full Account of the Visit of the North Carolinians to the White

WASHINGTON, June 11 .- About seventy persons representing all the southern states comprised the committee that waited on the president yesterday and nvited him to attend the exposition to ocheld at Raleigh, N. C., in October and November. The party was headed by Scnator Ransom, of North Carolina, and Mr. Patrick Walsh, of Augusta, Ga., and included Mayor Badger, of Raleigh, Col. A. B. Anderson, of Richmond, Maj. R. S. lucker, Col. Burgerne and representalives of nearly all the leading southern ities. Gov. Holt, of North Carolina, inended to be with the party, but was not able to come.

The president received them in th abinet room. Senator Ransom made an eloquent address inviting the presi dent to Raleigh, and assured him of warm and hospitable welcome. The president in reply thanked them for the ordiality and impressiveness of their invitation and said it was very gratifying to him to feel that they had come so far for such a purpose. Their invitation called for serious consideration on his part, but he could not now tell what he would be able to do at the time of the exposition. He said he knew he would be received with kindness as he had re-cently had very conclusive evidence on that point. He regretted that it was not his privilege to pass through North Carolina on his recent trip. He con-

"No; I cannot promise at this time. In deed, I am very chary about promises; public men have been severely criticised for making promises they could not per-form, and I have made it a strict rule not to make promises. There is too much doubt about the future state of the public business for me to anticipate what I may be able to do. You will bear in mind that October and November are apt to be busy times with the president in connecion with the assembling of congress, and n the discharge of my constitutional duty I must try to enlighten congress as to the affairs of the country. So you see, it will not be very easy for me to tway in the fall. I am in full sympathy with every movement for the display of our magnificent development and mate ial prosperity in the arts and sciences. will bear your invitation in mind and will try to arrange my affairs so as to accept it."

Strikers Go Too Far and the Sword Is Drawn on Them. BREMEN, June 11.—Serious rioting occurred here today upon the part of the firemen of the North German Lloyd firemen of the North German Lloyd Steamship company on strike at this place. The rioters were eventually attacked by the police with drawn swore and a desperate struggle took place. Finally the fire brigade was summor to the assistance of the police and, thus reinforced, the officers of the law managed to restore order, though the strikers stubbornly resisted the combined on-slaught of both the police and the fire ericksburg, Va. FREDERICKSBURG, Va., June 11.-The own was profusely decorated yesterday with bunting and Confederate and national flags in honor of Memorial day and the unveiling of the Confederate statue. Thousands of visitors were in attendance, including a number of Conederate camps with their drum corps. The services at the cemetery were pened with prayer by the Rev. W. F.

then General Bradley T. Johnson, of Baltimore, orator of the day, delivered the unveiling address. The monument was creeted by the Ladies' Memorial Assembly. It is of gray granite and stands on a mound of earth live feet and six inches high. There is a of native North Carolina pine, paneled with natural curled pine was then given the President. Within is framed the invitation to come to Raleigh printed on a large tobacco leaf of far-famed North Carolina golden leaf. On the leaf, 12 by the following inscriptions:

The English Newspapers Are Not Intimidated by Royalty, It Ap pears A Religious Weekly's Comment.

LONDON, June 11.-The outspoken ewspaper press comments upon the part he Prince of Wales played in the bacenat scandal continue to be the sensation of the day in England. A newspaper reporter who was near the Prince o Wales at Ascot today when the race for the gold cup was won by Lord Hartington's Marion, telegraphs that the Prince of Wales, who witnessed the event, was in a very sulky frame of mind, caused, it would appear, by the storm of adverse newspaper criticisms which has swept and is still sweeping, over the heir ap

The British Weekly re marks: "The revelations are enough sober up the strongest supporters o nonarchy.'

The News says: "Cumming's signing of the paper was damning. The public disappointment is due not to dissatisfac ion, but to the inadequateness of the verdict to meet the varied aspects of the scandal. The Prince of Wales failed in the middle course he adopted, but it has yet to be proved that his attempt was more than a grave indiscretion. The pity of it all is not there, but in the presence of the heir to the throne at the head of the bac-carat table.
