EVER CHANGING.

OUR STOCK OF

GROCERIES

IS LIKE A RUNNING STREAM.

Hundreds Take From It,

Yet it is never diminished.

This course, is because there is a never failing spring of supply that feeds the stream. Sluggish streams stagnate, so do sluggish groceries. They become musty, sour and stale and unfit for use. The movement here is quick; new things coming and going. We use modern methods and buy what we can sell before getting stale and pride ourselves in having a fresh stock to select from at all times.

STARTLING FACTS.

When the adulteration of Food Products becomes so general that it is necessary in larger cities to organize associations for the protection of manufacturers and dealers, it is high time the consumer consider well the importance of dealing with reliable houses.

POWELL & SNIDER

Have met with unusual success in their endeavor to establish and maintain a high standard of wholesomeness and purity in the QUALITY of the goods they sell.

Our large and ever increasing trade is, we think, evidence sufficient to convince all "Doubting Thomases" that we are selling goods at a very low and reasonable rate. Respectfully,

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

The way to make money is to save it. And the way to save it is to have your prescriptions filled at Carmichael's drug store, and you will find by doing so you will save from 25 to 30 per cent. on every prescription. We do not take goods that the people know the price and then charge two prices for a prescription to make up the loss. You know clerk hire and house rent must be paid and the profits must be averaged some way. A hint to the wise is sufficient. A full line of De-Vault Flavoring Extracts in stock. Mr. J. Taylor Amis and Mr. Chas. W. Devault are with me and will be pleased to meet their friends and customers. Don't forget the place. Carmichael's drug store, No. 20 South Main street, Asheville, N. C.

PROBLEM OF THE SOUTH.

HOW IS THE RACE QUESTION TO BE SOLVED?

T. Thomas Fortune's Lecture Last Night—A Most Sensible Talk by One of the Foremost Colored Men of the Country.

T. Thomas Fortune, editor of The Age, New York, and president of the Afro-American league of the United States, lectured at the court house last night upon "How shall the south solve its race problem?"

The house was well filled, the greater portion of those present being colored, and the exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. C. B. Perry, of Hoffman Theological seminary, Nashville, Tenn. Rev. H. S. McMiller, of Trinity chapel, colored, and Chas. E. Lane, were on the stand, the latter introducing the speaker.

Mr. Thomas is a tall, thin mulatto man, not striking in appearance, and speaks slowly and thoughtfully, with only a slight elevation of the voice, and impresses his audience with the fact that he has thought seriously upon the subject upon which he proposes to talk.

The speaker began by saying that there is no negro problem. It is a race problem, in which the whites and blacks are mutually interested. Every country has its race problem, said the speaker, Germany and Russia are now dealing with the Hebrew problem, and for more than a hundred years England has been dealing with the Irish question. In this country the Indian question was the first of the race problems. In some sections now it is the Irish, in others the Chinese, and only quite recently had arisen a small Italian question. The colored people are not responsible for the race problem in the south. It was their white brother who brought them here. Had it been left to the negro, he would probably have preferred to remain on the continent of Africa. But he was here, and he was here to stay. His part in developing the south was such that he had in right to stay here. The cotton, corn, mill, mine and all the industries were largely creatures of the black man's labor.

How to solve this race question is the question. One great help, the speaker thought, was education, but much of the education of the past, the speaker thought, had been defective. What was needed more than anything else was industrial education. Learn the boys how to use their hands as well as their heads. Learn them to work. If one or more large industrial schools could be started in the south, it would be doing the right thing. He did not like a
