COURIER JOURNAL OFFICE, LOUISVILLE, November 21, 1890.

My DEAR SIE:-I take leave to ad lress you in this letter as one of some nillions of democrats who have never sought or held office and who could not sought or held office and who could not be induced to do so, but who are deeply concerned in the party's welfare and who believe you to hold the key to it. Out-side of the state of New York there is a well nigh unanimous demand among the rank and file of demo-crats for the nomination of Cleveland; this is too strong for party lead ers and managers to resist. have some influence in Kentucky. But on that point I should be overwhelmed in the state convention. If you should come to the national convention with the New York delegation solid against it you would overwhelmed. You are powerless to prevent it. But you can defeat the to prevent it. But you can deleat the election of the ticket. There are demo-crats in every part of the union, who believe that you did this in 1888. I know that to be false. I know exactly what happened and I have steadily defended you in public and in private. But it will ing to you as long as you live-even as the bargain of intrigue and corruption clung to Clay, and will meet you in every national convention, if it be not dissipa-ted by some act on your part great enough to blot it out. In default of this, enough to blot it out. In default of this, if you have any hope of the presidency, it will defeat you, that is, if my judgment is clear, that if you could reconcile it with your judgment and feeling to make peace with Cleveland, and to take the delegation to the national convention in 1892 to put him in nomination, you will save the party and place yoursel upon an elevation you can never attain if you fail to do it. You would be received by the country with enthusiasm; be accepted at once as a Warwick, and I do not see how you could be kept out of the succession. On the other hand, even if you succeeded in de feating the nomination of Cleveland von will stand upon a sinister and dauger-ous ground with a stormy future before you. These are plain words and I have no relations with you which give me the right to offer you counsel. They may be disagreeable words, and have no desire to intrude upon your privacy, but they are true words and I claim the right of a democrat who has some knowledge of the country at large and has given some proof of intelligent devotion to party interests to ignore ceremony and to send them to you. In conclusion, let me say that I shall in an event be glad to know you better an that meanwhile, I am most sincerel
