EXTRAVAGANCE. Reflections Suggested By Proposed White House Repairs. EDITOR THE CITIZEN:-Whither are w lrifting? How far to the breakers? Nine hundred thousand dollars to enlarge the President's house! The architectural taste of Mrs Harrison, the criterion. One hundred thousand dollars judiciously expended would make a new mansion as good as half the Emperors of the world want. No stinting things. So much money in the treasury, we must have a display of it. Five hundred thousand hungry, heart-broken women, making shirts at three cents a piece, to get bread for their ragged children. All over the country a farmer's wife pays fifty cents for a coffee pot she bought three months ago, at twenty-five cents. The fficers of the government take charge of provisions to pay the poor Indiaas for their lands with, and steal half of it, and drive the poor things to war. Don't our representatives in congress swear to think and work for the several good? Is there a poor hungry woman on this great continent that they are honorably allowed to ignore? Whoever neard of such legislation, as paying soldiers who if they got hurt in the war, hurt themselves running away from it? Whoever heard of nearly a million dollars to repair a house? Suppose they happen to think of it, they will appropriate an-other million to bring nice, sparkling water from the snowy mountains of Canada, and have pipes to run it into every room; especially if the good lady of the house says so. Verily if things go as they have been going, for twelve months, our "Proudest nation on earth,"

WHERE TO GIVE

ing Poor. EDITOR TO CITIZEN:-This cold stormy weather excite the sympathy of all good people for the suffering poor, and a desire to aid as they have means and opportunity. The best channel for affording relief is the "Flower Mission" as members furnish the means. Residents or strangers should give only through this society, and not to beggars, who are mostly vicious and unworthy. For this class there is a well conducted alms house just outside of the city limits. Donations of money may be sent to the president, Miss M. Buxton, and president or clothing to Miss Mary and provisions or clothing to Miss Mary Collins at the central office, Spruce street, rom 3 to 6 p. m. Circulars containing names of officers and visitors may be found in stores and offices, and the ladies will gladly investigate, and relieve any case brought to heir observation.

Four Years oo Long.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:-I read in your paper that our state senator, Hon, Mr. Sprinkle has made a new office for the better government of Asheville. I would like to make a suggestion to our senator to have a law passed changing the pres ent charter of Ashaville so that our al derme i will serve only two years. I am opposed to the present four years' term for any aldermen to hold office. I think a large majority of our taxpayers will endorse this above suggestion.
