Everything possible was done by the officers and seamen of the British war ships in their efforts to save life and four seamen were washed overboard and drowned from one of the war ships steam launches while taking part in the work of rescue.

Of the Utopia, Captain McKean, and the ship's doctor, boatswain, chief steward and carpenter, were saved. The scene after the collision has probably never before been witnessed in the history of maritime disaster. On one side was the sinking passenger steamship crowded with seven hundred emigrants, who filled the air with wild, horrible appeals for help and with shrieks of terror. Overhead the dark clouds rushed furiously along, driven by the strong south-west gale which had been one of the causes of the calamity. Right and left the sinking vessel were the two monster warships, Rodney and Anson, pouring the light of their powerful electric reflectors upon the disabled steamship, lighting up the agony of her passengers and showing too clearly the terrible position in which they were placed. Here and there were the warships' small boats manned by sailors who strained every nerve to reach the drowning passengers.

The rescued were most kindly cared for on the warships or were taken ashore and housed in the different government buildings.

All the Italians were destined for the United States.

A BREACH OF TRUST.

Charles Engle, a young German, who has been employed as a bartender in Muller's saloon, corner of College and Water streets, is under arrest in Knoxville.

Last Saturday R. R. Penland, of Haywood county, went to the bar, called for a drink and tendered a twenty-dollar bill in payment. Engle was making the change when Penland gave him two more bills of a like denomination and asked him to keep them for him until called for.

Engle afterwards lost the money confided to his care, while playing cards. He left the city, and was not heard from until this morning, when he sent a telegram to a friend here saying that he was under arrest in Knoxville and would try and sell a lot which he owned here, in order to repay the money squandered.

Engle was a good-looking German, and was for a long time employed at Strauss' restaurant in Asheville.

WITH GREAT LOSS OF LIFE

A DISASTROUS COLLISION IN THE BAY OF GIBRALTAR.

The Anchor Line Steamer Utopia Run Into by a British Ironclad and Over 500 Passengers, Italian, Drowned.

GIBRALTAR, March 18.—The anchor line steamer Utopia, collided yesterday with the British ironclad Rodney while entering the bay here.

It is calculated that of 700 Italian emigrants and the crew on board the steamer 570 persons were drowned. Several bodies of those who lost their lives in the disaster have been washed ashore on the Spanish coast.

An account of the disaster attributes it to the fact that the British warship Anson was drifting before the gale and in so doing rammed the Utopia aback her funnel. After ramming the Utopia down the Anson reversed her engines, thus backing away from the Utopia and leaving open the great hole in her side made by the ironclad. The Utopia almost immediately afterwards sank.

Everything possible was done by the officers and seamen of the British war ships in their efforts to save life and four seamen were washed overboard and drowned from one of the war ships steam launches while taking part in the work of rescue.

Of the Utopia, Captain McKean, and the ship's doctor, boatswain, chief steward and carpenter, were saved. THE FORCES.
Dr. Henry's Second Lecture at the Grand Last Night.

Dr. John Henry gave the second of a series of lectures on "Hypnotism and psychology" at the Grand last night. The Doctor expatiated on the thought and nerve forces of the human body showing how a person might, if he so desired, attain any object sought. He said that an office seeker, if he would command his forces and declare emphatically that he would have the office desired, could procure whatever office he might ask for. It was the same way about borrowing money—if the borrower would approach the lender with an undaunted front and demand the loan, he would invariably get what he wanted.

To thus command the force of the body is what Dr. Henry proposes to teach. Out of a dozen or more young men and boys who went upon the stage, three were selected, by whom the audience was entertained for an hour or more. The subjects were thoroughly under the mesmerist's influence, and were subjected to tests which proved the power of the operator.

One of the subjects, associate editor Ray, of the Country Homes, was made to go through a waltz, which he executed in great style, although he declared afterward he had never danced a figure in his life.

Last night's entertainment was far ahead of Monday night's, because the operator had better subjects to deal with, and could put them to severer tests. To-night Dr. Henry will continue his lectures at the Grand, taking up the sympathetic and hypnotic conditions, and a test of the doctor's hypnotic powers is to be made. A very entertaining evening will be spent by all who go.

SAD DEATH.
The Only Child of Rev. W. S. P. Bryan Dies in Norfolk.

The following telegram was received in this city last night by C. E. Graham and J. A. Conant, from Rev. W. S. P. Bryan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Asheville, dated at Quantine, Va.: "My son lies dead at Norfolk. He will be buried there."

