A NEW YEAR'S GREETING.

Now that the rush incident to the holiday trade has partially subsided, and the proprietors of the Crystal Palace have a short season in which to breathe; now that the heavy demands of Santa Claus have been fully met; now that the young, the middle aged and the old, as well as the already happy bride and groom have been made happier still by the reception of some handsome present purchased at the Crystal Palace; now that the people of Asheville have fully shown their appreciation of our efforts to place in their midst a first class china store in every detail, we take this occasion to thank each and every one of our friends and customers, and we wish for all a bright and happy New Year. Now, if well directed energy coupled with money can do it, we promise to make the Crystal Palace in 1891 second to no house of its kind in the South

DISPENSING DRUGGISTS. OPPOSITE COURT HOUSE, Asheville, N. C.

From the Chronicle and the News and Observer.

There is general regret at the defeat of Mr. Wiley Clifton for door-keeper of the senate.

R. M. Lee, (col.) of Chowan county, tells the Chronicle that he will contest the seat of Mr. H. A. Boyd, Jr., of Chowan.

Of the new members Col. Harry Skinner will probably be the most brilliant, well equipped and accustomed to legislative views and to express them with elegance and eloquence. Doubtless one of our own representatives, Mr. A. D. Jones, comes next on the list of "promising" new members, but looking over the house we see many faces indicating intelligence, vigor and brilliancy.

Speaker Doughton is entirely master of his duties and the house moved off well under his guidance.

PARNELL WON'T RETIRE.

HE DOES NOT TRANSFER THE LEAGUE MONEY.

He Enters a General Denial of Having Done Everything That He Knows He Ought to Do.

DUBLIN, Jan. 9.—The Freeman's Journal says Parnell denies the statement published to the effect that Parnell has agreed not to canvass Ireland until the general elections; that he has agreed to transfer the funds to O'Brien in order that the latter may pay the Tipperary tenants; that O'Brien has agreed to secure McCarthy's position; and that O'Brien will lead the reunited Irish party.

THE IDAHO TROUBLE.

Little that is Definite From the Seat of War.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Jan. 9.—Dispatches from Boise City, Idaho, say: Governor Wiley held a conference last evening with Major Naves, commander of the Boise barracks, and as a consequence an infantry company here are ready to move at short notice. The governor has sent Adjutant General Curtis, of Idaho, of the National Guards, to Pocatello Station to confer with citizens of Pocatello and the Union Pacific railroad officials. The governor's action will be determined by Curtis' report.

MISS EMILY VAUGHN.

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

VANCE IS AT RALEIGH.

WHAT GOV. FOWLE'S MESSAGE RECOMMENDS.

Increased Appropriation for Public Schools—A Tonnage Tax On Fertilizers—Larger Appropriation for the Care of the Insane.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 9.—The senate met at noon Wednesday with all the members, fifty, present. No such punctuality has ever before been shown in this state by the senate.

The address of welcome was delivered by President Holt. The only contest was over the seat of a negro member, Alston, from Warren.

The following officers were elected unanimously as nominated by the democratic caucus: R. M. Furman, principal clerk; G. P. Pell, reading clerk; Mike Bradshaw, engrossing clerk; W. R. Hinnant, principal door keeper; A. M. Noble, assistant door keeper.

The president announced the following committees:

On Rules—Lucas, Turner and Walsler. To act with house committee of two—Williams and Walsler.

A resolution to draw for seats was lost.

The house met first for a few moments Wednesday, 106 members being present, three colored. R. A. Doughton, of Alleghany, democrat, was nominated for speaker, by J. A. Sutton, of Cumberland; and J. A. Hendricks, republican, of Davie, was nominated by J. C. Pritchard, of Madison. The vote stood: Doughton, 93; Hendricks, 13. The other officers were elected unanimously: viz: J. M. Brown, principal clerk, H. A. Latham, reading clerk; H. E. King, principal door-keeper; G. L. Kilpatrick, assistant door-keeper; Allen K. Smith, enrolling clerk.

Senator Vance arrived here Thursday. The governor's message, read in the senate this morning, is a valuable and comprehensive state paper. The subject of the state debt is touched upon, and the governor shows that it now amounts to something over $3,000,000. It will not be necessary to increase the rate of taxation.

