TWO HUNDRED DROWNED.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT TO A CHINESE STEAMSHIP.

She Takes Fire and the Crew and Passengers Become Panic-Stricken and Jump Into the Sea. LONDON, Dec. 27.—Advice from China give particulars of the burning of the steamship Shanghai, near Woonoo, in the province of Nghan Holi, about fifty miles from Hankow.

The earliest news received stated that the victims consisted of about sixty natives, together with several European officers who were supposed to have met death either in the flames or subsequently by drowning, while attempting escape from the burning vessel.

It now seems that the number of lives lost will amount to over two hundred, and all were lost by drowning.

A terrible panic appears to have occurred among the Chinese passengers and crew as soon as the alarm of fire was heard and the panic increased terribly when the flames spread beyond control.

NO OUTBREAK POSSIBLE.

Gen. Miles Has the Hostile Indians Surrounded.

DICKENS, N. D., Dec. 27.—Lieutenant Sybilham and Scout Spencer, of Capt. Fountain's command of eighth cavalry, have arrived here with dispatches. They report no foundation for the story that the command is hemmed in by five hundred hostiles in Cave Hills. Capt. Fountain had not, up to Christmas morning, been able to discover any trace of the Indians, but had learned that Sitting Bull's followers are on their way to the Pine Ridge and Cherry Creek reservations. The stories about the ranchmen murdered and property destroyed by the hostiles is also stated to be unfounded and as far as the military authorities here are aware not a shot has been exchanged between the Indians and troops. The general summary of the dispositions of the troops shows that the entire reservation is hemmed in by the troops ready for the field and the fears of an outbreak in the spring are groundless.

A DISSOLVING TURKEY.

How It Became a Quail and Then a Roar Head.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—The most unlucky man in Chicago is John Bellow, who went into a West Madison street saloon with an eighteen-pound turkey, which he had won at a raffle. While he was drinking another gambler appeared with a ten-pound turkey, which he surreptitiously exchanged for the larger bird. Bellow took another drink, and when he turned around to go home he found that a second thief had left a chicken on the bar and gone off with the ten pound turkey. While he was out in the street looking for the thief, a third robber walked away with the chicken, leaving a muffed up quail in its place. Bellow, now thoroughly angered, put the quail in his pocket and started home. While on the way he was hit on the head and robbed of the quail, a watch and some money.

FIRE IN A PRISON.

Part of It Destroyed—No Estimate of the Loss.

AUBURN, N. Y., Dec. 27.—Fire broke out in the prison shop in Auburn prison at 7 o'clock, and spread into the adjacent shops. The shop was entirely destroyed and the room shop collapsed, partly burning; the chair shop slightly damaged. There is no estimate of the losses, neither is it known how or where the fire started.

Fred. A. Mildred and Joe Evans, fireman, while on a ladder were precipitated into the ruins by the falling of a beam and were seriously injured. They are now in the prison hospital.

LOST BARGES.

Where are They and the Crews on Board of Them?

DELAWARE BREAKWATER, Del., Dec. 27.—The steamer Satura, from Boston for Newport News, put in here this morning. The Captain reports that he lost the barges Stormking and Antelope, which he was towing, at 6 o'clock yesterday morning during the storm. At the time the barges broke loose the Satura was about thirty-five miles northeast of Fire Island.

COTTON.

The Total Supply in Bales Now in Sight in the World.

New York, Dec. 27.—Total visible supply of cotton for the world is 3,337,359 bales, of which 2,849,559 are American, against 3,161,623 and 2,755,223 respectively last year. Receipts at all interior towns, 180,570 bales; receipts at plantations 314,261; crop in sight 5,289,686 bales.

South Carolina Phosphate Revenue.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 27.—The returns of phosphate rock mined and removed from the navigable water of this state for the quarter ending November 30, which is the first quarter of the phosphate year of 1891, have just been filed with the state agricultural department and show a considerable increase in this the heaviest revenue in the state. The figures are for the quarter, 4,807,059 tons.

The Senate Meets and Adjourns.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—There were 18 senators present when the senate met at noon. Prayer was said by the chaplain, and then the journal of Wednesday last having been read and approved the senate, on motion of Mr. Hoar, adjourned till Monday noon.

WINSTON BOARD.

SCANT COURTESY.

Were These Ladies Intentionally Misinformed?

