Mr. Daniel then took the floor.

AND THIS IS POLITICS?

A Sioux Kind of Legislature in Colorado.

DENVER, COLO., Jan. 17.—Wednesday Speaker Hanna, the duly elected presiding officer of the legislature, gained the enmity of a minority of the republicans who with the aid of the democrats endeavored to dictate the policy of the house. They held a rump meeting and selected Jesse B. White speaker. Speaker Hanna, by advice, secured a number of deputy sheriffs to guard his seat and protect the official records. Speaker White followed his example by securing the assistance of many toughs and bullies, who were sworn in as doorkeepers.

About 11 o'clock Speaker Hanna, upon seeking admission to the house, was greeted by one of White's guards, the bullet grazing his left cheek. Police Inspector Hawley rushed into the hall, only to be shot in the head by Harley McCoy, one of White's henchmen. The inspector was immediately cared for, but will die, the policeman Andrew Norris, upon hearing the report, rushed to the rescue of his superior, only to be shot through the abdomen by McCoy, who escaped, but was later captured.

A few minutes later the Assembly building was surrounded by a cordon of police, who, with drawn revolvers were prepared to kill anybody at the least provocation. Business meetings are being arranged all over Colorado for the purpose of requesting the resignations of the rioting members.

STARVING PEOPLE.

Distressing Condition of Ireland's Poor—Help Refused.

DUBLIN, Jan. 17.—It is stated that the poor people of the providences of Ulster, Connaught and Munster have now reached the extreme limit of destitution.

COOK, Jan. 16.—A dispatch from Mitchellstown says that a crowd of poverty-stricken people called upon the board of guardians of that town asking for relief. The board, however, refused to do anything for the applicants, even refusing their assistance from Zette and Ballour land.

RECORDER FOR ASHEVILLE.

The Bill Has Passed Both Houses and is a Law.

Mayor Blanton, who returned from Raleigh this morning, tells THE CITIZEN that the bill creating the office of recorder for the city of Asheville has passed third reading in both houses of the state legislature and is now a law.

A Defaulter.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 16.—Last night Governor Tillman summoned a number of newspaper reporters to his office and laid before them a communication from Adjutant General Hugh L. Farley, disclosing that his predecessor, General Milledge L. Bonham, son of ex-Gov. Bonham, was defaulter to the amount of about $5,000.

Excited Brevard.

BREVARD, N. C., Jan. 16, 1891, 5 o'clock a. m.—Snow ten inches deep and snowing like the devil.

MANY RABBIT HUNTERS.

Form a Stock Company.

ENDORSE THE CITIZEN.—The one that wrote "Bingham's School for Asheville," in THE CITIZEN of to-day, is "talking with the bark on." Please publish his communication for a week and ask the Journal to do likewise.

I am a friend to Bingham and admire his school. I have four boys and nothing to pay for their education. Yet I know Bingham's school will never come to Asheville if left to a vote of the citizens. Form a stock company and you can make it a success. Yours truly,

ASHEVILLE, JAN. 16.

NORTH CAROLINA FOLKS.

The portrait of Dr. Koch very much resembles Mr. John Barbee, of Franklin—Franklin Press.

Mr. Martin Sumpter, of Shiloh township, lives within six miles of Statesville, but has not been to town in 27 years. During these 27 years he has rarely been further from home than Watt's mill, which is about two miles distant. Mr. Sumpter is a man of character and intelligence. He is a republican in politics, but has not been to the polls but once since the war, in 1872, and then he voted the democratic ticket.

W. H. Rice prints the following in the Waynesville Courier: "It has been noised abroad that I, W. H. Rice, of the county of Haywood, have been crazy for some length of time. Now I don't know why people have been so little as to start such an intemperate lie unless it was to down me in my agency. Now if that is your motive, I will say right here that you had just as well quit for you will never get it done, and another thing I wish to speak of, and that is this: if the one that started this report will come up and own the corn I will go down to the state asylum and see which one will be left in there. So nothing more at present and I remain yours truly,

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

AN ALL NIGHT SESSION.

THE SENATE LACKS A QUORUM.

It Could Neither Do Business Nor Adjourn—Faulkner's Long Speech—Evarts Brought in to Fill the Gap.

WASHINGTON.—Yesterday evening Mr. Faulkner got the floor in the senate to debate the force bill. He continued to speak till 12:30 this morning when Mr. Pasco directed the attention of the chair to the absence of a quorum. A list of absentees was then furnished the sergeant-at-arms, who sent messengers to bring in absent senators.

The first of the absentees to come in was Mr. Call, who appeared at 2:40. He was followed soon after by Mr. Daniel, Mr. Evans came in at 3:15 and Mr. Clark the deficiency to one. In the course of another waiting period it was stated that Messrs. Sherman and Wilson, of Maryland, were too ill to be present.

At four o'clock the senate was still waiting for a quorum and there seemed no prospect of either an adjournment or doing business.

At 4:20 Faulkner continued his speech, closing at 10:30. Mr. Daniel then took the floor.

ASHEVILLE HAS GROWN.

What Mr. Alfred Hunter, an Old Buncombeite, Says.

Mr. Alfred Hunter, formerly of Buncombe county, but now of New Mexico, is in the city on a visit of some time to his relatives and friends.

Mr. Hunter left Buncombe in 1856. He located in Texas, where he engaged in the stock business. About six years ago he left Texas and went to Lincoln county, New Mexico, where there are few people, and where he can carry on his stock business on as large a scale as he wishes.

Mr. Hunter is about 58 years old, and his long life on the frontier has imbued him with a spirit of resourcefulness that will surely allow him to be quiet for a short time. He is chafing under the restraint that is thrown around him by the city laws, and longs for his free life on the plains.

