WELL, HOW'S BUSINESS?

CONGRESS HELPS IT BY ADJOURNING.

The Price of Commodities Going Up—The South Feels the Decline in Cotton—Rice Firm.

NEW YORK, March 7.—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Congress has adjourned, and the possibility of an extra legislative session no longer hangs over business so that the monetary losses cannot now be affected by any law making earlier than December next, nor is there much prospect now that any serious change will be made next winter. Meanwhile, appropriations voted have been so large and liberal that the treasury surplus must be considerably reduced, and the available supply of currency increased within the current year. One of the unwholesome factors is that prices of commodities are moving upward, the average having risen more than 1 per cent. during the last week and exports of merchandise are thus liable to be restricted.

Reports of trade from all parts of the country show but little changes in the last week, though there is perhaps a little less activity for a while. The South feels a continued decline in cotton, but the trade in that section is moderately fair. Rice is firm at New Orleans, while molasses is strong and sugar dull. At Pittsburg the coke strike stiffens prices on structural iron and window glass is weak. Chicago reports an extraordinary decrease in the dressed beef receipts and a heavy fall of the receipts in grain, lard and hides, but a large gain is incurred in meats and wool.

MR. LOWRY'S EFFORT.

It Is Said to Have Been Really Fine —Mr. Reed's Record.

RALEIGH, March 6.—This has been a wonderful day in our legislature. Mr. Lowry, of Buncombe, made the speech of his life. The question was an amendment of the constitution in regard to the homestead. He was eloquent, logical and pathetic. Some of his flights were grand. He kept the house for an hour in tears or laughter. Old men say they never saw such cheering and such wild enthusiasm. The ladies in the galleries waved their handkerchiefs, while all present were held as it by magic. He predicted the grand career of the democratic party and showed how deep the republicans were buried. It was a memorable time, Reed, his colleague, walked the floor behind the chair of the speaker, now and then going to his seat, looking all aglow with astonishment.

The confusion at the close was profound. Members, friends, one and all rushed to congratulate the rising statesman of the west. His eloquence and flights in the memorable speech nominating Gov. Vance for senator appear as the work of an ordinary man as compared to this effort.

Our other member, Mr. Reed, is a quiet thoughtful man of few words. He is prized for his good hard business sense. No member of the house is more popular than he and no one more highly appreciated. "G."

HE KILLED HIMSELF.

Anything Rather Than Be Captured By the Russian Police.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 7.—Degarjeff, the nihilist leader and murderer of the chief of the secret police in 1883, has been arrested at Kostroma. When taken into custody Degarjeff was found lodging under an assumed name in the house of a government official. A reward of 10,000 roubles has, for a long time, been offered for the capture of Degarjeff.

The chief instructor at the Kostroma gymnasium, who was suspected of being implicated with Degarjeff in the actual murder or in the conspiracy which led to it, committed suicide just as the police opened the door of his room with the intention of arresting him. A number of other arrests have been made.

To Succeed Mr. Call.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., March 6.—Gov. Fleming will leave to the legislature the appointment of a United States senator to succeed Mr. Call.

STATE NEWS.

—Wilmington Star says the boys are laying in heavy stocks of cigarettes, against the day of prohibition to minors.

—Arrangements will be made, if possible, to take a provisional battallion of the state guard to the Chicago World's fair.

—The Greensboro Record says none of its force ever gets a free railroad ride.—Winston Sentinel. It's a matter of Record, is it?

—The teachers' "course" is now in progress at the State University. President Battle write the correspondent of the Charlotte Chronicle that there is a prevalent idea that ladies are admitted to the course. Ladies are not admitted.

—Raleigh Chronicle: Saturday, Moses Ford, who lives near Forestville, this county, on the farm of his father, D. F. Ford, cut down a large hickory tree in which he found twenty-four live opossums, two grey squirrels, two owls, and four flying squirrels.

—The Charlotte Chronicle takes up its pen to record, with a sigh, that the Charlotte institute, which was established 65 years ago and has since that time been a source of strength and honor to that city, is to be closed, and in all probability, forever, as an institution of learning.

—A train on the university division of the Richmond & Danville railroad jumped the track Friday afternoon. The coaches were completely wrecked. The conductor and Prof. Geo. T. Winston were slightly injured and several other persons badly shaken up and painfully bruised.

—Wilmington Star: "A black boy about 18 years old, arrested for hitting Andrew McDuffie, colored, with a brick bat, gave his name at police headquarters as Claude St. Julian, Eugene, Abraham, Bonaparte, Springer, Hartsfield Love Leach Nixon. He goes (and comes) by the name of Julius Nixon."