The governor recommends an increase of the tax for educational purposes (tenable the schools to keep open at least four months each year; an appropriation for the university, the establishment of a training school for females; an appropriation to the agriculture and mechanic arts college of $20,000 for this year. He commends the work of the department of agriculture and the experiment station; the establishment of a college of agriculture and mechanic arts for colored students; that the penitentiary convicts be far as practicable be located on farms, and the issuing of 4 per cent. state bonds for the establishment of a penitentiary jute bagging factory and a penitentiary reformatory, and an appropriation for Confederate soldiers; for maintaining a hospital for the insane; the establishment of a board of public charities; a railroad commission, and the levying of a tax to improve public highways. Commends the state guard and the oyster interests as worthy of attention, and an appropriation of $25,000 to make a suitable exhibit at the world's fair.

THE CONGER FORCE BILL.

Many Petitions For and Against It in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—In the house yesterday in the morning hour Mr. Osborne, of Pennsylvania, called up the bill authorizing the issuance of certificates of service to telegraph operators who were with the Union army during the war.

Mr. Cannon inquired whether this was not a step towards granting these men pensions. Mr. Osborne gave an emphatic denial and the bill passed; yeas 135, nays 82.

In the senate to-day the vice-president laid before the senate the resolution of the New York chamber of commerce in favor of the shipping and tonnage bill.

Mr. Cullom presented, (as did many other senators) several petitions for and against the Conger law bill.

WHAT A TIME THEY HAD!

BOYNETS IN NEBRASKA'S CAPITOL.

A Great Row and no Knowing What the Outcome Will Be—The Alliance Members Admitted—A Barricaded Governor.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 9.—The alliance members of the house took their seats at 5 o'clock this morning. When Lieut. Gov. Mickeljohn appeared he was not allowed to take his seat. An order was then given for his arrest on the charge of misconduct in office and a breach of the peace. The lieutenant governor defied the officer and was taken into custody. A committee from each party was sent with a statement of the case to the supreme court. Gov. Thayer ordered out a company of the national guards and they stacked arms in the corridors of the capitol.

At 12:15 p. m. the supreme court issued a writ of mandamus, directing the speaker of the house to canvass the returns. The sheriff of Lancaster county with deputies burst in the doors of the house and fought their way through the crowd of alliance men guarding the entrance. The writ was served on the speaker, the motion to take recess until three o'clock was declared carried by the lieutenant governor, and the democrats and republicans filed out of the hall. The alliance members remained in, to attempt to proceed to the business of the joint session.

At 2:30 o'clock the lieutenant governor called the convention to order. The speaker of the house proceeded to open the session and the lieutenant governor and the full republican state ticket, with one exception, was elected on the face of the returns.

A resolution was then passed, receiving the full alliance vote. The officers were sworn in promptly by Chief Justice Cobb. There is a prospect that the legislature will unseat every one of the new officers. Governor-elect Boyd has called on Governor Thayer and was informed that the latter would not give up the office on the ground that Boyd was not a citizen of the United States.

This tangles the situation until nobody dares predict what the outcome will be. Gov. Thayer has barricaded the executive offices and remains on the inside with the police and the militia on guard.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

The Annual Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon.

The eleventh annual meeting of the Asheville library association was held at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock. The objects of the meeting were to elect officers for the ensuing year, and to hear the report of the secretary and treasurer.

According to this report the total receipts for 1890 were $619, of which amount $515 was from membership, $127.48 in excess of the amount derived from the same source in 1889. The cash on hand is $72.75.

The number of books added to the library during the year was 210, of which forty were donations. The present rooms have been leased for another year.

An offer of a lot has been made to the association if it will erect a building thereon. The matter was discussed at the meeting and it was decided to take steps to collect money for the purpose. It is expected that the building will be built within the year.

The following officers were elected: President—Thos. A. Jones. Vice President—H. D. Child. Secretary and Treasurer—D. S. Watson. Librarian—Miss E. J. Hatch.

The president appointed the following executive committee: Miss Fannie L. Patton, Mrs. S. L. Mitchell, Miss H. A. Champion, Mrs. W. D. Houghteling, Mrs. Chas. L. McNamee, Mr. W. B. Williamson and Geo. A. Shuford, Esq.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 9.—The republican members of both branches of the legislature held a caucus last night and unanimously renominated Leland Stanford for United States senator.

JEFFERSON, Mo., Jan. 9.—Senator Vest was unanimously renominated to-night by the democratic caucus. Mr. Vest will be elected beyond a doubt.

TO BRING BINGHAM'S HERE.

THE SECOND MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE.

Asheville Will Vote Upon the Question of Issuing Bonds to Get the School to Come Here—Something of the Institution Itself.