A number of ladies went to the Richmond and Danville railway depot this morning intending to take the Murphy branch train for the west. On reaching the station, knowing there was some trouble on the line, but ignorant of the nature of it, they asked of the ticket agent at what time the train on that division would leave. They were told that its schedule was 6:40, and in reply to a second question were also told it would go out this morning. After waiting for some time, and not feeling assured, they asked the attendant in the waiting room about it and were again told that the train would go out. The ladies waited until about 8:15, or about an hour after the time they reached the depot, and then a man who appeared to be connected with the railroad came in and the ladies casually heard him, in conversation with a friend, remark that the train would not go out for several hours and possibly not all today. This caused the waiting passengers to enquire at headquarters, the train dispatcher's office, and they were there told that the train would not go for several hours. Thus the information which should have been given at first was omitted an hour later, and after the ladies had sent their carriage home.

AT ALMSHOUSE AND JAIL.

The Ladies Did Not Forget the Paupers and Criminals.

It is gratifying to know that the true spirit of Christian benevolence pervades the city and that the festive occasion of Christmas tide was not confined to the homes where mistletoe and holly were bountiful, but that in places where luxuries were unknown the Christ child's advent was recalled.

Particular mention should be made of two feasts at the alms house and the jail, the first under the auspices of the Flower Mission, and the other by the W. C. T. U. At the alms house a table was spread in regular banquet style, with pyramids of fruit, etc. Grateful speeches were made by several of the inmates and all hearts were overflowing with gratitude.

Mr. Turner, the superintendent of prison work, accompanied by Mrs. Fitch Taylor, visited the jail, carrying delicacies and Christmas cards. A Christmas service was held and words of solace and encouragement given.

It is to be hoped that much good may result to these unfortunate and criminals from such attentions paid them by Christians.

A RARE MUSICAL TREAT.

The Symphony Club at the Grand Opera House.

The concert of the Boston Symphony Orchestra club last evening was of a very high order of merit. Where each member is an artist in his line it is difficult to discriminate, but the flute solo of Fr. Raczky was extremely fine and was encored.

Miss Mantell's singing was highly appreciated as she was recalled after each song. She has a very clear and sweet voice.

The violin solo by Mr. Ernest Ochley was a perfect gem and he was recalled and gave another very sweet selection.

Mr. Alfred DeSeve's violin solo was remarkably fine and showed him to be an artist of the highest rank; he too had to respond to an encore.

Mr. Richard Stoecker in his Viola d'Amour solo was excellent and he was twice recalled.

There was not as large an attendance as the merits of this musical aggregation deserved but those present heartily appreciated the program, and were sorry they could not have been there often.

THE SOUTH AND THE FAIR.

The People Down Our Way Said to be Enthusiastic.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Vice-Chairman McKenzie, of the National World's Fair commission, has returned from his tour through the Southern states. He was enthusiastic, because, he said, wherever he had been he had found the people enthusiastic.

"The men I talked with," he added, "said they intended to bring their best exhibits to the world's fair. 'We must, to keep up with the procession,' they said, and we are not going to let the western states get the best of us. The south is the most prosperous section of the country, and it is the only section to which the immigrants can go. They can sell him land for the rent he has to pay in the northern states, and these people are going to use the world's fair to invite immigration."

MILL MORE LIKE HIM.

From the Pledgee Barter.

"Your son, the student, ordered this likeness from me." "It is certainly very much like him. Has he paid for it?" "Not yet." "That is still more like him."

VIEWED WITH SUSPICION.

WHY SENATOR PADDOCK IS AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

It is Purely a Political Matter in Which Only the Straight Out Republicans are Interested—It Also Would Hurt Business.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The Post publishes the following: Senator Paddock, of Nebraska, was in earnest when he warned the senate a few days ago that he would soon move to lay aside the elections bill and take up the pure food bill, and he will, before long, again take occasion to renew the warning, but he will first give his party ample opportunity either to pass the elections bill or conclude to lay it aside. "My position," he says, "is that I regard the consideration of the bill at this time as unwise. I think that it would be better to discuss and pass a financial measure. The elections bill is purely a political matter, in which only the straight out republicans in the country are interested, while the financial legislation vitally concerns all business men, and is sadly needed."

WEST VIRGINIA WEALTH.

Heavy Investments by Vanderbilts and Others in That State.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Dec. 27.—Morgan, Drexel & Co., of Philadelphia, who represent the Vanderbilt interests, have purchased 50,000 acres of coal and coke lands in Raleigh county. The Chesapeake and Ohio railroad has also bought large tracts of mineral and timber lands, and are laying down new railroads. The Baltimore and Ohio railroad people have purchased 75,000 acres of mineral and timber lands from ex-Senator J. N. Camden of this city. The syndicate representing Senator Gorman, of Maryland, Secretary of State James G. Blaine, ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, Stephen Elkins, and others, have purchased within the past few weeks a number of tracts of timber and mineral lands, ranking in extent from 10,000 to 20,000 acres in each tract. Railroads are being laid off or prospecting through all these lands.

Besides all this
