A NEW YEAR'S GREETING.

Now that the rush incident to the holiday trade has partially subsided, and the proprietors of the Crystal Palace have a short season in which to breathe; now that the heavy demands of Santa Claus have been fully met; now that the young, the middle aged and the old, as well as the already happy bride and groom have been made happier still by the reception of some handsome present purchased at the Crystal Palace; now that the people of Asheville have fully shown their appreciation of our efforts to place in their midst a first class china store in every detail, we take this occasion to thank each and every one of our friends and customers, and we wish for all a bright and happy New Year. Now, if well directed energy coupled with money can do it, we promise to make the Crystal Palace in 1891 second to no house of its kind in the South

FOR BULLDOZING.

Louisiana Troughs Get Twenty

Years in the Penitentiary.

BATON ROUGE, La., Jan. 5.—Motion for a new trial in the case of Beverly and Wiley O'Neil and Alexander Terrell, consisted of manslaughter and bulldozing negroes, was overruled in the district court, and they were sentenced to twenty years imprisonment in the state penitentiary. Bulldozing was organized to deter colored people from living on and working lands, instead of working as laborers thereon.

A FIRE ARROW IN CAMP.

ANOTHER INDIAN BATTLE ALMOST CERTAIN.

An Alarming State of Affairs at Pine Ridge as the Omaha Bee's Correspondent Sees It—Further

Hitodahsed to be Avoided if Possible.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, VIA. RUSHVILLE, Neb. Jan. 5.—A correspondent of the Omaha Bee, telegraphs from here as follows: The indications are that the greatest battle in the history of the Indians is almost at hand.

The report of every scout adds strong support to these indications which were only emphasized by the bloody affair on Wounded Knee. Gen. Miles believes exactly this, and has said so in strong words. The small handful of Indian employes here affirm it. Before the terrific clashes comes they want to rescue their relatives from the enemies' camp and are now interfering with the authorities for permission at the risk of their lives to make the attempt. Extensive rifle pits are reported as being dug twelve miles from here by the hostiles. Last night the hostiles burned many houses belonging to settlers along White river, and finished killing the remnant of the great herd of government cattle that they raised so heavily about a month ago.

The danger in which Pine Ridge agency stands at this hour and must remain until this crisis is all over, is one of the most fearful perils.

Since Gen. Miles arrived he has received a most urgent admonition from the administration to avoid further bloodshed. Further bloodshed, however, cannot be avoided, and before the light of another Sabbath morning the truth of this assertion will have been proven. There is a rumor current in official circles here that the general will call for volunteers to protect the adjacent territory.

The shooting of an Indian war arrow covered with pitch partially burned last night created considerable comment. The Indians have a superstition that if the first fire arrow fired into the enemy's camp is extinguished in its flight it is evidence that the contemplated raid will be a failure. The arrow that came in last night was shot from the north, and barely missed the head of a teamster who was unhitching a team a few yards south of the camp.

The extent of the calamity is not known but many

THEY WANT FUNDS.

The N. C. S. P. C. A. Makes an Appeal.

The North Carolina society for the prevention of cruelty to animals has issued an appeal to the people of the state, and more especially to the people of Asheville, for their interest and financial assistance. Mr. Walter S.

Cushman, acting secretary, in the appeal, says the society was organized by the late H. H. Lytton, and this small number of members at the time of its organization received a donation of $500 from Mrs. W. F. Weld, of Brookline, Mass., at that time stopping at the Battery Park. The total receipts thus far have been $576.25.

Only thirty-three residents of Asheville are members of the society, and this small number represents about the total membership of the state. Of the three Asheville members only two are women. There is only about $200 in the treasury now. There is also need of more thorough organization. The work of extension throughout the state should be begun without delay and prosecuted energetically. The kind-hearted and earnest women of Asheville are urged to become active members. Unless the active interest of the Asheville public is manifested at once there is danger that the generous interest and liberality of Mrs. Wild will have been vain. The fee for active membership is $50; for an associate life membership $25, and for an annual membership only $1. The first annual meeting of the society will occur on Tuesday, Jan. 20, at a place to be published later.

All willing to become members are requested to apply at the office of the society or send their applications by mail to the acting secretary, Mr. Walter S. Cushman, at once, in order that they may be duly elected by the board of managers before the annual meeting. The office of the society is at No. 30 Patton avenue.

SAD DEATH.

Mr. John Wright Dies Saturday Night of Consumption.

Mr. John Wright, formerly of Virginia, but for the past six months a resident of Asheville, died of consumption Saturday night, at 9:30, at his home, 67 College street. Mr. Wright was perhaps twenty-nine years old. He married Miss Corlie Erwin, daughter of the late Mark Erwin, one of the state's greatest lawyers, about two years ago. After the marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Wright left for the west, where they

L. C. SORRELLS SUICIDES.

THE ACT COMMITTED IN F. O'DONNELL'S SALOON.

He Had Before Attempted to Take His Life—The Coroner's Inquest and the Verdict.

Two attempts at suicide and the second one successful. Several months ago, Lee Sorrells, a bar tender in the city, attempted suicide, but the action was discovered in time to save the young man's life. Soon after recovering, Sorrells left Asheville for South Carolina, where he remained until a week or two ago, when he came back to Asheville. He has been under the influence of liquor a great deal of the time since coming back here. This morning, about 11 o'clock Sorrells was sitting in Frank O'Donnell's bar, on North Main street, with a friend. While the friend was talking to some one else in the room Sorrells walked to the bar and asked Barney McIntire, one of the bar tenders, for a glass, as he wished to take some medicine. The glass with some water was given him and taking a bottle from his pocket Sorrells poured the contents into the glass, and drank the mixture. Then walking to the head of the basement stairway he threw the bottle into the basement. The friend saw him throw away the bottle and ran and picked it up. It was labeled
