IT'S AN A. NO. 1 TICKET.

RESULT OF YESTERDAY'S DEMOCRATIC ELECTION.

C. D. Blanton Renominated for Asheville's Mayor—J. D. Brevard, T. C. Starnes, J. M. Gulger and W. T. Reynolds, for Aldermen.

The democratic primary has come and gone. The democrats now have their full-fledged candidates for the municipal offices.

The polls closed at 8 o'clock last night and the count was begun. When, at about 9:30, the result was announced, Blanton men were jubilant.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN.—In accordance with a resolution adopted by the democratic executive committee on March 31, I herewith hand you for publication the report of the judges who held the democratic primary on the 8th inst., showing the full voting nominations to have been made at said primary:

FOR MAYOR.
C. D. Blanton	201
W. B. Gwyn	166
John W. Starnes	1

FOR ALDERMEN.
W. T. Reynolds	11

J. M. Westall	4
J. D. Brevard	4
J. M. Gulger	1
W. F. Randolph	1
G. H. Burdham	1
T. W. Triplett	1
J. W. Anderson	1
Geo. Henderson	1
Wm. Ward	1
R. P. Foster	1

WEST WARD.
FOR MAYOR
C. D. Blanton	470
W. B. Gwyn	300
F. M. Fullmer	1
R. M. Miller	1

FOR ALDERMEN.
REGULAR	UNREGISTERED
J. D. Brevard	418
R. L. Grubbs	2
T. W. Triplett	2
W. F. Randolph	1
G. H. Burdham	1
W. F. Randolph	1
W. T. Reynolds	1
T. C. Starnes	1
R. L. Grubbs	1
J. M. Westall	1
R. P. Foster	1
Geo. Henderson	1
Rev. Wm. Ward	1
L. M. Hatch	1
J. K. Rich	1
J. W. Anderson	1

We declare the following nominations: For Mayor, C. D. Blanton. For Aldermen, for regular term of four years, J. D. Brevard, T. C. Starnes, J. M. Gulger, T. C. Starnes; for unexpired term of two years, W. F. Reynolds. Respectfully,

J. K. Rich, Chairman. R. L. Grubbs, J. H. Woodard, F. STRIKELATHER, R. McBRAYER, Judges.

T. W. Triplett, who received a large number of votes, has sent the following letter to THE CITIZEN:

APRIL 9, 1891.

To my Democratic Friends:

I take this opportunity to publicly thank you for your hearty support given me in the democratic primary held yesterday. I have learned this morning that in strict compliance with the terms of the call made by the democratic executive committee it would be necessary to have another election, as between Mr. T. C. Starnes and myself, for aldermen, but I take this method of saying to both the judges of the election and the public at large, that I do not desire to contest Mr. Starnes' nomination, and will not do so under any circumstances. He received more votes than I did and I am for him to the end, and if in order, I move to make his nomination unanimous. Respectfully yours,

T. W. Triplett.

Mr. Starnes has sent this letter to THE CITIZEN:

To the Democrats of Asheville:

As will appear by reference to a communication in today's issue of THE CITIZEN from Mr. Thos. W. Triplett, he concludes that I am entitled to be declared one of the democratic nominees for aldermen of the primary election held in this city on yesterday.

Mr. Triplett concedes this on the ground that technical mistakes were made whereby votes were cast for me for the unexpired term of Mr. Pulliam, resigned, that were intended to be cast for me for the regular term of four years, as I was a candidate for the regular and not for the unexpired term. This magnanimous action of Mr. Triplett has my highest appreciation, and deserves the warmest commendation of all the democrats of the city. I take pleasure in thus publicly testifying to my appreciation of his character as a generous man and a true democrat.

Mr. Triplett assures me of his hearty support, and the support of his friends, not only for myself but for the whole ticket as nominated by the democratic primary.

$25,000 for the Public Schools.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN.—There is much misunderstanding in regard to the school bill.

At the next election the people will vote on the proposition to issue $25,000 in bonds for the purpose of erecting and equipping necessary school buildings.

This proposition is entirely separate from the one contained in the improvement act. It is a separate bill altogether.

The fact that the amount is generally considered in estimating the amount in the improvement act has given rise to the idea that both are in the same. Each voter will vote for or against this proposition as a single question.

FUNERAL COMMITTEE.

Appointed by Mayor Blanton Wednesday Night.

Mayor Blanton was called from the city yesterday at noon and did not return in time to call a mass meeting to take action concerning the death of North Carolina's chief magistrate, Gov. Daniel G. Fowle.

Last night, however, he named a committee of citizens to go to Raleigh and attend the funeral. They were:

W. W. Jones, T. D. Johnston, M. E. Carter, H. A. Gulger, R. M. Farman, John W. Starnes, W. F. Randolph and E. F. Eulewiler.

Some of these gentlemen started last night, but on reaching the depot found that the train was so late that they could not make connection so as to reach Raleigh in time for the funeral, and did not go.