Asheville is alive to the importance of securing the location of Bingham's school here.

The committee appointed at the citizens' meeting yesterday, whose duty it is to take the whole project in hand and push it to success met in Capt. Atkinson's office this morning. Mayor Blanton, Capt. Atkinson, J. B. Bostic and J. P. Kerr, of the committee, were present. Captain Atkinson volunteered to undertake to secure the legislation necessary in order that the citizens of Asheville may be allowed to vote upon the proposition of issuing not less than $25,000 or more than $50,000 in bonds, to bear 6 per cent. interest, to aid in the erection of suitable buildings for the accommodation of Maj. Bingham's school. For every $100 of interest paid on bonds for this purpose by the city, it will be entitled to send one boy to the school free of tuition. These boys are to be chosen by the superintendent of city schools and the city school board, from among the pupils of the city free schools.

Capt. Atkinson will go to Raleigh during the next week or ten days and will remain there until the legislation necessary has been secured.

Mayor Blanton and J. B. Bostic were constituted a committee to receive all propositions or suggestions for sites for the school, whether they be donations in whole or in part.

All propositions to this committee must definitely locate the land proposed to be donated or sold, its distance from town, number of acres, and price per acre or as a whole, and the committee urge the importance of immediate action by all companies or individuals having land to offer, as the whole matter of the site will be closed up early in the coming week.

Major Bingham left for home last night, but will keep in close communication with the committee. He expressed an unqualified preference for Asheville as a location for his school, and said: "I propose establishing my school, wherever I may locate, for another hundred years. We will celebrate our first centennial anniversary in 1893. The men associated with me now are thoroughly capable of continuing the school should I die to-morrow. Besides, my two sons will finish their educations in one and half and two and a half years respectively when they will be thoroughly equipped for a life work in this school."

WHAT BINGHAM'S IS.

Lieut. J. B. Batchelor, U. S. Army, who was professor of military science and tactics at the Bingham school from 1883 to 1886, says:

"Officers of the army, especially those stationed on the frontier, when seeking a desirable school for their sons, cannot do better than examine the claims of Bingham School, which combines more desirable qualities than any other with which I am acquainted. Its antiquity alone is a guarantee of its character. Founded in 1733, it has steadily progressed until the present time in prosperity and honor, and is likely to endure for many years to come, a monument of the respect of the people for honest work, just and even discipline, and that atmosphere of honor and uprightness which its pupils have always breathed."

Capt. Henry Wygant, who from 1886 to 1889, filled the position of professor of military science and tactics at the school, pays the school these high compliments:

"I cannot leave the subject without speaking in the most laudatory terms of the high standard of honor that has made the school famous. Never, except at West Point, have I seen anything to equal it. Lying is punished by immediate expulsion, and any act reflecting upon the honor of a student is frequently acted upon by the cadet body itself and the guilty one driven off by his comrades. Hazing, which even the government has not been able to entirely suppress at West Point and Annapolis, has absolutely ceased here, as did the carrying of weapons and drinking several years ago, all being prevented by a judiciously taken by every cadet immediately upon his admission."

"From the standpoint of my knowledge of schools, both military and otherwise at the North, and my experience at West Point, I feel that it is but justice to say that for thorough training, physical culture, just and even discipline, and the cultivation of the best and most gentlemanly instincts of a boy, I can truly say there exists not the equal of this school in my opinion."

The circular issued by the national bureau of education contains a lengthy description of Bingham school, from which this paragraph is clipped:

"The Bingham school stands pre-eminent among southern schools for boys, and ranks with the best in the Union. It is the oldest, the largest, and the most successful male boarding school for secondary instruction in the south, and for the past five years it has been second to no institution of similar character in area of patronage."

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

FOREIGN.

A homeless woman was found frozen to death on London bridge.

William O'Brien will ask Justin McCarthy to retire from the chairmanship of the Irish nationalist party in favor of John Dillon or Mr. O'Brien himself.

HOME.

Intensely cold weather prevails all through the old world, nearly.

New Jersey hot house strawberries and other fruits are finding buyers at gilt-edge prices in New York.

Great distress prevails among the poorer class of London's population, owing to the extreme cold weather in that city.

There are still about six thousand men out on a strike on the Scotch roads and in spite of the statements made by the companies' representatives, the freight traffic is not being improved.

The republicans organized the New Hampshire legislature with the aid of Clerk Jewett, who placed sufficient of the conditionally-elected members of the house of the roll to give them a majority. The republican candidates for governor and secretary of state were declared elected.
