A NEW YEAR'S GREETING.

Now that the rush incident to the holiday trade has partially subsided, and the proprietors of the Crystal Palace have a short season in which to breathe, now that the heavy demands of Santa Claus have been fully met; now that the young, the middle aged and the old, as well as the already happy bride and groom have been made happier still by the reception of some handsome present purchased at the Crystal Palace; now that the people of Asheville have fully shown their appreciation of our efforts to place in their midst a first class china store in every detail, we take this occasion to thank each and every one of our friends and customers, and we wish for all a bright and happy New Year. Now, if well directed energy coupled with money can do it, we promise to make the Crystal Palace in 1891 second to no house of its kind in the South.

NINE PERSONS DROWNED.

THEY WERE TRYING TO CROSS THE SEINE.

The River Was Frozen Over. But the Ice Was Not Safe in the Middle and a Terrible Accident Resulted.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—The Seine, with the exception of the middle of the river, has been frozen over for some time past. Yesterday the whole river was covered with ice, the middle of the stream, however, being hidden by what the police judged to be dangerously thin ice. Consequently the authorities forbade the people to attempt to cross the river and the police were instructed to enforce the order.

In spite of this, however, numbers ventured out and some men and boys, uttering a disorganizing war cry of the police and of crowds of people who were watching them, attempted to cross the ice in the middle of the stream, but were hurled, causing a number of those coming to rush back to the sides of the river, where the ice was much thicker. Others, so slow how during they were, went on.

Immediately, with a long series of rumbling cracks, the ice gave way and precipitated a crowd of people into the freezing water.

Cries of horror and alarm arose from the banks and the police and life savers rushed to the scene of the disaster and did their utmost to save life.

In spite of their efforts and though a number of people were drawn from the river, nine persons are known to have been drowned.

MR. DEEVER'S SUIT.

He Gives Some Figures and Asks Some Questions.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—I have been asked, I suppose, one hundred times in the last few days what had become of my suit with the city. I want to make this explanation for all. I became "soured" for fear it would be regarded as a political trick, as Mr. Blanton sounded the key note.

At the outset neither myself or my friends ever desired that those who had honestly let our city have money should lose it by our acts, but the whole proceeding was to give them another notice that if they hereafter loaned the city any money they would do so at their peril.

Our city is just this fix at this time. There is a bonded debt of $240,000; it has borrowed and made debts to the amount in round numbers of $39,000, thus making our debts $279,000 with at least eight per cent. interest on the $39,000 borrowed within the last two years.

Now, if Mr. Blanton is ready for trial let him answer this: When Mr. Harkins went out, two years ago, he left about $38,000 in the hands of the city treasurer and only about $4,000 of the debts outstanding. Last year about $6,000 were collected. This year so far about $20,000 have been collected. Then this debt of the city is, say, $35,000, thus making a great total of $114,000. We ask him where the money is—except $19,000 paid for owing money to Gen. Young for the new brick pavement.

There is some bad management somewhere. Why, our policemen, who are the watch dogs of the city these cold nights, were not paid last month. It is true they got a check on the treasurer, but he told them he had no money. I wonder if Mr. Blanton got his salary for last month.

No further proceeding will be taken unless they should borrow money.

Yours respectfully,
W. H. DEEVER.

SHERMAN TALKING.

His Speech on the Financial Bill Made To-day.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 13.—In the senate today Mr. Morgan, on behalf of Mr. Colquhitt, gave notice of an amendment to the financial bill, abolishing the tax on state banks.

A bill was passed providing that army officers on the limited list who shall have attained the age of 64 shall be transferred to the unlimited list; and providing further that the number of officers on the limited list shall be 350.

The senate then resumed consideration of the financial bill and was addressed by Mr. Sherman.

The house to-day after the morning business took up the army appropriation bill, the shipping bill not being called up.

If the agreement made last week is observed, to-morrow will close the discussion on the financial bill and decide its fate in that body. As it is generally expected that the free coinage amendment will prevail, interest now centers in the result of the controversy over the national bank two per cent. bond features of the bill after the financial bill is out of the way an effort will be made by the republican senators to hold a caucus and agree upon a program, and if this caucus is held a determined attempt will be made to cause it to place the elections bill again in the van of party measures and force it through the senate with the aid of a closure rule. Should this attempt fail to secure caucus action on the elections bill fail, the probabilities are that either the appropriation bill, the pension appropriation bill, one or more of the pending labor bills, or perhaps the Conger land bill, with the Padlock pure food bill as an alternative, will be taken up.

A $95,000 SHORTAGE.

That Seems to Exist in Alabama Just Now.

St. Louis, Jan. 13.—The Republic prints a special dispatch from Little Rock, Arkansas, with reference to the rumored shortage in the office of State Treasurer Woodruff.

Major Woodruff leaves the office Thursday and will be succeeded by Colonel Morrow. A sensation was created yesterday by the statement given out by C. T. Walker and W. J. Turner, two bankers who have been at work on the treasurer's books. One of the men is reported to have said last night that Major Woodruff's shortage would not fall short of $94,000. The investigation is not yet concluded and it is likely that the shortage will reach a large amount.

IN THE BALANCE.

The Alliance of Kansas Caucusing on Ingalls' Return.

TOPEKA, Jan. 13.—A caucus of the farmers' alliance, members of the legislature, was held last night. Under the rules of the order forbidding making public any of the proceedings of a meeting excepting that portion which may be authorized by a committee appointed for that purpose, the details of the discussion relative to the selection of a senatorial candidate were kept secret. The caucus met again to-night.

PARNELL VERIFIED SOME.

He Can Tell the Correct Date of a Letter Now and Then.

