JOHN CHILDS,

THE NEWS AT RALEIGH.

AN IMPORTANT AND INTERESTING TRIAL.

ELIJAH J. MOORE and the Fayetteville Bank—James H. Harris' Funeral—An eloquent colored man.

RALEIGH, June 3.—[Special.]—The city is largely emptied today—that is a special element is now wanting on the streets—in attendance upon the commencement at Chapel Hill.

There is, however, another element apparent today which fills some vacancies. The Federal court is in session, and many well known lawyers are here from abroad. Among these are ex-judge James C. McKee, ex-speaker George M. Rose, Hon. A. M. Waddell, Mr. Sutton and others. Examiner Tate is also here, and one case in which is officially concerned will most probably come up for trial; this is that of the bank wrecker Elijah J. Moore, of Fayetteville. This man was President of a bank in his town with whose money and credit he played until the town woke up one morning to find itself half ruined; an unusual experience—not in ruin, for Fayetteville had become accustomed to calamity—but in the experience of dishonor, which it had never known. The wreck caused by Moore was thorough, and involved the property of confiding women, some of them relatives of his wife, one of whom became insane from her losses, and the whole system was carried through with a heartless recklessness that deprives the perpetrator of all sympathy. Five years in the U. S. penitentiary, if conviction follows; and the wish for that result I think is universal and heartfelt.

Yesterday the funeral of James H. Harris, the noted negro politician, took place here, and was said to be an uncommonly large one. Harris had lived here since the war, had been an active politician, was several times member of the state house of representatives, and was a candidate for congress from this district, but was said to have yielded to the blandishments of a heavy pecuniary consideration to make way for an ambitious speaker, and could hold his own very well in debate. He had a position under the Harrison administration, in Washington City, where he died suddenly on Monday of heart disease.

I saw another prominent negro today, the Rev. J. C. Price, an able man, of more elevated character, and much more useful in his field of action. He has long been known as an eloquent speaker in the cause of prohibition, really not relatively eloquent, because no speaker of surprise that a negro can speak so well can lessen the impression that his vigorous and elegant language, his strong reasoning powers and his fine elocution make upon every audience. He has especially undertaken the improvement of his race through practical education. He has traveled this country and England all over in behalf of his purpose to provide good schools for them; and the three fine brick buildings on the western edge of Salisbury is proof of his success. He left today to travel through the south in the interest of the negro department of the southern exposition.

Bucombe, an unusual did well when called upon to make her contribution to the exposition. She gave one thousand dollars. I find that Mecklenburg did the same. Wake gave $2,000, and so far as heard from about $25,000 have been voted for by the joint boards of commissioners and magistrates.

Yesterday the little abandoned infant of which the Raleigh papers have said so much, died, aged about two months. It had fallen into kind hands, and a childless wife had found in the poor little something to fill the void which void. Exaggeration will attach everywhere to the cowardly father and the unnatural mother who abandoned, with less of the tenderness of the wild beast, the helpless offspring left to live or perish as accident might decide in the solitude of a remote spot. Such cases develop no conscience, else we might invoke and await the tortures of its stings.

Yesterday on the afternoon train on which I was a passenger, information was given that a car load of cotton was on just about the track. Consequently our train was brought to a standstill with the prospect of waiting till the car and cotton were consumed, the track destroyed and then rebuilt before trains could pass. But Capt. Murphy and the engineers were the men to stand idly by and see a slow fire go on deliberately with its work. Though it was fearfully hot work, a chain was in some way passed around a burning bumper, a rope made fast to that and the other to our engine, which then backed down far west of the track, drawing the burning wreck on the side track out of the way of doing further mischief, and then with windows all closed, we shot by, after about half an hour's delay. Even in the short interval in passing, the heat was intense, the frame of the car being all aglow, and all the cotton, except two bales, which had been thrown out, in a blaze. The origin of the fire was characteristic. The car had been run up on the main track to be unloaded into the depot. Among the negro hands at work unloading the cotton, was one smoking a pipe, a spark fell upon a loose lock of cotton, and then the fire.

A SECRET VET.

Negotiating Another Agreement For Reciprocal Trade.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—Gen. John W. Foster, who conducted the negotiations between this country and Spain for reciprocal relations, is in almost daily consultation with the president and the officials of the state department in regard to the publication of the proclamation that is to announce the terms upon which the Spanish-American agreement is based. He declined this morning to indicate whether or not this document would be issued very soon, but it is generally thought that in the absence of Secretary Blaine, which is expected to last through the summer, the president will proceed in the matter, and that the proclamation will be issued by the first of July.

Mr. Foster is now attempting to negotiate an agreement for reciprocal trade with another country, the name of which is kept secret.

Died and Left no Sign.

LONGHORN, Ontario, June 4.—Narcisse Larocque, who last October brutally murdered two little girls named McGorrie, was hanged here at 8:05 o'clock this morning. He died without a word.

A LINGERING DEATH.

OTTAWA, June 4.—Sir John Macdonald passed a better night without any change to record.

BLACK AND WHITE.

Almost a Riot Near Ottumwa, Iowa, at Coal Mines.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, June 4.—There was intense excitement at Mystic Tuesday night. The striking miners had a meeting lasting nearly all night for the purpose of driving the negroes away. For a while a riot seemed imminent. Citizens with the sheriff and deputies interfered and the angry miners were pacified with the exception of a few hot-headed ones who undertook to drive the blacks away. They were promptly met by the latter and several shots exchanged without fatal effect.

