A QUESTION SETTLED IN THE COURTS.

Point of Interest the United States Over, to All Church People and Especially to Church Se-

LEBANON, Ind., July 25.-An important suit which involves the rights of a large number of churches in the United Killen dies. States has just been decided in the Box ton circuit court by Judge Hill.

The Mount Tabor Baptist church, si miles south of Lebanon, which was or ganized in 1835, was known as a regu lar Baptist church and conformed to the views of that organization. Two or three years ago part of the congregation departed from the original articles of faith adopted, and decided to become more liberal in their mode and teachings

This move was bitterly opposed by other persons in the church who, how ever, were greatly in the minority. The not agree with the new order of things The minority, however, was recognized by the Danville association to be the reg-ular Baptist church. The other faction refused to submit to the decision of the association, and being in possession of he church property, defied the church au-
