WILL DEBATE CLOSURE.

GALLANT DEMOCRATIC FIGHT TO PREVENT THAT. Closure Will Probably Be Adopted and Then the Republicans Will Shut Off Debate on the Force Bill and try to Pass It. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—In the senate this morning Mr. Aldrich said that the journal just read furnished a record without a parallel in the history of the senate. It disclosed the fact that it was the determined policy of the democratic senators to prevent any legislation or any action unless their wishes as to certain measures should receive consideration and be acceded to. Mr. Aldrich moved that the senate proceed to consideration of the resolution to amend the rules by the adoption of a plan of closure.

The point of order was at once made on the democratic side by Mr. Harris that the unfinished business was the motion to correct the journal of Tuesday's proceedings, and that, as it involved the status of Mr. Aldrich's resolution, it must be first disposed of. The vice president indicated his desire to bear arguments on the point and the position of each side was stated by the various senators. About 1 o'clock the vice president intimated his readiness to decide the point raised, but Mr. Gorman who had secured the floor, proceeded to go over the whole ground, and discussing general politics in spite of all attempts to cut him off.

Later, however, it was seen that a vote must come and Mr. Gorman took his seat. Thereupon the vice president ruled that Mr. Aldrich's motion to proceed to consideration of the closure rule was in order and overrules Harris' point of order. Mr. Harris appealed, but the chair was sustained—yeas 35; nays, 30. Messrs. Teller, Wolcott and Stewart voting with the democrats. Mr. Aldrich then moved to proceed to consideration of his resolution (closure.) Mr. Gorman moved to table it. The vice president submitted the latter question to the senate and the vote resulted: Yeas 30; nays 35. So the motion to table was lost and a vote was taken on Mr. Aldrich's motion to consider the closure rule.

Just here the roll call was suspended on a point of order by Mr. Ransom that the journal of Tuesday showed that the matter had already been taken up. The chair overruled the point of order and the democrats took an appeal, which was defeated and the chair sustained—yeas 36; nays 27—whereupon Gorman made a further point of order that Mr. Aldrich's motion must be in writing. The vice president sustained this point and Mr. Aldrich wrote out his motion. Then it prevailed—yeas, 36; nays, 32. Jones, of Nevada, also joining with the democrats in opposing it.

FOR INGALLS' PLACE. A Prohibitionist spoken of and so is Gen. C. W. Blair.

TOPEKA, Jan. 22.—Five new alliance senatorial candidates appeared in the field to-day. Some of them are ayowed candidates, while others are only talked of by friends. Most prominent among the latter number is ex-Governor John P. St. John, a prohibitionist. In an address last night before a large audience he declared himself in favor of the object of the farmer's alliance and severely criticized Mr. Ingalls. Another candidate is Gen. C. W. Blair, who fought on the union side during the war with great honor. He is a democrat and is considered by many as a good compromise candidate for state treasurer and commissary general respectively.

"THERE IS NO APPEAL." So Rules Speaker Reed Who Forgets the Last Election.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—In the prayer at the conclusion of the chaplain's prayer Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, raised the point of order that there was no quorum present. After a few minutes delay the speaker counted 168 members and directed the clerk to read the journal. While the clerk was engaged in that duty Mr. Enloe questioned the correctness of the speaker's count. The speaker: "The chair overrules the suggestion and the clerk will proceed." Mr. Enloe: "Then I appeal." The speaker: "There is no appeal whatever."

Cameron Bought and Voted. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Senator Vest testified to-day before the silver pool committee that Senator Cameron had told him that he had bought and sold silver after the vote in the senate and that he thought he had a perfect right to do so because it was after the vote and therefore could not influence his action.

