By RANDOLPH-KERR PRINTING CO.

THE DAILY CITIZEN, Democratic, is published every afternoon (except Sunday) at the following rates—strictly cash: ONE YEAR, $3.00; SIX MONTHS, 1.50; THREE MONTHS, .75; ONE MONTH, .25; ONE WEEK, .15.

MONDAY, AUGUST 10, 1891.

Can any fair-minded man read the account of Peck's late speech at Millwauke, as given by the Sentinel of that place, and doubt that the Sentinel is telling the truth and that Peck has lied?—Salisbury Truth.

Why, yes. The further facts were that two reporters present at Col. Peck's speech did not hear him make any attack on the southern democrats and asserted flatly that he did not. In all fairness to Col. Peck, then, he must be believed. The weight of testimony is with him.

It is learned that Mr. W. W. Mott, formerly of Statesville, but now of Seattle, Wash., who held the position as book-keeper in the sheriff's office there, was badly burned by an explosion of gas recently, says the Raleigh Chronicle. The explosion occurred in a vault had for the safe keeping of papers. One of these days it will be regarded as hardly less than criminal to have gas pipes in a public building where documents of value are stored. Buncombe county's records are hourly imperiled in this way. A draft of air blows out the gas, or a pipe leaks, the gas collects, and then it needs only the striking of a match to destroy human lives and thousands of dollars' worth of property. The gas pipes should come out and the vaults be lighted by electricity, the lamp to remain on the outside until needed and then taken in at the end of the long electric cord.

A WOMAN'S RHYMES AND REASONS.

Have you ever noticed the pride a man takes in a uniform, and the air of self-importance that he puts on with his blue coat and brass buttons? Every man of them from the steamer captain and railroad conductor to the hotel porter or the motorman of the electric car line, delights in the garb and insignia of his office. Observe the abashed and timid demeanor of a new letter carrier making his rounds in what is called civilian dress and contrast it, a week later, with the bluster and swing of the same official in his new gray uniform. On the other hand women detect a distinctive dress, the cloak models, who are required in large establishments to wear gowns of black silk, wear any dress but the conventional black silk after working hours. Mistresses who have tried to induce servants to adopt the regulation white cap and apron; and the trained nurses, without exception, lay aside their pretty hospital uniforms and adopt a style of dress never as suitable for their duties and seldom as becoming.

I fancy the reason men take to a uniform is because it is more attractive in cut and color than their sombre everyday garb. They are really fond of wearing gay colors and gilt ornaments if they can find a plausible excuse. Perhaps Freemasonry is more attractive because of the cunning white aprons, fur and feathers and silken robes the members can "play lady" in. At any rate men, who don't know a ball from a dumpling, or a racket from a lullaby, join baseball nine and tennis teams for the sake of the striped stockings and jaunty caps.

I cannot imagine a beauty so entrancing that its owner would not weary of her possession if she looked in the glass as much as a woman is supposed to. One's own face, even at its fairest, is a very wearisome bit of property and as for gazing in the mirror, a woman only indulges in it long enough to make sure that her bang isn't out of curl and that she hasn't any powder on her nose. Mrs. Langtry, however, is an exception; we are told that she places a powerful magnifying mirror in the strong sunlight and examines her features critically with an eye to improving on nature. To this practice she is said to owe her perennial bloom, making, as it were, a double success "in a looking glass." The plainer sex, although they are careful only to indulge in the glass on the sly, are the ones who study and admire their own features. Since the days when Narcissus died for love of his own fair face men have been vain of their manly beauty, and perhaps the reason they are all so fond of a bright-eyed girl is because they can see themselves in her clear eyes.

O, mother take the Times away. I cannot read tonight, My heart is heavy and I fear My head is growing light. I dare not turn the printed page, Nor give the leaves a whir, Lest I should meet in black and white That dreadful summer girl. I meet her in the telegraph— O, power of the press, She's in the cuts and columns "ads." In store or mountain den, I would not live, she's in the World, And yet I dare not die, For she is in the Sun and Stars, To catch me on the fly.

Then mother lay the papers by, Until the north wind's snarling, Kills off the blooming summer girl, And brings the winter darling. —Becky Sharp.

HOUSE NOMINATED.

The Vote Was a Large One, 'Tis Said.

From the Knoxville Journal. John C. Houk has been nominated. His majority in Knox county is perhaps 1,200. In the congressional district Houk has probably about 7,000. It may reach about that. The vote has been a large one. In Knox county it will be within a few hundred as large as that cast in the county for the republican presidential candidate in 1888.

Dr. L. A. Guild, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "Wm. Seale, living on my place and an ugly running ulcer on his arm, which ordinary remedies failed to control. As a last resort I placed him on a use of B. B. B. and the ulcer began to heal at once, and effected an entire cure. It is a remedy well worthy of confidence."

