BARBECUE.

On Tuesday, September 1, the Waynes ille Land company will offer for sale at ublic auction at Waynesville, North arolina, from fitty to one hundred valuable residence lots situated in said town near the Haywood White Sulphur

The company will give a Barbecue the first day of the sale, and a free Con-ecrt on the second day—the first and second of September. Addresses will be delivered by prominent citizens of Waynesville, and gentlemen from other places, on both occasions.

To purchasers, the inducements offered by the aforesaid sale are practical and attractive in the highest degree. Unsur passed in beauty and grandeur of scenery Waynesville presents itself as the point upon which both interest and sentimen coincide in purpose. The town itself, finely located, feels the impulse of the spirit of progress. Its scenery is superbits chinate unrivalled in purity and healthfulness, and its social atmospher pure and delightful.

To the visitor, in addition to the ac-commodations already ample, will soon be opened a large and commodious ho-tel, situated on one of those abounding picturesque outlooks for which Waynes ille is so happily noted, embosomed in nountains, yet looking down on a wide spreading valley combining the two ex-tremes and contrasts of scenic beauty. Then near at hand, so close at hand as to be inseparable from the fame and rivileges of Waynesville, are the Hay wood White Sulphur Springs, with their health-giving waters, their luxurient park, their commodious hotel, and their