STATE LEGISLATIVE NOTES. The bid to license the dealing in futures in farm products has been reported adversely in the senate. The bill to make all dealers in futures subject to a tax of $10,000 in each county where they operate was lost in the senate. By a vote of 82 to 9 the bill to promote sheep husbandry by taxing dogs was tabled, and this settles that matter at the present session. The bill to amend chap. 1, vol. 1 of the code has passed its several readings in the senate. This is the house bill that imposes a tonnage tax of 25 cents on fertilizers. An important bill passed Tuesday forbids the compounding of medicine by persons not examined and licensed by the state board of pharmacy in towns of over 500 population. Bills introduced in the house: Mr. Sutton, to establish a training school at Trinity school; to authorize a uniform system of cancellation of county script at its payment; Mr. Wood to repeal chapter 307, laws of 1889, in reference to the sale of seed cotton; Mr. Reed, to amend chapter 252, private laws of 1889, in reference to Battery Park hotel; Dr. Phillips, to create a new township in Watauga to be called North Fork; Mr. Clifton, to incorporate normal and industrial school; Mr. Currie for the relief of D. A. McDonald, clerk of Moore county; Mr. Buchanan, to prohibit the manufacture and sale of liquor within four miles of the Methodist church at Whittier.

A ROASTING.

Rev. Dr. G. C. Rankin Seems to Have Grown Wrathful. The following article is taken from Tuesday's New York World, and will be of interest to many of THE CITIZEN'S readers. Dr. Rankin was pastor of the Central Methodist church, south, in this city, up to a few months ago. The World says: "On a recent Sunday Rev. G. C. Rankin, Methodist, of Kansas City, referred to a sermon of Rev. J. E. Roberts, Unitarian, as 'musty utterances of that blonid type of christianity,' and 'old rat eaten literature.' Dr. Roberts was present, and it was thought by some of the congregation that he would wait outside and administer a thrashing to Dr. Rankin, but he didn't."

AFTER A CHARTER. Asheville May Soon Have Another Water Company. Notice has been given by Messrs. M. E. Carter and S. H. Reed, attorneys, that application will be made to the present legislature for a charter for a water company. The incorporators of the proposed company include Messrs. S. H. Reed, Chas. McNamee, R. U. Garrett, M. E. Carter, and several others. It is the purpose of the incorporation to organize a company to furnish water to Victoria and that part of South Asheville not now covered by the city water mains. If a charter is obtained, a company will at once be organized and work begun on a plant. It is not yet determined where the water supply will come from.

"A SOCIAL SESSION." Something About the Play at the Grand To-Night. The Roanoke, Va., Cosmocrat, speaking of the "Social Session" company says: "As a musical farce 'Social Session' is a success. There is less horse play than in most of the farces of the Hoyt order, and consequently less coarseness in the general presentation of the play; the dialogue is bright, and is not marred by ancient jokes. The stage business is original, and the songs, both topical and selected, are in keeping with the general construction of the play. Its mission is to amuse, and this it does throughout the performance. The burlesque on 'Il Trovatore' was especially good." The company will appear at the Grand to-night.

HEAVY SNOW STORMS. They Still Prevail in the Old World. LONDON, Jan. 22.—Further advices received in this city in regard to the weather on the continent are to the effect that heavy snow storms are still prevailing throughout Belgium, and that the mails in Germany, France and Holland are greatly delayed, owing to the interruption of traffic, caused by the heavy fall of snow.

AT WASHINGTON. Chief Justice Fuller has announced that Justice Brown had been assigned to the sixth circuit. It is again asserted that vice-President Morton will make the arbitrary ruling required to carry closure in the senate. The trial of Charles E. Kincaid for the murder of ex-Congressman Taulbee in Washington has been postponed to March 16. Suit has been begun in Washington to compel the secretary of the treasury to coin a bar of silver which was rejected at the Philadelphia mint. In answer to a resolution calling for copies of the election accounts of John I. Davenport the secretary of the treasury states that Mr. Davenport rendered no accounts for such services. Senator Saunders, of Montana, has discovered that there is no law upon the statute books to prohibit the selling of arms and ammunition to uncivilized Indians, and he has introduced a bill to cover the omission. In the United States senate Monday Mr. George spoke against the election bill. In the house, the democrats indulged in obstruction tactics and most of the session was spent in a political debate over a motion to approve the journal.

The house committee on the improvement of the Mississippi river has agreed to report to the house in a modified form the bill introduced by Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, to repair and build the levees of the Mississippi river and to improve its navigation. The appropriation will be about $10,000,000.