Mr. Hunter is an uncle of A. H. Baird, Asheville's chief of police, who spent several years in Texas with him.

Asheville, Mr. Hunter says, since he first saw it has changed from a little village of a few houses on either side of the state road to her present magnificent city. And he is of the opinion that the French Broad river has grown smaller in some unknown way. While he recognized the body of water, yet he is strong in his belief that the river has become narrower, and the volume of water much less than when he last saw it.

Mr. Hunter will spend several weeks in Asheville.

THE SPECIAL SERVICES.

Rev. Mr. Smith's Work in Asheville May Close to-morrow.

The services which have been in progress at the First Presbyterian church will probably close to-morrow. Rev. Mr. Smith will preach morning and evening. It is a matter of universal regret that the severe cold he took has prevented him from preaching for the past few days, but it is an evidence of the substantial interest awakened by his preaching that the congregations have continued undiminished, and even through the bad weather, have been excellent. Mr. Smith will leave early next week to continue his evangelistic work at Huntersville.

THE S. P. C. A.

The acting secretary of the North Carolina society for the prevention of cruelty to animals urges all those who intend to join the society to apply for membership before the annual meeting of the society on next Tuesday afternoon. The friends of the cause should act at once. The fee is only one dollar. Applications for membership and membership fees may be left at Carmichael's drug store.

Y. M. C. A. Anniversaries.

The public anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association which will be held in the Central Methodist church next Tuesday evening promises to be an event of unusual interest. It is expected that addresses will be made by Rev. C. W. Byrd, of the Central church, and Mr. L. C. Shuey, of New York City. The Mendelssohn quartette will sing.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

A bill abolishing the December term of Davidson county has passed its final reading in the house.

The senate has passed a bill giving solicitors a salary, the amount being $1,800 per annum.

A bill repealing the act of 1889, regarding the sale of seed cotton, was taken up and passed in the house.

The bill to levy a tax of twenty-five cents per ton on commercial fertilizers has been introduced in the house and will pass.

The Farmers' alliance members and others who favor a railway commission have held another caucus and again discussed the bill.

A bill has passed in the house allowing guardians to rent lands of wards at private as well as public auctions, upon authorization of the clerk of the court, who is to approve such renting.

Several Orange county farmers write the State Chronicle from Hillsboro, as follows: "One of the wisest, fairest and most helpful acts of legislation ever coming from our general assembly will be the passage of the bill introduced in the house by Mr. Henry, relieving mortgaged land from taxation to the amount of the mortgage."

A resolution has been adopted in the senate urging North Carolina senators and representatives in congress to secure the repeal of the tax on state banks. This passed the house some days ago. A resolution was also adopted urging them to oppose the Conger land bill and use every endeavor to secure the passage of the Paddock pure food bill. Both of these resolutions were passed by the Alliance.

"GREEN GOODS."

Prominent Business Man Asked to Deal in Them.

That old swindler, the "green goods" man, has been sending his circulars to Asheville.

One of these circulars has been received by a prominent business man in this city, who has turned it over to THE CITIZEN. It is the old swindle, that has been exposed by the press hundreds of times, and yet almost every week cases are heard of in the northern cities where some money-loving resident of the smaller towns has been lured out of hundreds of dollars and all he has to show for it is sawdust.

The circular is a long one, type written, and signed "You Know." After setting forth the many advantages of the riches, which the person addressed can have for half a trial, he gets down to business. The rates are given: $4 gets $1,000, and so on. Concluding, the circular says: "Don't write letters—nothing but telegrams. Act square! Be true and honorable!" There is also what purports to be a newspaper clipping, relating how the bank notes which are for sale are made from plates that have been taken from the engraving department at Washington, and notes could not be distinguished from the genuine money.

The whole business looks very flattering and might perhaps catch the fancy of some who are willing to attain wealth, by no other means. In the end the would-be wealthy man has his good money taken from him and the only return is a package of saw dust or paper, that is entirely worthless.

HELPS INGALLS' CHANCES.

A NEW CAUCUS RULE MADE BY ALLIANCE MEMBERS.

A Senatorial Candidate to be a Caucus Nominee, Must Have 83 Legislators Ready to Vote For Him—A Dead Lock Probable.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 17.—A new caucus rule has been adopted by the alliance members of the legislature, whereby no senatorial candidate shall be considered as a caucus nominee until eighty-three legislators or a joint ballot, a majority, unite on him. This has, in a measure, restored to confidence to the republican leaders and greatly improved Senator Ingalls' chances.

It is now believed the jealousy that exists between the senatorial aspirants before the peoples' party will prevent any one of them from securing the requisite joint ballot majority and that a dead lock will ensue which will probably result in the election of a republican unless this new caucus rule is broken.

GEN. JONES SEATED.

A Contested Election Case of Interest to Ashevilleans.

Some time ago THE CITIZEN contained an item concerning the election of Gen. Johnstone Jones as district attorney of San Diego county, Cal. The election was contested by Gen. Jones' opponent, and the result was that the office has been given to Gen. Jones. Of this gentleman, who for a long while lived in Asheville, the San Diego, Cal., Union says:

"The new district attorney is a gentleman in every implication of the word. He has no favors to ask nor enemies to punish. He is an honest and a fearless man, and although he is a democrat, this paper will accord him fair treatment in every respect, and bespeak his high public confidence."

The Bible Study.

The subject of the evangelistic Bible study at the Young Men's Christian Association to-morrow afternoon will be: "Christ tests men who would follow Him."—Luke 9:57-65. Preceding the study a song service will be held which will commence at 4:30 o'clock. All men are cordially invited to attend these services.
