He was the only one elected on the ticket In 1865, he was appointed judge of the superior court by Governor Holden, and was by the legislature of 1865-66 elected careful attention—refer, if desired, to the Battery Park same office for life. In November 1867, he resigned this office rather than obey and enforce the orders of Gen. Sickles, then military governor of North and South Carolina. He was a democratic candidate before the convention of 1867 and was defeated, but led his ticket by over a hundred votes. In 1868 he was chairman of the state democratic com-mittee, and threw his whole energy into that campaign. In 1870 he was one of the democratic candidates for the state senate from the counties of Franklin and Wake, reduced the republican majority of twelve hundred to two hundred and again led his ticket. In 1876 he was democratic elector for the state at large, and upon the election of Tilden, so conspicuous and pre-eminent had been his canvass, that the members of the North Carolina electoral college recom-mended him to the president and requested that he be appointed attorney general of the United States. In 1880, he was a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, was defeated by Hon. Thos. I. Jarvis, and during that cam-paign thoroughly canvassed the state for his late competitor, making some sixty speeches in different parts of the state. In 1872 he canvassed Chatham and made speeches in other counties of the state in behalf of the democratic candidate for governor. In 1878 he assisted Hon. W. H. Kitchin in his canyass for congress, making speeches in Scotland Neck, Wilson, Goldsboro, and New Berne. In 1884 he was a candidate for the nomination for congress, was defeated by Hon. W. R. Cox, but during that campaign his eloquent voice was the recent election for a successor heard in forty or fifty counties of the to the late Peter MeDonald as represtate pleading for the glorious principles of the democratic party. During the session of the legislature of 1884-1885 all the democratic members of that body the democratic members of that body pleasure and admiration of the united united in a petition to President Cleve-land requesting him to appoint Judge Fowle solicitor-general. In January, 1866, Gov. Fowle married

Mary E., only daughter of Dr. F. J. Hay-wood, of Raleigh, who died in April, 1886, leaving three children. On June 30, 1888, he was nominated for governor by the democratic party, and elected by a majority exceeding 40,000 over his opponent, O. H. Dockery.
