STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY. An Important Convention to Mee

At the meeting of the State medical se ciety which convened in Oxford last precisely the same as when May, it was decided that the next annual meeting of the society would be held in Asheville.

This will be one of the most important conventions that has ever assembled in Asheville. Special invitations will be sent to every prominent physi-cian in the United States, so that it will bring here not only the physicians of this state, but representatives from nearly every section of the United States. Elaborate preparations are being made for entertaining the physicians and representatives by a committee appointed by the Buncombe county medical society. The committee (appointed are: Dr. M. H. Fletcher, chairman, Dr. J. S. Grant secretary, Dr. Chas. E. Hilliard, Dr. S. W. Battle, Dr. H. L. Taylor, Dr. W. P. Whittington, Chas. D. Blanton, Hon. H.

New YORK, Jan. 30 .- The Tribune today says: The long postponed meeting of Grover Cleveland and David B. Hill will, it is believed, certainly take place to-night. The meeting will be at a dinner to be given this evening by State Senator William L. Brown at Manhat-tan club. The dinner is to be a private one, and is to be given in the famous library of the Stewart mansion, where the club's home now is. Col. Brown decided to have a dinner that would bring these two democratic leaders together some

Death of Mrs. F. A. Lance.

Mrs. Amanda, wife of F. A. Lance, of Arden, this county, died at her home Thursday night.

Mrs. Lance was afflicted with consump tion, and some time ago was taken to Augusta, Ga., with the hope of restoring her health. But the change did no good and Mrs. Lance was brought back several weeks ago. The deceased was about 40 years of age and was a sister of Street Superintendent Murray, of Asheville. She leaves a husband and four children. The interment of the remains will or ur to-morrow at Arden.
