Buyers of Drugs

Tell us they have lost money by monkeying with Knoxville and Richmond—a treacherous memory and the impertinence of drummers sometimes leads them astray, but they invariably find it pays them to draw their supplies of T. C. Smith & Co., in Asheville, the largest Drug Store in Western North Carolina—a saving of Freight Charges, and quick time in getting goods, are important items, and count up in a year's dealings—making large purchases in the primary markets, enable this House to place Druggists' articles into the hands of consumers and dealers, at prices never before enjoyed west of the Blue Ridge, customers are served by professional experts of large experience, trustworthy and competent—the stock carried by this firm covers two floors of two hundred and forty feet in total length, and fifty two feet of total width—this is the only Drug Store located on the Public Square in Asheville—no trouble to find the place—orders by mail receive prompt and careful attention—refer, if desired, to the Battery Park Bank.

W. N. C. FAIR.

A Meeting to be Held Here Tomorrow Morning.

At the meeting of the Buncombe county alliance held here today, THE CITIZEN is informed by the secretary, a resolution was unanimously passed endorsing a Western North Carolina fair to be held in Asheville this fall and regularly thereafter.

The resolution was as follows:

Resolved, That the Buncombe County farmers' alliance do heartily endorse the holding of an agricultural fair this fall, and will unite with the citizens of the county in our efforts to make the enterprise a success, and the establishment of a permanent fair association for Western North Carolina to be held in Asheville each year.

Resolved, That a committee of the alliance, one member from each township, be appointed to meet in the court house Saturday, April 11, at 10 o'clock, with the citizens of Asheville and this section of the state.

The following committee was appointed: D. A. Blackwell, W. H. Curtis, Mack Jones, T. B. Long, E. D. Weaver, P. H. Folsom, J. N. Morgan, R. G. Gudger, W. H. Reeves, B. J. Alexander, W. S. Murray, J. A. Harris and J. B. Cockram. President, J. W. Nash, vice president J. K. Dulose and Secretary W. F. Tomlinson were added. All members of the order were asked to attend. An organization will doubtless be effected tomorrow.

Every citizen of Asheville, and especially the business men, should be present at this meeting tomorrow to help the farmers, who are taking the lead in this important movement.

The meeting will be opened at the ringing of the bell.

WANTED A LICENSE.

Officer Hampton's Experience With a Would-be Benedict.

Officer Hampton was in the mayor's office Sunday morning polishing his shoes when a very dark youth of perhaps 20, seditiously clothed, came rushing into the office quite out of breath.

"Is you de mayor?" he queried.

Mr. Hampton with his characteristic truthfulness proceeded to inform the dusky youth that he had never aspired to the honor of that high office, and asked him his business.

"Why," he answered, "you see it's like dis. Ise turble in lub wid a mos' charming gal an' she's been treatin' my 'vances in a dilly' style. Jes' now I s'urded her dat my financial predicament was sich dat she could wid little condescension 'gree to become my affianced. She is in dat noble 'pinion at dis moment, an' I wanted to git de mayor to write me a license so dat we might, through I was so relieved dat I am moving about as usual. I believe the tobacco remedy applied to the throat and upper part of the chest will cure cases of grip as it certainly cures all cases of cancer, such as are said to be abundant in the New York hospitals."

ARE AGAINST THE ACT.

THE REPUBLICANS PUT OUT A TICKET TO-DAY.

It is headed by H. T. Collins, is

Against the Improvement Act and Has Democrats on Its List.

Another ticket has been nominated. A number of republicans, among whom were J. A. Wagner, J. A. Conant, P. A. Demens, W. R. West, Jr., met in the Hendry block this afternoon and nominated a ticket, a mixture of democrats and republicans. A few democrats, opposed to the regularly nominated ticket, were present also. Among these, for a part of the time at least, were J. F. Massague, Will Boyd, P. Johnson, and Mr. Davis.

Nothing was done with relation to the advisory committee. The meeting was an adjourned one, several republicans having met last night and after discussion determined to hold this meeting.

"At a meeting of the republicans, held this morning, it was resolved that:

"Whereas, The municipal affairs of the city of Asheville are at present in an unsatisfactory condition;

"Whereas, There is a bill pending before the people for public improvements, which we consider to be unjust and undesirable, and only blocking the way to such constitutional measures as ought to be adopted at once to carry out the necessary improvements;

"Whereas, we believe that the situation is serious enough to require the best forces of all political parties to be brought to the front to give all necessary material for an honest and wise city government in the future; it is

"Resolved, That no straight republican ticket is to be nominated; that we endorse an independent ticket, composed of the following gentlemen: For mayor, H. T. Collins. For aldermen, (for 4 years): T. Conroy Brown, F. A. Hull, T. C. Starnes, for vacancy, W. T. Reynolds;

"It is not known that Mr. Collins will or will not accept the above nomination.

W. T. Reynolds and T. C. Starnes, the democratic nominees and who were also endorsed by the meeting, both say that they are the regular nominees of the democratic party and will support the democratic ticket regardless of anything."

New store, new goods, new styles at E. B. Bartram & Co.'s. Fine clothing, hats, and gent's furnishings.

THE LAST RITES.

The Burial of Gov. Fowle Thursday, at Raleigh.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 10.—All day yesterday trains brought in visitors to attend the funeral of Governor Fowle. As the hour of four approached, an immense crowd assembled at the capitol. The funeral was from the Presbyterian church, the remains being escorted there with great ceremony. After the service at the church a procession was formed with military companies in front and many civic organizations in the cortege. The long procession then moved to Oakwood cemetery, where the last rites were performed. The weather was beautiful.

