EVER CHANGING.

OUR STOCK OF

GROCERIES

IS LIKE A RUNNING STREAM.

Hundreds Take From It,

Yet it is never diminished.

This, of course, is because there is a never falling spring of supply that feeds the stream.

Sluggish streams stagnate, so do sluggish groceries. They become musty, sour and stale and unfit for use. The movement here is quick; new things coming and going. We use modern methods and buy what we can sell before getting stale and pride ourselves in having a fresh stock to select from at all times.

will find by doing so you will on every prescription. We do not take goods that the people know the price and mark down to cost, and then

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE!

IT IS RAISED IN SOLEMN

PROTEST.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S MEETING

IN THE COURT HOUSE.

A CROWDED HOUSE AND SPLEN-

DID SPEECHES.

Col. A. T. Davidson Chosen Chairman of the People's Meeting—

The Railway Company's Proposition—Major Martin Proposes

Fairness, but not Five-Cent Fairness—The Resolutions Offered by Capt. T. W. Patton.

It was a genuine success!

The "it" in this case being the mass meeting which was held in the court house on Saturday night.

The meeting was called for the purpose of getting a popular expression on the recent action of the Asheville street railway company in putting in operation a ten-cent fare system.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the court house was being rung, notifying all within hearing of its tones that a meeting of great importance to the city and its citizens was about to be held.

Then the crowd began pouring in.

By twos, by fours, by tens and twenties the people swarmed in, until every seat in the jury box, and inside the railing, and on the benches was occupied.

Not only this, but the aisle was packed with men who were willing to take standing room only if by doing so they could have a voice in the important work to be done.

And it was taken as a whole, as intelligent a body of men as has ever assembled in a mass meeting in this city.

There were laboring men, merchants, lawyers and citizens generally present, all having come out to lend their presence, and, if necessary, their voices, to the cause which had led up to the meeting.

Everything passed off in good order, every person being actuated by a spirit of fairness and the recognition of the rights of the railway company as well as those of the people.

In fact, it was a meeting of representative citizens, who proposed to go at matters in a business-like way, that there should be no mistaking the course they might finally adopt.

Began Right.

The people did themselves honor in the outset by calling to the chair Col. A. T.

Davidson. No better selection could possibly have been made. The representatives of the press were appointed secretaries.

Col. Davidson in assuming the chair stated that the meeting had been called by the people to consider the increase in the rate of fare on the lines of the Asheville street railway company. The old fare was five cents, whereas now it was ten cents if a passenger desired to go farther than to the square. The people of this city had made a popular protest against this increase, and had come together to agree upon some plan and take such steps looking to a return to the old fare as they might see fit. It was perfect