THE ITATA GIVEN UP.

DELIVERED TO THE AMERICAN WAR SHIP.

Where Has She Been all This Time?—The Charleston Evidently Was Not "In It."

IGUEL, Chili, (via Galveston) June 4.—The steamship Itata arrived here this morning from Tocopilla and has been delivered over to the American war ships now here.

The Charleston is expected to arrive here today from Arica.

The Itata has handed over to the American war ships, to which she surrendered, all the arms she took on board at San Diego. These consist of 5,000 rifles.

ROASTED FLESH.

An Absorber of Electricity in Connecticut.

ANSONIA, Conn., June 4.—John Kelly, an employee of the Ansonia and Birmingham electric street railway company, was repairing the power wire in the yard of the company here yesterday. He had both hands on the wire and his head came in contact with the iron sheathing of the car shed. Five hundred volts went through his body. He stiffened out, began frothing at the mouth, and the smell of roasted flesh was discernible. Foreman Kennedy, who was with him, pulled him away and he was lowered to the ground. In five minutes he sat up and asked of the crowd about him what was the matter. Kelly's ear is burned a little where it touched the iron sheathing, and his hands have black marks on them. Otherwise he is all right.

A NEW IRISH PARTY.

It May Be Formed With John Dillon as Leader.

DUBLIN, June 4.—In an interview on Irish affairs today the most Rev. Thomas W. Croke, D. D., archbishop of Cassel and Emly, declared that the Irish members of the house of commons were desirous of settling the trouble existing in the National party by forming a union of factions and selecting Mr. John Dillon, as their leader. The archbishop said that Mr. William O'Brien supported Mr. Justin McCarthy as the leader of the party.

CARRIES GAMBLING TOOLS.

A Part of the Prince of Wales' Regular Equipment.

LONDON, June 4.—In the Gordon Cumming during Wilson's cross-examination today it was elicited that the counters used at the baccarat games at Tranby Croft were the property of the Prince of Wales and were a set carried about by him when visiting the country to play baccarat.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT.

Prof. Geo. I. Winston Unanimously Elected to that Office.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 4.—[Special.]—Prof. Geo. I. Winston was unanimously elected president of the state university.

An Appeal to Caesar.

LONDON, June 4.—It is reported that the czar, in responding to a personal appeal made by an exalted personage on behalf of the Jews in Russia, said he was determined to continue his measures of Jewish repression with a view to a solution of the Jewish question. The Jews themselves declared the czar had forced this policy. There had never been a nihilist plot hatched in which they were not concerned, he said.

Kill the Car Dogs.

DANBURY, Conn., June 4.—A cow belonging to Lewis H. Bigelow, a Ridgefield farmer, was bitten by a dog about a month ago. The dog showed no signs of rabies, but was shot. Last week the cow began to act strangely, and a veterinary surgeon said it had hydrophobia of the most violent type. The cow continually made a peculiar noise, as if trying to bark. It died in horrible agony.

A Hardened Criminal.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Joseph Shanahan, who has spent twenty of his thirty-seven years of life behind prison bars, was sentenced to state prison for sixteen years by Judge Cowing in the court of general sessions yesterday for robbing a woman of a satchel containing $500, last April.

A Curious Case.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 4.—Mrs. Lizzie Brent, whose thigh bones were broken by muscular contraction at her home in Farm, Ky., last December, is dead. Her sufferings have been so intense that opiates have had little effect.

Electricity Will Kill Him.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The Japanese murderer Jugiro was sentenced by Judge Van Brunt today to be electrocuted in the week beginning July 6, the same week fixed for the execution of the other three murderers.

Assets Greater than Liabilities.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 4.—The wholesale dry goods and shoe firm of the Connell Hall McLeaster company of this city made an assignment this morning. Liabilities $473,000; assets estimated at $725,000.

A LINGERING DEATH.

OTTAWA, June 4.—Sir John Macdonald passed a better night without any change to record.

AS LARGE AS GOOSE EGGS.

A HAIL STORM DOES GREAT DAMAGE.

Windows Broken, Fruit Killed, Warehouse and Church Roofs Blown Off—New City Hall Badly Damaged.

TIPPIN, Ohio, June 4.—The most disastrous hail storm that ever occurred in this section passed over Clyde, seventeen miles northeast of here, yesterday. Many of the hail stones were as large as goose eggs. Many windows were broken, trees blown down, telegraph poles broken and wires torn away. Great damage was done to fruit and vegetables.

LAUREL, Ind., June 4.—A terrific hurricane and hail storm struck this place last evening. Reports are coming in showing great damage throughout this section. There is hardly a merchant in this city whose stock is not damaged. The roof of King and Fildes company's woolen warehouse was blown off and $40,000 worth of flannels soaked. The Quaker church was unroofed, the new city hall badly damaged, and several store fronts blown in.

ST. LOUIS, June 4.—Much damage was caused to wires by a storm yesterday. Telephone poles were blown down and blocked traffic. Travel on several electric lines was delayed for two hours. Many shade trees were destroyed.

To the Wilson Mirrors.

From the Chattanooga Times.
The editorial staff of this column still keeps its place in a few esteemed contemporaries. If it served any object of use, such as the promotion of good feeling in the fraternity, there would be no objection to it; but its sole purpose seems to be that of a sort of clearing house of insinuation and disgusting personal and objective flattery, that usually has no reason except that the flattered has flattered the flatterer. The whole thing is discreditable, undignified, unjournalistic, sickening.
