EVER CHANGING.

OUR STOCK OF

CROCERIES

IS LIKE A RUNNING STREAM.

Hundreds Take From It,

Yet it is never diminished.

This, of course, is because there is a never failing spring of supply that feeds the stream. Stagnant streams stagnate, and so do sluggish groceries. They become musty, sour and unfit for use. The movement here is quick; new things come and go. We use modern methods and buy what we can sell before getting stale and profit ourselves in having a fresh stock to select from at all times.

STARTLING FACTS.

When the adulteration of Food Products becomes so general that it is necessary in larger cities to organize associations for the protection of manufacturers and dealers, it is high time the consumer consider well the importance of dealing with reliable houses.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

The way to make money is to save it. And the way to save it is to have your prescriptions filled at Carmichael's drug store, and you will find by doing so you will save from 25 to 30 per cent. on every prescription. We do not take goods that the people know the price and mark down to cost, and then charge two prices for a prescription to make up the loss. You know clerk hire and house rent must be paid and the profits must be averaged some way. A hint to the wise is sufficient. A full line of De-Vault Flavoring Extracts in stock. Mr. J. Taylor Amiss and Mr. Chas. W. Devault are with me and will be pleased to meet their friends and customers. Don't forget the place. Carmichael's drug-store, No. 20 South Main street, Asheville, N. C.

RAILROAD MASS MEETING.

A SPLENDID MEETING IN THE COURT HOUSE TO-DAY.

Ringling Speeches From Gen. R. B. Vance, J. M. Campbell, State Auditor Sanderlin, Colonel Long and Captain Atkinson.

There was a splendid meeting in the court house to-day to hear the railroad question discussed, and it really looked as if the people had determined to carry the proposition on Monday.

Capt. James Smith was made chairman, and Capt. Matt Atkinson made a rousing speech as a leader. Capt. Atkinson is clearly in dead earnest in the matter, and gave every reason why the people should vote for the measure without any fear of the township's having to pay one cent of principal or interest. In the first place, the townships have a first mortgage on the road to secure both principal and interest. Secondly, they will have the pledge of $100,000 solvent stockholders that the interest will be paid annually. Thirdly, they will own two-thirds of the stock, and the road can never be turned over to any corporation without the consent of the townships.

Gen. R. B. Vance was the next speaker, and his talk was intended to arouse the voters to a sense of the importance of their going to the polls and voting. He spoke of the untold and incalculable advantages which accrue to any people by reason of railroads, and especially competing lines. Gen. Vance referred to the Asheville and the Western North Carolina and the Western North Carolina of his boyhood days, and the Asheville and the Western North Carolina of today, and declared that it was the railroads which, more than any other agency, brought it about. He declared that any man who favored the progress of his state was a patriot.

Gen. Vance's speech was loudly applauded throughout.

J. M. Campbell made a stirring talk, which was well received.

R. M. Furman called the attention of the audience to the presence of State Auditor W. Sanderlin in the room, and calls being made, Mr. Sanderlin delivered a short talk in which he declared that for many years Western North Carolina would be the hub of the industrial activities of the country, and Asheville would be the center of the hub.

Col. T. H. Long closed the speeches, and the large crowd proceeded to enjoy the hundreds of fine watermelons prepared for them by the committee.

It was a good meeting and everything passed off pleasantly, and the railroad appropriation was unquestionably given a great boost.

RAILROAD MEN GET INTO TROUBLE WITH OFFICER LEONARD.

Late yesterday afternoon Officer C. B. Leonard, of the Asheville police force, who lives near Ray's stable, on South Main street, was in his house, and his attention was called to a couple of men who were violating section 641 of the city ordinance on Sycamore street, just in the rear of Mr. Leonard's residence and in view of persons who might pass.

The officer went down to arrest them. The men, whose names were Sam Newland and John Deprato, employees of the Western North Carolina railroad company, resisted, and Newland threw Leonard and picked up a brick being heated in the boiler. Seeing that his life was in danger the officer as soon as he could get his hand free pulled his pistol and fired one at Newland but did not hit him.

Other parties ran up and the two men were arrested and taken to the jail and locked up. About 9 o'clock ball was offered for the prisoners, but Chief McDowell decided not to accept it, as Leonard's wounds were considered serious. Newland and Deprato were left in jail until this morning, when they had a hearing before Recorder Miller on two charges, one for committing a nuisance and the other for resisting and assaulting the officer. W. W. Jones, esq., represented the defendants and City Attorney Cobb directed the prosecution.

The men were fined $5 each on the first charge, and bail in the second case was placed at $200 each for their appearance at the next term of the criminal court. They appealed from the decision in the first case, and furnished the bond required and were discharged.

Officer Leonard received two or three wounds on the head, but his face is bruised in several places, but his injuries are not considered serious.

Mrs. Bateham, of Asheville, Opens the Convention at Durham.

On Wednesday, at the beginning of the sessions of the state convention of the W. C. T. U., the large auditorium of Trinity church, at Durham, was filled, and following the opening exercises by Mrs. Bateham, of Asheville, was the address of the convention by J. H. Southgate, given in behalf of the city and churches, and by Mrs. W. W. Shaw, of the local union. The response was by Mrs. Kinney, president of the union at Hickory.

Mrs. T. K. Barney, the world's superintendent of prison and jail work, made a most impressive address, relating among other things that from her experience in North Carolina 85 per cent. of the inmates of prisons were there from drink.