The following named business houses were draped in mourning out of respect for Gov. Fowle: National bank of Asheville with Western Carolina bank, City hall, Bearden, Rankin & Co., Sawyer Bros., Whitlock's clothing store, C. D. Blanton & Co., Frank Loughran, John O'Donnell & Co., Frank O'Donnell and E. Straussen.

Succinct telegrams of condolence have been sent to Miss Helen Fowle by friends in Asheville.

THE PRESIDENT'S OUTFIT.

The Ladies Will go Along to Add to the Attractions.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Mr. George W. Boyd, assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, who will have charge of the special train conveying the presidential party on its tour of the south and west, was at the White house today, arranging the details of the trip, railroad schedule, and exact space to be spent in each of the cities to be visited. It is practically settled that the party will start from Washington Tuesday morning and that Mrs. Harrison and several other ladies will accompany it.

EDMONDS' SUCCESSOR.

It May be Secretary of War Proctor, This Said.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—It is learned that Secretary Proctor has no intention, as was reported, of resigning his office immediately. But if Governor Page, during the adjournment of the Vermont legislature, which does not reassemble until a year from next autumn, should conclude to appoint Secretary Proctor to the United States senate to fill the vacancy caused by Senator Edmonds' retirement, it is stated that the Secretary will accept the appointment. This action is not likely to be taken until next fall.

KINCAID ACQUITTED.

The Washington Jury Returned Its Verdict Last Night.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The jury in the case of Kincaid, a newspaper correspondent, charged with the murder of ex-congressman Taulbee, of Kentucky, tonight brought in a verdict of not guilty.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

RICHMOND, Va., April 9.—Lewis Booker, one of the most prominent and highly esteemed business men in Richmond and for many years treasurer of the historic St. Paul's Episcopal church, was arrested last night on four warrants, sworn out by Edward Hanewinkel, charging him with the embezzlement of $47,000.

No Use for Canada.

LONDON, April 9.—According to the statistics just made public 152,413 persons emigrated from the British Isles to the United States in 1890, while only 22,520 emigrated from the British Isles to British America in the same period.

GOV. FOWLE'S FUNERAL.

IT OCCURRED AT RALEIGH THIS AFTERNOON.

Gov. Holt Was Sworn In Yesterday—The Remains Lying in State in the Capitol Yesterday—Floral Tributes.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 9.—(Special.)—At 2 o'clock yesterday Lieutenant Governor Holt arrived from his home in Haw River and was immediately driven to the capitol, where he walked into the executive office, and taking the Bible in the presence of the state and city officials, was sworn in as governor by Chief Justice Merimon. He then took a view of the remains of Gov. Fowle as they lay in state in the capitol rotunda.

Mr. Samuel F. Telfair, Gov. Fowle's private secretary, was in Baltimore and telegraphed that he would reach Raleigh last evening.

Adjutant General Glenn arrived at noon yesterday and made preparations to invite the whole state guard to be present at the funeral today.

The governor's remains were placed in a beautiful rosewood casket in the rotunda of the capitol. Heavy drapery was hung from the stately walls and railings above, adding a gloom beyond description. Long folds of mourning were wound around the whole building and it stood a mourning for the statesman's chief. Delicate flowers were chosen from the most select gardens and almost covered the casket and the granite floor. Upon the silver plate that shown from the cover of the casket was inscribed:

DANIEL GOWD FOWLE
BORN MARCH 3, 1831; DIED
APRIL, 1891.

The city was crowded with visitors last night and 10,000 people viewed the remains. State Chronicle.

The funeral occurred this afternoon.

ONE NERVOUS MAN.

He Turns Back Five Hundred Negroes.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 9.—A crowd of 500 negroes attacked the county jail last night with the intention of lynching William McCoy, who brutally murdered his mistress, Nellie McGrunder, last Sunday night by beating her head to jelly with stones.

The negroes gathered quietly about the building and at 12:45 twenty of them, masked and otherwise disguised, broke in the outer door and proceeded to that part of the building which was partitioned off for the jail. Only one guard was on duty there. He drew his revolver and threatened to shoot the first man who approached the door. The committee of twenty withdrew and joined their comrades outside. After some parrying the mob dispersed.

Democrats Have Chicago's Council.

CHICAGO, April 9.—The new city council, as nearly as can be ascertained, will stand as follows: republicans, 24; democrats, 44; independent democrats, 1.

Both republicans and democrats are still clamoring to be victors in the existing election for the majority. It will take the official count to decide. Carter H. Harrison announces his permanent retirement from political life. He says he proposes to leave Chicago for good, and either travel or go on a farm.

Fever on Board.

GLASGOW, April 9.—The Anchor line steamship Cincin, Captain Heiderwick, which left New York March 18, reached Greenock yesterday with fever on board and is detained at quarantine. The nature of the fever is not known.

Gen. Spinola's Condition.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9.—Gen. Spinola's condition this morning is slightly improved over yesterday, though the change is so slight as to be hardly noticeable.