WHOM ELECTED?

They Can't Tell in Chicago Just Yet.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The official canvass of votes in the late election began this afternoon and it is expected that the work will not be completed inside of a week. Both republicans and democrats continue to claim the election of their respective candidates for mayor, and until the official canvass is finished it will be impossible to declare positively which is correct.

Train Wreckers Caught.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 10.—Two negroes, names unknown, were arrested and jailed at Evergreen, Ala., yesterday, charged with being members of a band of train wreckers who had been operating on the Louisville and Nashville railroad. Others of the gang have been located and will be apprehended.

Oklahoma is Democratic.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., April 10.—The city election Wednesday resulted in the election of the straight democratic ticket.

He Was Acquitted.

ROME, Ga., April 10.—Mrs. Ora McKee has been acquitted on the charge of murdering Mrs. Wimpel.

THE NEWS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Charlotte News has at last renounced this office and has THE CITIZEN'S permission to come again.

Only two governors of this state in recent years have died in office. These were John W. Ellis and James K. Caldwell.

Major Bingham has offered $1,000 reward for the apprehension of the incendiaries who fired the school buildings recently.

We understand that large quantities of copper ore from Blue Wing have been shipped recently to the northern markets, from which many thousand dollars were realized.—Oxford Day.

The Raleigh Chronicle has read a letter from a student at Bingham school saying that there are still sufficient buildings to continue the school work during the remainder of the term.

North Carolina is getting there with both feet. Will Bell, formerly the colored office boy at the Charlotte Chronicle, is now valet to the noted actor, Crane. He is traveling in style.

On last Monday morning at A. Y. Sigmon's mills, in Hickory, Abel Helton, 1073; and son of Clingman on the mountain, had his left leg broken in five places and both arms torn from his body by being caught in some machinery. He died in four hours, conscious to the last.

The only places in the state that petitioned for a prohibition election were Raleigh and Durham. In Raleigh it fell through for the lack of about 300 names of the required number. In Durham the election was not ordered on account of irregularity of the petitions. However, the election will be asked for.—Sun.

Travelers from Boone tell us that the journey across the mountain on Saturday was most disagreeable. The snow was four inches deep between Boone and Blowing Rock and a fierce and cutting blizzard swept southward. Major Bingham, Mr. Wakefield and Mr. Scott came near freezing on their trip.—L. L. Clingman.

THE TOBACCO CURE.

It is an Annihilator of Grip and the Like.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—In your issue of yesterday you state that I was confined by a cold. As this may mislead friends at a distance, I trust you will permit me to say that on Wednesday my cold being worse, I remained in my room and applied a tobacco poultice to my throat. I was so relieved that I am moving about as usual. I believe the tobacco remedy applied to the throat and upper part of the chest will cure cases of grip as it certainly cures all cases of cancer, such as are said to be abundant in the New York hospitals.

T. L. Clingman.

KANSAS BANKS.

They Desire, Very Generally, to Re-Organize.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 10.—The secretary of state has received notice from at least twenty of the national banks throughout the state signifying their intention of de-nationalizing and re-organizing under the new state banking law. It is likely that the greater part of the smaller national banks of the state will pursue the same course. The law referred to was passed by the late legislature and assures every protection that the national banking act gives and relieves the banks of the necessity of such large capitalization. A great number of private banks have also signified a desire to organize under the new law.

BEGINNING OF THE END.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY DISINTEGRATING.

Polled So Few Votes in St. Louis That It Cannot Have Judges and Clerks to Represent It in the Next Election.

ST. LOUIS, April 10.—As a result of Tuesday's election the republican party in St. Louis is now debarred of representation at the polls and will be ignored in the selection of judges and clerks at the next election. Under the new Australian ballot law the party failing to secure one-third of the total vote cast is debarred from all privileges and representation.

In Thursday's election the democrats' municipal independent polled the major vote, the republicans casting only 10,000, a quarter of the total number. Recorder of Votes Carlisle says he will recognize the movement as a distinct political party and accept its nominations in the same manner as those of the other parties if it cares to place a ticket before the voters at the next election. In this case, he says, he will divide judges and clerks equally between the democrats and the independents and throw republicans out of every precinct.

INVESTIGATING GIBSON.

BEFORE THE FEDERAL GRAND JURY AT CHICAGO.

A History of the Case as it Developed Last Thursday—Several Witnesses Examined.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The federal grand jury has begun investigation into the charge against Geo. J. Gibson, of Peoria, secretary of the whiskey trust, of conspiracy to destroy with dynamite, the distillery of H. H. Shufeldt, of this city, which firm had declined to enter the trust.

Gibson was arrested in this city on this charge in February last and the government officials claim to have complete evidence to substantiate it, including the infernal machine, which was to be used and the terms on which he sought to bribe the government. Gauger Dewar, who was stationed at Shufeldt's to do the job. Dewar, it is charged, while professing to listen to Gibson's proposition kept the government informed of the progress of the plot. A bottle of the dangerous explosive liquid for use in an infernal machine, it is alleged, was found in a handbag carried by Gibson at the time of his arrest. He has already been indicted by the Cook county grand jury.

In the investigation by the federal grand jury today several witnesses from Peoria were examined including some of the employees of the whiskey trust. They included: John C. Schneider, Peoria, a tin smith, who, it is alleged, manufactured the infernal machine, and Andrew Bezman, city salesman for Colburn, Berke & Co., of Peoria, who sold Gibson dynamite. O. H. Norton, city electrician, of Peoria; Robert Ashford, colored janitor at the whiskey trust office, and Charles Jaeger, Jr., former private secretary to Gibson.

So
