

ASHEVILLE DAILY CITIZEN. BY RANDOLPH-KERR PRINTING CO.

THE TATTLE.

Some Things He Sees and Hears Worth Talking About.

In the beginning of this installment of the Tattle, I would like to mention to you...

I saw a copy of Asheville Life the other day—that new illustrated weekly...

The editor of Asheville Life, however, falls into an error in stating that Asheville's city fathers made history...

My big heart thumped against my ribs with mainly pride the other day when I came up town and saw the improvements...

That account Thursday in THE CITIZEN about the death of a rich old fellow near Concord interested me mightily...

The leading political news papers every where are the same papers and they are always right and rightly...

Why don't Asheville's young men take deeper interest in the Light Infantry? is a question I often have asked me.

Did you all read THE CITIZEN through last Tuesday? I hope you did, for then you can appreciate the difficulties I have been laboring under in getting up this installment of Tattle, "Justice" (Lord help us if this is a sample) put the bandage over her eyes...

"Tattle lacks a little of being square," says "Justice." Well, where's the difference? It's nobody's business whether I'm square or round...

Judge Henry A. Gilman, one of the most respected citizens of Tabor, passed away Thursday. He had been very feeble for a long time, and his mental faculties had become much impaired.

Kidney ailments of years' standing, cured by Simmons Liver Regulator—W. Poynter.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Let us Have Clean Streets Sunday.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN:—I was worried very much yesterday until about half past one o'clock, when the sprinkler made its appearance on the streets.

Asheville Must Do Her Duty.

WEAVERVILLE, July 10, 1891.

EDITOR THE CITIZEN: It is gratifying, indeed, to the people of the sections interested in the proposed Railroad scheme...

Should the people support this measure with their votes, as no doubt they will, it will ever stand as a monument to the progress and advancement of our western country.

For horse-colic Simmons Liver Regulator is known to be the best remedy.