Mrs. Bateham paid a fine tribute to Miss Anna Woodfin, superintendent of the flower mission department of North Carolina. Miss Woodfin has been an invalid for twenty-five years.

JOINT BOARD.

Meeting To-day to Consider the Bids Opened Wednesday.

The joint board of aldermen and advisors met this morning at 11 o'clock in the rooms of the Commercial club, over the Western Carolina bank.

The meeting was held for the purpose of considering further the bids for street paving, curbing, etc., which were opened last Wednesday, and also to have the advice of Consulting Engineer Cutshaw, who arrived here from Richmond this morning.

Some time was spent in examining the samples of brick and granite submitted by the various bidders. The board then adjourned until 4 o'clock this afternoon, at which time it again took up the consideration of the samples and bids. The contract will be awarded by the board of aldermen at a special meeting.

MURPHY'S BARBECUE.

Asheville's New Neighbor will Celebrate in Fine Style.

The people of Murphy, in Cherokee county, propose to show their joy over the completion of the Murphy branch of the Western North Carolina railroad to that place, by giving a mammoth barbecue, which is to take place on next Thursday, the 23rd of July.

Excursion trains are to be run over the railroads, and several distinguished speakers will address the people. The Cherokee Indian brass band will furnish music on that occasion.

In addition to the barbecue the laying of the corner stone of Cherokee's new court house will take place that day, with appropriate ceremonies. It is intended to make that occasion a red letter day in the history of Murphy and all at Cherokee county, and the good people there will not do things by halves.

The committee of arrangements made up of the following gentlemen and the presence of the committee is a guarantee that everything will be most pleasant and enjoyable: A. W. Asley, chairman; J. S. Meroney, sr.; A. A. Campbell, C. A. Hall, T. C. Dickey, M. W. Bell, J. J. Moore, and Leslie E. Campbell.

Asheville should send out a good delegation, and show the good neighbors that the completion of the road is appreciated at this end of the line.

The Richmond and Danville railroad company will sell reduced rate tickets to all who wish to go out. The fare for the round trip from Asheville to Murphy has been fixed at $3.

These tickets will be on sale from July 21 to July 23 inclusive, and will be good returning until the 28th. Any information in regard to the schedule, etc., will be cheerfully given by Col. Platt D. Cowan, city ticket agent.

REV. L. H. BALDWIN.

The New Pastor of Southside Chapel Arrives.

Rev. L. H. Baldwin arrived this morning, accompanied by Mrs. Baldwin, Miss Baldwin and Master Baldwin. They are at Mrs. Stockton's, on Flint street for the present, but next week they will move into Mr. S. H. Edwards' house on South Main street for the summer.

Mr. Baldwin begins his duties at the Southside chapel tomorrow. The Suffolk (Va.) Herald under the caption "A loss to Suffolk" says:

"Rev. L. H. Baldwin, who has served the Presbyterian congregation faithfully and zealously the past two years, has decided, after mature deliberation and prayerful consideration, to accept the call to a church in Asheville, N. C., and accordingly he and his household took their departure to that beautiful land of the sky on Wednesday, going thither by way of Richmond. Mr. Baldwin and his excellent family have endeavored themselves to many of our people, irrevocable of denominational ties, and his departure is regretted by not a few. To him and his interesting family the Herald extends its best wishes for their future happiness and usefulness in that portion of the Master's vineyard, and may many long and prosperous years attend each and every one of the family."

LONDON BANK SUSPENDS.

OVERLOADED WITH ARGENTINE SECURITIES.

They are So Locked Up That It Is Impossible to Realize On Them—The Bank Will Go into Liquidation.

LONDON, July 18.—The English bank of the River Plate, of which A. E. Smithers is managing director, has suspended payment in consequence of the failure of the bank to secure assistance that was expected to be received to enable it to tide over its troubles.

The difficulties of the bank are due to the locking up of South American securities. The capital of the bank is $7,500,000, half paid in. It has received $2,100,000 and has paid dividends of 3 per cent. per year.

The directors of the bank have issued an official statement announcing that the bank will go into liquidation owing to the impossibility of collecting its debts in the Argentine Republic.

The directors say that they find it impossible to carry on their business without the assistance, which, in present financial conditions prevailing in Argentine, they are unable to obtain.

TERRIBLE DEATH.

A Section Master Loses His Life For an Old Blind Mule.

The Tennessee train bound for Asheville yesterday afternoon killed Station Master Swatzell near Paint Rock, on the Tennessee side.

Mr. Swatzell was on the road with his force of hands, and heard the approaching train. At the same time he noticed an old blind mule on the track, and started to drive it off.

Before he could do this and get out of harm's way, the train was upon him. The engineer did not see the man until too late to stop the train, and the beam of the pilot struck him in the back of the head, crushing his skull and bespattering the pilot with his brains and blood, and breaking his leg. Death was instantaneous.

Swatzell had held the position of section master for a long time, and was regarded by all as a man of excellent character. He was about 38 years old.

KILLED ELEVEN MEN.

A Train Rollover on an Embankment of a Canal.

LIVERPOOL, July 18.—A train passing along a railroad running with the line of the Manchester ship canal fell over the latter's embankment near this city, killing eleven men who were working under the heading. In addition to the men killed many workmen were injured.

HANGED HIM IN JAIL.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 18.—This morning fifty unknown men entered the jail at Spencer, Ind., and lynched Frank Dux, awaiting trial for murder. They hanged him to the cell door.