Rev. Mr. Bryan, with Mrs. Bryan and their little son, Plumer, aged about two and a half years, left Asheville last Monday week. Mrs. Bryan and the child went to Norfolk while Mr. Bryan went to Baltimore for a short visit.

When they left Asheville the little boy was in perfect health. Last Saturday a letter was received by Mrs. J. A. Conant stating that Mrs. Bryan and the child were quite well.

The next news from them was the telegram from Mr. Bryan, who was on his way from Baltimore to Norfolk. The death must have been sudden, but no particulars have yet been received here.

The little boy was unusually bright, healthy and lovable, the only child of his parents, and his death will be a terrible blow to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan have the keenest sympathy of a host of friends in Asheville.

National Educational Association
The convention of the National Educational Association for 1891 is to be held at Toronto, Canada, from the 14th to the 17th of July next. The meeting promises to be the largest and most important yet held by the association, as it probably will be attended by some fifteen thousand of those actively engaged in educational matters from all parts of the United States and Canada.

The railway companies throughout the Union and Canada have agreed to grant return tickets to Toronto for one fare, plus $2.00 the membership fee to the association, the railway tickets from distant points being good for return until September.

NORTH CAROLINA HAPPENINGS.
—Mt. Airy receives flour from Spokane Falls, Wash., shipped by J. P. Rawley, formerly of Surry.

—S. W. Alexander, keeper of the Mecklenburg county poor house, died suddenly and unexpectedly at 5 o'clock Saturday morning.

—The Greensboro Wayman says that the automatic cigarette machine invented by J. B. Underwood, of Fayetteville, is another Gatling gun made to kill boys with.

—Gaston county, through her representatives, has, without submitting to a vote of the people, declared itself a dry county and the sale of whisky is forbidden.

—A disastrous wreck occurred at Ledbetter's trestle, on the Carolina Central railroad, at 8 o'clock Saturday night. The through freight from Norfolk to Charlotte was wrecked at that point. There were twenty cars in the train, and all except seven went down.

—Ex-President W. G. Upchurch, of the state agricultural society, says that the weather has been very favorable to the crops of spring and small grain. It is bad on spring oats, and on corn and cotton, so far as the preparations for planting are concerned. Winter small grain is hearty with a fine stand.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—It is understood that Jas. Young and Congressman Cheatham waited upon the president a day or two since and urged that Young be again appointed collector of customs at the port of Wilmington, which would have kept him in office till his nomination was acted upon by the senate. The president, however, declined to appoint him. It is conjectured that the president will appoint a negro, and the name of John S. Leary has been mentioned in that connection.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—Every one in the South interested in or knowing of the proposed starting of any new manufacturing or mining enterprise, whether large or small, or of the extensions of factories or mines, now in operation, or the erection of large buildings, would benefit himself, as well as the south generally, by sending particulars to the Manufacturers' Record, of Baltimore. In this way the wants of Southern manufacturers who wish to buy machinery are made public, and catalogues of all machinery in their line, with prices, are received, and they are thus enabled to select the best machinery at the lowest cost.

Workingmen cannot afford to lose time. Simmons Liver Regulator will keep you from it.

A MAN OF HARD SENSE.

PALMER WILL NOT BE A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE.

He Says He is Too Old and Besides He Has Been Elected to Serve in the Senate for Six Years.

CARLINVILLE, Ills., March 18.—Senator-elect Palmer was given a warm reception at his old home in Macoupin county last evening. He took occasion to say emphatically that he was not a candidate for either president or vice-president.

"Look at my locks," he said; "they are too grey and thin. I expect to see a democrat elected president in '92, and I expect him to be a young man. I pledged myself if elected senator to give the people six years of honest endeavor for their welfare. That I shall do as their representative in the senate."

Resolutions asking that the name of Gen. Palmer be presented to the national democratic convention as the choice of Illinois for president, in spite of the general's protest to the contrary, were adopted with a burrah in the meeting called to welcome him back.

DEMAND REPARATION.
Italians Bound to Make a Bad Matter Worse if Possible.

CHICAGO, March 18.—The Italians in this city do not propose to "let up" in their efforts until reparation has been made for the New Orleans mob violence. Oscar Durant, of Littleton, outlined their intentions today. He said: "If no agreement has been concluded between the governments by Sunday we shall call a grand mass-meeting Sunday evening. We will protest bitterly against the statement made by Mayor Shaker, and we will propose that each Italian colony of the United States form a protesting committee, ready to send a representative to Washington to formally protest in the name of all the Italians in the United States. We will prove that the statement published that some prominent Italians have approved the acts of the mob is a lie."

Italian mass meetings were held at Detroit and San Francisco last evening denouncing the lynching and demanding reparation.