LOSLOS, Jan. 13.—The Daily News today admits that Parnell, in his speech at Limerick, Sunday, named the correct date of a letter to Cecil John Rhodes, premier of the Cape Colony government, which, says the News, in some trifling respect confirms Parnell's account of his Hawaiian interview with Gladstone, to the effect that the latter never intended to give Ireland more than a modified form of home rule.

HOW DOES IT KNOW?

The Leadership of the Irish Party Possibly Foreshadowed.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—The Siecle to-day announces in double headed type that John Dillon upon his arrival in France will be the chosen leader of the Irish parliamentary party.

Baltimore Prices.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 13.—Flour dull, Howard street and Western spot. $3.00 @ 4.00; extra $3.60 @ 4.40; extra family $4.00 @ 5.00; city mills, top brands, extra $5.00 @ 5.25. Wheat—southern, quiet; Futures 95 @ 1.03; Longberry 1.01 @ 1.03; western quiet. No. 2 winter red, spot and January, 96 @ 97c. Corn, southern, firm; white 59 @ 61c; yellow 60 @ 62c; western 58 @ 61c.

THE INDIANS.

Quiet Now and No Trouble Expected at Present.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Gen. Schofield this morning received the following telegram from Gen. Miles, at Pine Ridge, dated last night:

"Gen. Brook's command is now completely isolated on the White Clay creek and the entire body of Indians are between two commands. Gen. Brook has commanded all his force with commendable skill and excellent judgment. The greatest difficulty is now to restore communication."

"The Indians have a great fear that their arms will be taken away and then all treated like those on Wounded Knee. They have a large number of wounded women and children. All military measures and movements have so far been successful. The control and government of the Indians now becomes the problem to be solved, and no serious embarrassment is apprehended at present."

QUAY'S FORCE BILL.

It's the Same Old Thing and the People Don't Want It.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Senator Quay has introduced a bill entitled: "An act to prevent force and fraud in federal elections, to insure lawful and peaceful conduct thereof."

The principal point of difference between Quay's bill and the Hoar bill is in the last section of the bill, which is as follows: "When it shall appear to the satisfaction of the president of the United States that, in any locality, provisions of this law cannot be otherwise executed, it shall be his duty, and he is hereby empowered, to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and to employ armed forces of United States naval and military, for its enforcement, and for the protection of the officers whose duties are herein provided for."

THE CAUTION LABEL.

Perhaps It May Hereafter be Branded on Cigar Boxes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Secretary Winchell has sent to the house of representatives, with favorable recommendations, a letter from the commissioner of internal revenue, recommending certain amendments to the law relating to the tax on tobacco. The commissioner recommends that section 3,383 (relating to labels and notice on cigars) be amended by the addition thereto of a provision giving the manufacturer the option of branding or printing as well as of pasting the caution label required by law on all boxes of cigars.

A BIG CONTRACT.

A Combine to Buy Up All the Rubber in the World.

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—It is rumored that a syndicate of English and American capitalists, with four or five million dollars capital, is in process of formation with the avowed object of buying up all the rubber in the world. If the combine succeeds the price of the article will be much increased. The trust is said to already monopolize one-half of the Para rubber, and its intention is to operate in England as well as the United States.

BLAST FURNACES SHUT DOWN.

Two Thousand Men Thrown Out of Work.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 13.—Sixty blast furnaces, all but two in the Mahoning Valley, of Ohio, shut down to-day in pursuance of an agreement reached two weeks ago. Ten thousand men are thrown out of work. The object of the furnace men is to force the coke operators to reduce the price of coke and the railroad to reduce freight rates to and from the valley.

450 Miles From a Sermon.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Rev. T. K. Beecher preached the funeral sermon of Mrs. Langdon, mother of Mrs. S. L. Clemens. Neither Mark Twain nor his wife attended, but listened to the sermon by a long distance telephone at Hartford, Conn., 450 miles distant.

The Legislature of Oregon.

SALEM, OREGON.—The Legislature has organized by electing Jos. Simon of Portland, president of the senate and I. T. Greer, of Salem, speaker of the house.

VANCE IS RENOMINATED.

IT WAS DONE BY ACCLAMATION YESTERDAY.

The Dispatch Does Not Say That This Was Done in Caucus, but It Probably Was.

RALEIGH, N. C., January 12.—A resolution passed the senate to-day unanimously instructing the United States senators from North Carolina to secure, if possible, the objects of financial reform contemplated in the Ocala platform.

United States Senator Vance was renominated to-day by acclamation with great enthusiasm.

A SAFE ROBBERY.

About $600 Taken From a Safe Sunday Night.

Nearly six hundred dollars (one night) sometime during Sunday night the iron safe in Esq. A. T. Summey's office over Powell and Snider's store, was opened and about $600 taken therefrom. The door of the office was found locked yesterday morning when Mr. Summey came up town, but the safe was found unlocked and an examination showed the fact that a sum of money amounting to near $600 had been taken. All the money in the safe was not taken. For some reason $175 was left, and none of the papers were disturbed. Mr. Summey thinks he neglected to lock the safe, and some one having a key that fitted the lock on the office door, a common knob lock, entered and took the money.

The case is being worked up, but as yet there is no clue.

EMMA ABBOTT'S WILL.

The Bulk of Her Estate Goes to Charitable Institutions.

New York, Jan. 13.—The will of Emma Abbott was filed and admitted to probate yesterday afternoon. It was executed on May 28, 1890, and names as executors James L. Mitchell, Vas Houghton and Wm. F. Dunning.

She directs that her body shall be cremated after a thorough test by electricity to ascertain if life is extinct. She makes a liberal provision for her parents and relatives, many bequests to friends and leaves $5,000 each to a number of churches—one of which is the Citadel Square Baptist church of Charleston, South Carolina. The bulk of her estate is to be divided among six charitable institutions in New York city.