LIFE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Tarboro Southern: Edgcombe has long been cursed with sheep-killing dogs but it remained for this year to show that she had cow-killing canines. Last week Mrs. E. Cromwell heard her cattle in the pasture creating loud and very unusual noises. She sent down to ascertain the cause and the messenger found a cow had been killed and partly eaten by the worthless, mangy creatures.

A Scotland Neck telegram says: For several days it has been known that the large and influential business of Riggs & Davenport, of Williamston, has failed. It has just been handed publicly that J. D. Biggs, esq., has made an assignment. The liabilities were large and the assets nearly enough to cover them. The failure was a great surprise.

The tobacco association re-elected its officers and recommended to Governor Holt the appointment of a special tobacco agent, selected by President Lockhart, to represent North Carolina's interest at the World's Fair, and the farmers are asked to do likewise in the interest of the alliance.

Major Will Whitaker, one of the best-known men in Halifax county, died at his home, near Enfield, Friday, of a congestive chill, at an advanced age. Major Whitaker was a great fox-hunter, and had probably ridden after more packs of hounds than any other man in the county.

Goldsboro Headlight: The Wayne county alliance at its last meeting passed a resolution condemning the conduct of the magistrates and county commissioners in voting $500 of taxes of the county to be used in the state exposition.

Contracts for nearly two hundred residences in the vicinity of the new Raleigh mills have been given out, and that suburb of Raleigh will soon present all the appearance of a thriving village.

Tarboro bids fair to become a good tobacco town. Warehouses are being built and prize houses will soon be opened. A tobacco association has been formed.

Governor Holt has offered a reward of $200 for the apprehension of Joseph Cases, of Iredell county, charged with the murder of W. G. Wooten.

Over fifteen hundred people were present at the funeral services over the remains of the late Mr. T. C. Worth in Asheboro on Tuesday.

Charlotte News: In the criminal court the case of J. F. Ferguson, sued by Miss Hargett for breach of promise, was called and not pressed.

Winston will make an effort to secure the Baptist Female University, should it be decided that Raleigh's offer is not sufficient.

A. S. Dunn, a prominent lumber manufacturer at Tarboro has made an assignment.

In Plain English: Unquestionably considered of incalculable consequence in correcting all constitutional contaminations is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Can conscientiously commend it to careful consideration, confident of its competency in all controllable chronic complaints. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the result of much research and wide experience, by a practical physician of world-renown; its formula embraces the most potent restoratives of the whole vegetable kingdom. It is especially recommended for all blood disorders—dyspepsia, liver and kidney complaints, scrofula, salt-rheum, catarrh and consumption—in its early stages—insuring relief and cure in all cases!

Have you a Pittsburgh, Rochester, Duplex, or a Student Lamp? Do they work satisfactorily? Do your Lamp Chimneys break? You get the wrong sort! The right ones are the "PEARL GLASS," made by Geo. A. Macbeth & Co., Pittsburgh, makers of the celebrated "Pearl-top" lamp chimney, which have given universal satisfaction.

THE BESOM OF DESTRUCTION

—WILL— SWEEP OVER BLUE RAIN ON SATURDAY, AUGUST 15TH, 1891.

That picturesque and romantic ruin known as the Deaver corner which has attracted the wonder of all strangers and baffled the fancy of all architects, which has established a world-wide reputation as a resort of rodents and which has been haunted by Mein Herr Freck and other spirits for centuries past, will be struck violently by the hand of demolition

ON THE 15TH INST.

Eagle street is to be widened and built to an established grade, and in order to lend a charm to this work and to raise revenue to defray the expenses of the same I shall offer for sale at auction lots 42, 59, 60 and 55 on Eagle street.

These are among the dearest lots on earth and maps showing their size and location can be seen in any real estate office in the city.

I am aware that money is very scarce just now but I know men who if they can't borrow or manufacture money will commit highway robbery or even burglary in order to get money to buy lots within a few feet of the public square and on the main thoroughfare between the general business center and the tobacco center of the city. Terms, $100 spot cash; $400 within ten days from date of sale, balance in five or any less number of equal annual instalments. The bidding will in the afternoon and at 6 o'clock the crowd will be invited to a free ride on the Montford avenue cars as far as West Chestnut street, where lot 17, block 3, will be sold at auction.

What Peachtree is to Atlanta, Euclid Avenue to Cleveland, Summit Avenue to St. Paul, Montford Avenue will be to Asheville—the widest, best built and best kept residential street of the city; the resort of fashion and the abode of wealth.

People from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Montreal and both branches of the United Service have located in this quarter, and have already gone to work beautifying their grounds and building handsome houses. A feature worthy of special remark is the congregation on this Avenue of actual and expectant bridegrooms. Five are already settled there, and if any young man is prosecuting a difficult and doubtful suit, the title to a commanding slope on this Avenue is apt to be effective with the young lady, and perhaps convincing to the mother-in-law.

TERMS ON THIS LOT: $100.00 Spot Cash. $600 WITHIN TEN DAYS FROM DATE OF SALE.

Balance in five or any less number of equal annual instalments.
