DIVISION PROBABLE IN THE G. A. R. RANKS.

If This Question is Not Squarely Met and Shrewdly Settled, Look to See it Come Into the Next National Campaign.

DETROIT, Mich., August 4 .- As indicated in the dispatches yesterday from we have the company of a friend of my Chicago, there is one serious dispute boyhood-Zeb Vance, of North Carolina. which threatens to mar the serenity of He and I parted at Washington College the present camp of the G. A. R. It is forty-five years ago. With no introducstrange that after the organization has been in existence a quarter of a century t should be threatened with disruption by the ever-living "co red question," but such is the fact. Men in the southern states who were union men in '61' are the ones who now insist that the negro has no place in a social gathering of the Grand Army of the Republic. Col. George F. Hedges, commander of the department of Louisana and Mississippi is here together with several trusty aids, who have come prepared to fight the matter out. "Unless this thing is straightened out during this encampment," he said today, "there won't be a white member of the G. A. R. south of the Ohio. The colored men are out-numbering us in our southern posts, thus putting us directly under them. That we will not stand. Now we want to rule ourselves and have the colored people go by themselves. Seven out of ten of the colored posts are in favor of it, but, as you know, there are always some kickers.

"I understand a delegation from the colored posts are coming to fight us. We have received information that two of Chicago's most influential colored men are on the way to assist us, and we think we shall gain our point. All we ask for is a division of the white and colored members of the G. A. R. in the departments of Florida, Lousiana, Missis-iopi and Texas." A dozen or more southern white men expressed themselves in a similar strain. Colonel James Lewis (colored) administrator of the police and administrator of the public works of New Orleans, is champion of the colored men's side in this matter. When asked what the trouble in Louisiana was, he said:

"Did you ever know the time when there was not trouble in Louisiana. It was a Louisiana man that fired the firs gun on Sumpter. It was a Louisiana man that beat Gen. Beauregard for administrator of public works, and I am ministrator of public works, and I am that man, and I did something the unior generals did not do. The first colored regiment was raised in Louisiann. Louisiana was the first state to to decide for Hayes. The Italian riot was in Louisans, and now the colored trouble is sprung there. Louisana is al-ways in trouble. There were 24,800 colored men enacted in the army from Louisana, more than from all other states together. We were regularly en-listed, we fought as history tells you and then we were honorably discharged. With these things to our credit, we had all the rights of any man to form a G. A. R. post. We did this and we were recognized by Gen. Alger when a fight was made We have nine posts, with a membership of over 1,000; yet we are not recognized by the commander of our de-partment. We get no representation in port to the commander-in-chief. We have periodical attacks of violent insanity, to prepared a strong case in the matter, and all I ask is twenty-five minutes in which to present it to the committee or the con-vention itself. The department commander thinks we want social recogni-tion. I claim the order is not a social

MARY ANN'S TALE OF WOE. Former Frequenter of Cripple Creek in Greenville, S. C.

The Greenville, S. C., News of Saturday ontains an item noting the arrival of a young woman named Mary Ann Mitchil. The tale she told was sad.

It was in effect that she had been sent way from Asheville while ill by the au-You Can Have It thorities, who, in order to induce her to leave, told her they would pay for her ticket to Greenville, where she would be cared for by her aunt. She knew of no relatives in that city. The News further

"Sending her to this city seems to have been a deliberate plan of the Asheville authorities to get rid of maintaining her until she becomes well enough to take care of herself."

Chief of Police McDowell gave to THE CITIZEN today some information on the subject. The Mitchell woman had for some time been a resident of Cripple Creek, and has been before Recorder Miller several times for drunkenness and

One day last week the chief was in formed that the woman was ill down at the freight depot. Officer Hunter and City Physician Jordan were sent down and Dr. Jordan reported that she was He administered some medicine and the bottle was found there after That was the last Chief McDowell had

A Late Convention. WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.-There is talk among leading democrats here in favor of having a late national convention this year. It is customary for the part in power to hold its convention first, and next year will be no exception to the rule, as the republican convention will, without doubt, be called in May. It is the belief of many democrats that there is no need of calling a democratic convention until the middle of July.

In the evening he sent up the following

NOT FOR A FEDERAL COURT. A Famous Sunday Case Settled by

a United States Judge. MEMPHIS, Aug. 4 .- E. S. Hammond, district United States judge, has handed own his decision in the famous case of R. M. King, the seventh-day Adventist, who was convicted a year ago or Sali-bath-breaking by ploughing on Sunday n Obion county

He appealed to the Supreme court, and the sentence was affirmed. Then the Adventists took the case to the Federal court last November on a writ of habeas corpus, the contention being that the onviction was contrary to the bill of rights of Tennessee and the constitution of the United States and that the defendant was held prisoner by the sheriff without due process of law. The defendant is remanded back to the ustody of the sheriff to pay the fine or serve the time in lieu, according to the entence. The decision is based not so such on the constitutionality of Sabath laws as upon the fact that King was convicted under due process of Tennessee law, and it is not in the prov-ince of the Federal court to review the
