A Mississippi farmer, a member of the alliance in that State, has been making lenty some calculations, without the fear of the e na- Ocala platform before his eyes, as to the de in effect which the sub-treasury plan would , the have on the marketing of the cotton crop, work He holds, as we think very correctly. bably that under this bill the speculators would be able to control the cotton market and to squeeze the very life out of the cotton who planter. It would be in the power of a speculator having $100,000 in cash to buy and hold $500,000 worth of cotton under the government warehouse scheme simply by reinvesting his 80 per cent advances, and in this way it would require only $60,000,000 of active capital to control the entire cotton crop, which the Mississippi farmer roughly estimates to be worth $300,000,000. Of course the land transfer way and decised Tiuman Source Asserts freehitth Cass for the purpose of placing the cotton strac-planter at the mercy of the cotton speculator, but such will be the result if the promoters of the scheme carry out there hased

H advertising does n't pay, why is it that the most successful merchants of every town, large and small are the heaviest advertisers? If it does n,t pay to advertise. why do the heaviest business firms in the world spend millions in that way? Is it because they do not know as much about business as the six for a dollar "storekeeper" in a country town, who says money spent in advertising is thrown away?

DO YOU

WANT A WATCH?

Or Would You Prefer

-:-HANDSOME-:-PIN ?

THE DAILY CITIZEN has bought, and they may be seen in the show window of A. M. Field, on South Main street, A SOLID GOLD LADIES' WATCH AND CHAIN. The case is 14 karats, handsomely carved, with Elgin movement. The chain is gold, beautifully corated with fine hard enamel.

Also, a BEAUTIFUL LADIES' STICK PIN, made upon special order. The Pin is what is known as the Clover Leaf design, and consists of four handson stones-one Aquamarine, one Amethyst, one Topaz and one Diamond, set in solid gold, beautifully ornamented and engraved

This Watch and Pin are to be given to the two ladies in Asheville who will show that they descree them.

The Watch will be given to the lady ecuring the largest number of subscribers to THE DAILY CITIZEN between this

The Pin will be given to the lady getting the next largest number. A subscriber will be the name of any erson in Asheville not now a subscriber to THE CITIZEN, accompanied by $1.00. A name accompanied by $2.00 will count two, and a name accompanied by $3.00 will count three. And to all $3.00 sub scribers THE CITIZEN will make, in addi tion, a present of one of those splendid birdseye views of Ashevilie.

Ladies, this is your opportunity. Any gentleman can get subscribers, but they must be counted for some lady. Look at the splendid Watch and Pin and see what a handsome and costly present either of them will make for your wife or young lady friend. They are unusually costly and beauti ful, and there is not a lady in Asheville but would be delighted with either for

They will cost you nothing, except little effort during odd moments when doing nothing else.

THE DAILY CITIZEN is the people's pa per, and this unprecedented indocement is offered in order that many more peoole may read it each day. There are at least 1,500 men in Asheville who do not now subscribe for THE CITIZEN, who are amply able to do so, and THE CITIZEN knows no easier way to secure them than by colisting the efforts of the ladies in its behalf,

All names will be carefully entered in a book kept for the purpose, and the lady sending in the greatest number of names, accompanied by the money, as indicated, before December, will get the Watch on December 1st, and the one getting the next largest will get the Pin.