—A Charlotte special says: W. Sprowls, an ex-Union soldier who died here a few days ago, had applied for a pension ten years ago. He waited patiently for ten years, but heard no word from his application till the day of his death, when he received notification that his application had been granted with back pay from the time the application was filed.

CANADIAN ELECTIONS.

The Government's Majority Reduced by the Latest Returns.

TORONTO, Ont., March 7.—There is still considerable diversity of opinion as to the actual majority the government obtained in the recent elections. The Empire, (conservative,) says:

"More complete returns show that the conservative victory of Thursday was even of a more sweeping character than was anticipated yesterday. Our returns show a present government majority of 45, a magnificent endorsement and one of which every loyal man may well be proud."

The Mail, independent, places the government majority at 29 with Cariboo, Algoma and Huntingdon to hear from. The World, conservative, places the government majority at 35, while 27 is the most the Globe, liberal, can make it. Impartial authorities place the government majority at about 30.

The following despatch has been received from Wilfried Laurier by the Globe: "The results of the general elections are still too uncertain to venture a definite opinion on. One thing, however, is made out beyond doubt, that the policy of the government is doomed. Its fate is already sealed in so far as Ontario and Quebec are concerned. Let, therefore, the liberals continue to fight everywhere bravely and cheerfully."

THEY'RE FOR PARNELL.

$2,550 Raised For Him In a Few Hours By a Newspaper.

DUBLIN, March 7.—The first number of the National Press, the new daily paper devoted to the interests of the McCarthy faction of the Irish parliamentary party, was issued today. It announces that it will recommend that the policy of years past be pursued, as it resulted in an united Irish party. Further on, the paper characterizes the object of Mr. Parnell's appeal to the United States as not being for the aid of evicted tenants, but to bring grist to the Parnellite mill.

It is the intention of the McCarthyites to use the new paper in pushing their campaign against Parnell, which commences in real earnest to-morrow. The Freeman's Journal to-day published the first list of Parnell's leadership fund, in the total showing of a subscription in one day of $2,550, and points with pride to this response made in a few hours by its subscribers.

OTTAWA, March 7.—The cabinet will reassemble at Ottawa next week, and active preparations for the work of the session will be commenced. It is understood that parliament will meet Wednesday, April 29, to enable the house of commons to elect a speaker, and that the formal opening will take place the following day.

Octogenarian Dead.

James Lusk, one of Asheville's oldest citizens, died at his residence, No. 413 North Main street, to-day. Mr. Lusk was 83 years of age. The funeral services will be held at the residence to-morrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

THE LEGISLATURE.

A bill to provide for the election of a public printer was tabled in the house.

The house has passed a bill making it unlawful for druggists to sell cigars, soda water, etc., on Sundays.

The bill to amend the charter of the Asheville mission hospital, has passed the third reading in the house.

The bill to amend an act to incorporate West Asheville, has passed the third reading in the house and senate.

In the senate, the bill to appropriate $25,000 to secure an exhibit at Chicago failed to pass; this raised a howl, and later this action was reconsidered and the bill passed the senate by a unanimous vote.

There has been trouble in the courts, arising out of the definitions of the words "adjoining" and "bounded by," as applied to land boundaries. The house to-day passed a bill to make this matter straight, by declaring the words as synonymous when so used.

The house has tabled a bill which had passed the senate, requiring strict examination by the secretary of state into the affairs of assessment insurance companies doing business in this state. A bill providing that on fire insurance policies, in case of total loss, the face value should be paid in cash, has been unfavorably reported in the house.

AFFAIRS OF CONSEQUENCE.

FOREIGN.

The two women who attempted to kill King Milan of Servia, in 1882, were strangled to death in prison recently.

Archbishop Williams, of Boston, has written a letter to the pope requesting the pontiff not to create him a cardinal.

Numerous letters have been received at the Vatican from the United States requesting the pope to reinstate Rev. Dr. McFlynn, of New York.

The bishop of the combined diocese of Down, Conner and Dromore, Ireland, has written a letter practically excommunicating followers of Mr. Parnell from the Catholic church.

HOME.

A cow inoculated with Koch's lymph by the veterinarians of the Pennsylvania hospital is dead, but she leaves a calf which has been named "Dr. Koch."

The Illinois Central railroad company has decided to send agents to Mexico, Central and South America to develop trade between those countries and Chicago via New Orleans. This is intended as an offset to the New York scheme of trade development via Tampa, Fla.

It is said that no more appointments will be made until after the President's return from his hunting trip to Benjies, Md., next week. It is also said that the President does not regard an extra session of the senate necessary for the consideration of the recently provided for judicial appointments.

Latest returns from the Canadian elections show that they resulted in a large decrease in the government's majority in the dominion parliament and corresponding gains for the liberals. The government proposed limited reciprocity with the United States and the liberals advocated unrestricted trade.
