WHAT YOU WANT

A Bad Indian Taken to Fort Snelling for Safe Keeping.

Huron, S. D., March 5.—Low Dog, one of the most desperate Indians of the Sioux tribe, reached here last evening from Fort Bennett in charge of Lieutenant Kennedy and two aides from the third United States infantry. The prisoner was heavily armed and was being taken to Fort Snelling for safe keeping. He is a brother of the Sioux chief Big Foot, killed during the recent Indian troubles, and is charged with stealing two of Big Foot's children from the Indian School at Fort Snelling. He refused to give any information concerning them and as they cannot be found it is thought he murdered them.

IT WAS MEAN.

What John J. Ingalls Was Capable Of.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Senator Ingalls closes his career in the senate by displacing T. J. Haig, who has been for three years clerk of the committee on the District of Columbia and appointing to the post Ingalls' son Ralph, who is a young law student here. The object of the change is to enable young Ingalls to draw the salary of $6 a day until December next, after Mr. Haig, who has been a most faithful clerk to Mr. Ingalls, has done all the work of the committee which expires with the congress.

J. H. YOUNG NOT CONFIRMED.

Neither was That Other Colored Man, Hill, of Vicksburg, Miss.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 5.—The following nominations failed to receive confirmation of the senate:

James H. Beatty, as district judge of Idaho; Louis Desmarais, coiner of mint at New Orleans; James H. Young, collector of customs for the district of Wilmington, N. C.

In the case of Hill, the colored man nominated for postmaster at Vicksburg, the democratic opposition delayed action long enough to cause a failure of nomination.

Congress Has Adjourned.

ASHLAND, Pa., March 5.—At North Ashland, one of the Reading company's largest collieries resumed work this morning after three months suspension, thus giving employment to 650 men and boys.

Robbed the Savings Bank.

FREE PORT, Pa., March 5.—The Savings bank here was broken into last night and several thousand dollars' worth of negotiable paper, besides other valuable papers and money, were taken.

STATE NEWS.

—Littleton is excited over the fact that northern capitalists are prospecting for a $100,000 hotel in that place.

—Under the bill for refunding the amount of direct tax paid by the respective states North Carolina is entitled to $377,452.

—At Oxford Alfred L. Daniel, of Henderson, caused S. E. Johnson, a northern drummer, Johnson had insulted Mrs. Daniel by throwing a kiss at her.

—Oxford Orphan's Friend: We have more than two hundred to feed, to clothe, to educate and to train in industrial work. To do this we must have help. We call upon you, dear reader, to help us.

—Wake Forest gets $30,000 new endowment. President Taylor has raised $20,000 of it, and for every $2 he gets, rich Mr. Bostwick, of New York, gives $1. The total endowment is now nearly $200,000.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—Mr. Hedden, 73 years old, of Hamburg, having occasion to go to Waynesville last Monday started from his home some time after the turn of midnight, on foot, and reached his daughter's in this place—Mrs. N. Coward—before breakfast, and then walked to Sylva to meet the train. The road being obstructed so that no train arrived, he walked back to Webster in the afternoon, making a walk of about 30 miles.—Webster Herald.

—Mr. Robert Dent, a practical miner of the West reports to the Knoxville Tribune that he "found both silver and gold ore. So far he has not gone sufficiently far in his examination of the gold ore to tell whether it will pay to work or not. As regards the silver ore, Mr. Dent says that he finds an abundance that will pay to work. He has obtained options on the land in Ashe county, North Carolina, and expects to organize a company to open the property in the spring when he returns from the west."

TO DETER GOLD SHIPMENTS

FIRST ACTION UNDER THE NEW LAW.

The Treasury Department Will Charge Four Cents Per Hundred Dollars for All Gold Bars Required for Shipment to Europe.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The treasury department has already been called upon to act under the Sherman amendment to the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill authorizing the secretary of the treasury to exercise his discretion in an exchange of gold for gold coin and also to impose a charge for such exchange.

Heretofore the statute regulating this matter has been construed by the treasury department as against imposition of charges. Under the new law the policy of the department will be to charge four cents per hundred dollars in value for all gold bars required for shipment and if this fails to deter gold shipments the question will be considered as to whether the exchange was made on that basis. It is assumed, however, that it was. The treasury department is in receipt of advices from New York to the effect that there will be a heavy demand for gold bars for shipment by steamers sailing for Europe Saturday.

PROBABLY A MURDERER.

BINGHAM SCHOOL.

The Matter to be Settled Finally in a Few Days.

Maj. Robert Bingham, principal of Bingham's school, who is now in the city for the purpose of making the final arrangements looking to the location of his school here, went out yesterday in company with several prominent gentlemen to inspect the property offered by the Asheville Loan, construction and improvement company. Some details remain to be arranged between Maj. Bingham and the gentlemen in charge of the subscription to the school, which will be settled in a day or two, after which the contracts for the construction of the buildings will be given out. Maj. Bingham regards the site offered by the loan company most favorably, and in all probability that tract will be decided on. This site is on the west side of the French Broad river, on the river front, about a quarter of a mile south of Pearson's bridge.

ROYALTY AT LARGE.

The Queen Receives a "Perfect Ovation" in London.

LONDON, March 5.—The Queen, accompanied by the Empress Frederick, by the latter's daughter Margaret, and by the Prince and Princess of Wales, drove today in open carriages from Buckingham Palace to Bilsington, where the royal party spent considerable time in visiting the horse show at agricultural hall. The Queen and her party received a perfect ovation as they passed through the streets on their
