, and are hustling after the fair sex at a lively rate. A number of engagements have been announced and the young women of Mount Pleasant, where the Standard works are located, are greatly agitated over the affair. Scouting parties of young bachelors are also heard of as far away as Connelville, Uniontown and McKeesport.

THIS BEATS MR. INGALLS.

ALL THE ALLIANCE LEGISLATORS AGAINST HIM.

An Alliance Convention Refuses to Endorse Any Candidate, but is Distinctly Not for Ingalls.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 22.—The convention of representatives from the Farmers' alliance of the seventh Kansas congressional district met here Saturday to take action upon the election of a successor to Senator Ingalls in the senate. A resolution was adopted instructing all farmers' alliance members of the legislature from the seventh district to vote against Ingalls and work for his defeat. Efforts to secure endorsement for one or another of the candidates were unsuccessful.

LAZY SENATORS.

They are Not Around at the Noon Hour Even.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The small attendance of senators this morning attracted the attention of the democrats, and Mr. Harris demanded a call of the roll. Thirty-two senators responded to the call, twelve less than a quorum. The sergeant-at-arms was directed, on motion of Mr. Hoar, to request the presence of the absent senators. In the course of half an hour a quorum made its appearance.

Mr. Cockeril, from the committee on military affairs, reported (and the senate passed) the bill to establish a record and pension office of the war department.

Mr. Dawes presented (and the senate adopted) the conference report on the Sioux reservation bill.

Senator Ingalls is said to be the only republican who holds out against the proposed gag law.

Some of the republican senators are doubtful about the expediency of legislation on the financial question.

In the United States senate Mr. Gray introduced a reciprocity resolution. Mr. Hale concluded his speech on the election bill, and Mr. Stewart, republican, of Nevada, also made a strong speech against the bill.

An unnamed republican member of congress thinks his party has stultified itself in advocating a reciprocity measure for developing our foreign commerce after passing the McKinley bill, which is practically prohibitory of trade with other countries.

THAWED THE DYNAMITE.

It Exploded Killing Two Men and Injuring Others.

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 22.—News has been received here of a terrible accident on the Norfolk and Western railroad, in Wayne county.

A gang of men had been at work on the line blasting, and several sticks of dynamite were placed around the fire to thaw out.

In some manner they were exploded, tearing everything to pieces in the immediate vicinity.

Two men were killed, an Italian and a negro, whose names are unknown. Ten others were injured, several very seriously.

FOR THE GUILLOTINE.

Eyraud, The Stranger Appeals Against Sentence of Death.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—Eyraud has appealed to the court of cassation against the sentence of death pronounced upon him Saturday.

Gabrielle Bompart, sentenced to twenty years imprisonment, has been taken to the St. Lazare prison, where she will be kept until the time allowed for the appeal.

CHURCH BURNED.

It Was Insured For Nearly Its Value.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—St. Bernard's Roman Catholic church, 14th street between 8th and 9th avenues, was completely gutted by fire early this morning. It took the firemen two hours to gain control of the flames. The fire is supposed to have started in the engine room. Loss, $75,000; insured for $60,000.

ONE HUNDRED LIVES LOST.

A Casual Burns His Banks at Cordova.

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 22.—A disaster has occurred at Cordova, where the canal has burst its embankment and destroyed several hundred houses. One hundred lives are reported lost. General Roca has gone to the scene to superintend measures of relief.

Carpenters' Strike Ended.

SHEFFIELD, Ala., Dec. 22.—The carpenters' strike here has ended. The carpenters accepted to nine hours work and nine hours pay, and went to work at once, competency being made the standard of who should be employed again. Both contractors and carpenters are said to be satisfied.

All Right, We Had.

A BIG STRIKE IN SCOTLAND.

THE TRAINS ABOUT GLASGOW TIED UP.

The Strikers Have Pickets Out and Their Numbers are Constantly Being Added to—No Disturbance Yet.

GLASGOW, Dec. 22.—The railway strikers have so far succeeded in paralyzing traffic throughout this district that very few trains are running.

The pickets of the strikers are stationed at many points trying to induce the few engine drivers remaining at work to join the ranks of the strikers.

In several instances the persuasions of the pickets have been strong enough to win over additions to the number of men already out on a strike.

The Lanarkshire strikers are conducting their operations with much vigor. Their pickets are doing effective work. All the mineral and most of the passenger traffic is already stopped, and there does not seem to be any prospect of an early settlement of the matters in dispute.

A CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION.

Work of a Lighted Pack of Firecrackers on Patton Avenue.

L. Bloomberg is the proprietor of the Model cigar and paper stand at No. 17 Patton avenue. In addition to his regular stock he made some preparations for catching a portion of the Christmas trade and laid in a supply of firecrackers in the celebrating line. These explosives he displayed on a small table in front of his establishment and they delighted the eye of the wandering and ubiquitous small boy. One of this class purchased a pack of the firecrackers the other night and by some inexplicable means after having lighted the fuse, the burning package was dropped on the table on which the fire works were displayed.

Immediately the scene changed from one of inactivity to one representing the burning of Pompeii or the fall of Nero. Roman candles, ignited by the sparks began to emit the parti-colored bulls of fire and they were not at all particular as to where they went. Some of them rapped heavily on the large plate glass window of Williamson's furniture store, directly across the street while others playfully struck bystanders and passers by on the clothing. For a few moments the scene was one of confusion and when the fire was at last extinguished everything in the neighborhood, including the proprietors' clothing bore evidences of the early Christmas celebration.

A LOSS OF $135,000.

A Massachusetts Town Ravaged by Fire—Paint Shops Burned.

ATHOL, Mass., Dec. 22.—The most disastrous fire ever known in Athol occurred Sunday. The Masonic and Central blocks were completely destroyed, five merchants, postoffice, Masonic rooms, etc., being burned out. Several firemen were seriously injured by falling walls. The property loss is $135,000; insurance $75,000.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—The paint and repair shops of the Illinois Central railroad were entirely destroyed by fire last night. The total loss estimated at $125,000.
