THE COKE REGION QUIET.

WHO FIRED THE FIRST SHOTS IS IN THE QUESTION.

Some Ten Months to the Effect That the strikers Were not the First to Fire—The Funerals.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Pa., April 3.—Quiet reigns throughout the coke regions this morning. No outbreak has occurred since the fatal raid yesterday morning, and while the situation is still grave the presence of the militia has had a reassuring effect upon the people. Two regiments are now upon the ground fully equipped and prepared for action. The Eighteenth regiment, with over 500 men, reached here shortly after midnight, and the Tenth regiment, with nearly as many men, arrived a little later. Adjutant General McClelland and Brigadier General Wiley are in command and will remain as long as there is any danger of another raid.

The uncertainty and fear of last night have proven an awful strain on both strikers and citizens. No sleeping was done in the entire region, but crowds paraded the streets or gathered in knots at the corners or disappeared in bunches over the hills, leaving doubts as to their destination and intentions. The foreigners were quiet, but always in crowds, and the momentary fear of an outbreak from the thousands of strikers, which the regiment could not quell, was only dispelled by the first streaks of early dawn.

So far ten deaths have occurred and several more are in a critical condition. The funeral of the slain strikers will take place Saturday. Peter Wiser, master workman of the Knights of Labor, says the entire coke country will turn out and that about that time people must take care. He says the burial of the dead will furnish a renewed incentive for activity of the living.

A prominent leader of the Slav element stated this morning that the majority of the crowd out yesterday morning was there under protest; that the American English and Irish leaders went to the Standard pit and forced the Slavs to join them under threats of punishment.

An inquest on the bodies of the men killed at Moorwood was held this morning. Neither the sheriff nor the coke companies were represented, while labor leaders were present.

Albert Halley swore that the only shooting he heard came from the guards on the Moorwood property. He was 125 yards from where the shooting occurred.

The bodies of the strikers were taken to the bridge or in ditches, while the wounded hobbled away. Sharp cross questions brought out the fact that the masses were not a mob, but a body of men, though he did not know whether the guards carried revolvers or not. This doubt as to whether the pistol shots were fired first by the guards or by the strikers was received with a cheer by the crowd.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 3.—As the men killed yesterday at Moorwood were all un-naturalized foreigners, the possibility of international complications arising is freely discussed. The Austrian consul, Max Shamp'g, of this city, received a telegram this afternoon informing him that several of the miners killed were subjects of the Austro-Hungarian empire. He replied that he would investigate the matter.

ENGLISH SYNDICATES.

They are on the South These Days.

BALTIMORE, April 3.—This week's Manufacturer's Record publishes extracts from the letter of an English correspondent holding intimate relations to the iron and steel and the financial circles of Great Britain, which states that the British company which has purchased property in Sequachee valley, East Tennessee, has $250,000 capital and the strongest English directory yet organized for operations in the south. The American representatives are John H. Inman, John C. Calhoun and Gen. Chamberlain of the Southern Iron Company, of Chattanooga. Another syndicate has sent an eminent British expert to examine 100,000 tons of timber, coal and iron, and fire clay lands on Ticking river in Kentucky, which will be purchased and developed if the expert's report is satisfactory.

A second syndicate, with a capital stock of 50,000,000, is being organized to make extensive purchases in the north, for which negotiations are now in progress. This company expects to secure its property in time to begin work next autumn. The same writer says that the recent rumors that the British syndicate behind the Kinsaiden company, of Tennessee, has purchased also the property of the Tennessee Coal, iron and railway company in that state, and will unite all its acquisitions under one management, are correct. This reported purchase does not include the Alabama properties of the Tennessee coal, iron, and railway company.

J. P. Sawyer Returns.

James P. Sawyer returned yesterday from Morganton, where he went on official business in connection with the In-sane asylum at that place. Mr. Sawyer was recently elected president of the board of directors of that institution, to which the place made vacant by the resignation of J. W. Wilson, who was elected railroad commissioner by the recent legislature. Mr. Sawyer was also put on the executive committee of the board instead of Maj. Wilson.

AT HIS CHILD'S GRAVE.

Thomas Gadsden, of Savannah, Commits Suicide.

SAVANNAH, April 3.—Thomas Gadsden, cashier of the Merchants' National bank of this city, committed suicide this morning by blowing his brains out with a revolver at the grave of his daughter in Laurel Grove cemetery. Gadsden was a prominent man in Savannah and had been connected with the bank for many years and was interested in various business enterprises. He was vestryman in St. John's Episcopal church. He left his residence early this morning and told the servants he was going for a walk. He went straight to the cemetery and to the grave of his daughter, who died twenty years ago, and fired a revolver into his temple and fell across the mound. The shot was heard by the men working in the cemetery, and shortly after the body was found.

ITALY HEDGES A LITTLE.

WILLING NOW TO WAIT THE TRIAL.

A Tender of 500 Men to Fight Halls—And the Italians are Coming in by the Thousands.

ROME, April 3.—Premier Rudini today telegraphed to the secretary of the legation at Washington, instructing him to hand the message to Blaine.

The message is a reply to Blaine's last note, and in it Rudini says that Italy has asked nothing but the prompt institution of regular judicial proceedings against the guilty parties at New Orleans. He adds that it would have been absurd to claim punishment for the offenders without the guarantees afforded by a regular trial.

This diplomatic incident, Rudini says, can only be considered closed when the federal government has declared in precise terms that the prosecution will be commenced. In the meantime the Italian government takes cognizance of the federal government's declaration acknowledging the fact that a compensation is due to the families of the victims in virtue of a treaty existing between the two countries.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The war department today received the following telegram:

"BOULDER, Mont., April 2.—The Secretary of War: Upon receipt of your letter of the 29th inst. regarding the case of the state of Montana, in case of a war with the Italian government.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Superintendent of immigration Weller says immigration from Italy is rapidly increasing, in fact, leading that of all other countries. The figures for March are: Italy, 7,869; Germany, 7,087; Great Britain and Ireland, 4,386; Austria, 3,434; and Russia, 2,923—total, 29,338. One thousand six hundred and seven Italians were landed at Barge's office today.

