THE RAILWAY COMMISSION SYNOPSIS OF THIS IMPOR-

and Will Probably be Considerably Amended Before Its Adop-

The railway commission bill, as it now stands, provides for three commissioners to be elected by the legislature, for six year terms, save that the terms of those whose term of office begins April 1 next shall serve for two, four or six years, respectively; the salary to be $2,500 yearly, and the clerk to be allowed $1. eral railway companies according to the assessed value of their property in this

If after the passage of the act any such ompany shall charge, more than a fair and reasonable rate for the transportation of passengers or freight of any kind, it shall be deemed guilty of extortion. If any company shall make any unjust discrimination in its rates for the transpor tation of passengers or freight it shall be violation of this act.

The commissioners are to make reason able and just rates of freight and passer ger tariffs, to be observed by all railway companies doing business in this State and in making rates shall consider the actual value of the employed capital of the corporation, its earnings on its road and shall make reasonable and just rules and regulations, to be observed by all railways doing business in this state, as to charges at and all points for the necessary handling and delivering o freight, and also rules to prevent unjust discrimination in the transportation o freight and passengers, and shall also make rules to prevent the giving of any rebate or bonus, directly or indirectly and to prevent the mis-leading or deceiv ing the public in any manner as to the real rates charged for freights and passengers, and the commissioners shall have full power to fix the difference in have full power to hx the difference in rates for long and short hauls. The commission shall have power, acting with the railways, to make special rates for the purpose of developing manufacturing enterprises in the state. Schedules of rates are to be prepared for each company. The companies after having filed exceptions (with the commission) to the extent objects to and the granules of rates it objects to and the grounds of objection, shall have the right of appeal to the courts from the decision of the commission, which is to be given in ter lays after filing of complaint. Such cases shall have precedence of other civi nctions. Either party may appeal to he supreme court from the judgment of he superior court.

Each railway corporation shall in thir ty days after the commission is organ-ized file a schedule of its freight and passenger rates. The commissioners shall investigate the books and papers of all railways doing business in the state, and shall personally visit its stations and offices, with power to examine all agents and employes, or other persons, under oath, to ascertain if the rules and regula-tions of the commission are violated. All tions of the commission are violated. All contracts and agreements as to freight contracts and agreements as to freight and passenger rates shall be submitted to the commission for inspection and correction. What Senator Sprinkle's Bill Would Do for Asheville.

Senator W. C. Sprinkle has introduced in the state senate a bill to create the The Mayor Was in Raleigh and office of recorder for the city of Asheville. The bill has been put on the senate calen-

Should this bill become a law Ashe ville will have a new officer, who wil perform many of the duties now devolv ing upon the mayor. All cases now tried by the chief executive of the city would then come up before the recorder. The duties of the mayor would thereby be

200. The money to meet these expenses size demanded it. I think the town shall be divided pro rata among the several states small for a recorder just yet. I do not know who has had the bill introduced nor why it has been done. The of fice of recorder, if created, will require a sal ary of about $1,000 a year. The mayor's salary, of course, then, would be nominal and I think we would not have so many and t think we would not have so many aspirants for mayoralty honors. The head of the city would then have little to do except preside at the meetings of the board, and have the general supervision of the city's affairs.

"The election of a recorder would in crease the city's expenses $500 or $600, and I do not think the office is needed

The Warehousemen Know Nothing of Mrs. Anders' Hard Luck,

A recent issue of the Richmond Dis patch contained in its correspondence from Asheville a story to the effect that from Asheville a story to the effect that Mrs. Lizzie Anders, a poor widow with at the present sesion of the legislature six children, living near Barnardsville, Madison county, had had her yoke of oxen stolen from her while stabled in one of the tobacco warehouses in Asheville, where she had come to market a portion of her crop of the weed. This article was seen by some one in Asheville, and a dollar was sent to Mr Whitlock to start a fund for the pur hase of a yoke of oxen to be given to Mrs. Anders, the writer remarking that "it the men and women don't raise a big fund to buy the oxen " " " then Ashe-ville might as well shut her gates to 'trade' and say to it 'you come here at your peril' "The letter was signed "Vis-