BENZINE EXPLODED.

A Hot Fire Thursday Night—Oil Works Burned.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 3.—The Waverly oil works, near Fifth-third street, covering an area of four acres, were totally destroyed by fire last night, together with 80,000 feet of great timber owned by George S. Lacey. During the fire several tanks of benzene exploded, but no one was seriously injured. Total loss estimated at $150,000; fully covered by insurance.

TEN WERE KILLED.

One of Those Terrible Fatal Mine Explosions.

LONDON, April 3.—A disastrous explosion in a coal mine took place today at Apedale, Staffordshire. Ten persons were killed outright and several others severely injured.

New up a Dry Dock.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Private advices from Valparaiso say that the iron-clad Blanco, belonging to the insurgents, recently attempted to blow up the government tug Florence with a fish torpedo. The torpedo missed the tug, but struck a big floating dock in the harbor, blowing it to pieces. The Blanco was thereupon treated to a hot fire of shot and shell from every gun in the forts, and steamed out of the harbor.

Al. Albert Pike Dead.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—General Albert Pike, grand commander of Scottish Rite Masonry of Southern Jurisdiction, and chief of the Royal Order of Scotland for this country, died at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of the Supreme Council of the order, where he had lived for several years.

He's in It.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—My name is placed on the Evening Journal list as an aspirant to the office of alderman and admitted from the Democrat. As I have been to warrant my running, please correct and oblige. W. WARD, 62 Hill Street, Asheville, April 3.

Mangled for Cause.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 3.—Ernest Forbes, a colored boy, who committed an outrage on Bertha Phipps in Annapolis last evening in November last, was hanged here this morning at 10:06. Miss Phipps has become since the assault Mrs. John Griffith.

DIDN'T KNOW WASHINGTON.

Boston art has reached a stage where it decides that what it long supposed to be a bust of Samuel Adams is really a bust of George Washington. This is certainly a great advance in knowledge, but what use has Boston for a bust that is not related to some branch of the Adams family?—St. Louis Republican.

If Boston makes many more mistakes similar to that of worshipping a statue of George Washington as one of Samuel Adams, it will have to retire from her position as the center of American culture. Such dense ignorance would be excusable even in a Colorado mining camp.—Kansas City Times.

Boston is all torn up. It has just discovered that a marble bust which for many years has adorned the state house, labeled "Samuel Adams," was really a bust of George Washington. Where are the critics of the Hub? And where, oh! where are Cabot, Lodge and Grandpa Hoar?—Boston Courier.

For many generations the Bostonese have been worshipping an image of Washington in the state house, supposing it to be the shrine of Saint Samuel Adams. The past 100 years they should do penance by walking with their heads in their hands in the usual phrase of deposit.—Detroit Journal.

The idea that Boston culture should be laboring under such a blunder is appalling. The bust is said not to have the faintest resemblance to Samuel Adams, but is an exact portrait of General Washington.—Bostoner Herald.

BARRETT'S WILL.

There Were No Public Bequests It Appears.

BOSTON, April 3.—The will of Lawrence Barrett has been filed with the clerk of the Norfolk probate court. Mr. Barrett makes no public bequests. He bequeaths to his wife, Mary Frederica Barrett, all his furniture, picture, clothing, plate china, watches and jewelry, wines and household stores, and all the rest and residue of his property is given to trustees to have and to hold for his three daughters, Mary Agnes, Baroness Von Roder, of Stuttgart, in Wurtemberg; Anna Gertrude, wife of Joseph Anderson, of London, and Edith Milton Barrett, each whom is to be paid the sum of $1,000 per annum in equal quarterly payments of $400 each. The income of his estate beyond this is to be paid to his wife.

THE PARNELLITE BEATEN.

RESULT OF THE ELECTION AT NORTH SLIGO.

The McCarthyite Candidate Secured a Majority of 400 Votes, His Opponent Being a Dublin Alderman.

SLIGO, April 3.—The result of the polling yesterday for member of Parliament to succeed the late Peter McDonald as representative for North Sligo, was announced this afternoon.

The contest resulted in the election of the McCarthyite candidate, Alderman Bernard Colley, of Sligo, over the Parnellite nominee, Alderman Valentine B. Dillon, of Dublin. Colley's majority was 806.

DIXON ON DANA.

The Preacher's Warmest Compliments to the Editor.

Rev. Thomas Dixon, of New York, but a Cleveland citizen, N. C. man, had some things to say about the New Orleans matter. Now Rev. Dixon, in reviewing criminal statistics in the preface to his sermon last Sunday, says about the Sun and the sarcastic Dana:

"In an editorial, March 24, the Sun, in the face of the terrible facts that I have narrated, and thousands of others that stare us in the face, has the assurance to say: 'Nowhere in the world is there a community in which law and order prevail more than here, and in which the respect for courts and judicial processes is more profound.'"

"This newspaper is one of the most interesting phenomena of our times. Its influence in debauching the public mind is in one sense appalling considering the number of souls there are in the world who believe what they see in print is so because it is in print. I read the Sun at least once a week, for the same reason a distinguished Methodist editor of New York says he reads it every day, viz: I am here to destroy the works of the devil, and I want the news straight from headquarters. Its pages flash with human genius, and yet it is the living embodiment of all that is most brutal in our life. It has no faith in God or man."

"It has been the champion of most of the great scoundrels that have
