

ASHEVILLE DAILY CITIZEN. By RANDOLPH-KERR PRINTING CO. THE DAILY CITIZEN, Democratic, is published every afternoon (except Sunday) at the following rates—

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1891. THE CITIZEN on yesterday commended Collector Fassett, of New York, for refusing Russell Harrison the use of a government revenue cutter to take his wife from an incoming steamer.

At the coroner's inquest at Statesville, Henry Nesbit testified: "I got to the bridge soon after the wreck, saw a big fat man calling for his gold spectacles, gold-headed cane and hat. He did not seem to care for any one but himself."

Temporarily Silent. We understand that some surprise is expressed because THE CITIZEN'S heave guns are not throwing hot shot into the camp of the 10-cent tar monopoly.

The Evidence. After reading a page of the evidence before the coroner's jury at Statesville it is apparent that the verdict was based mainly on the alleged fact that the bolts and spikes that had held the so-called detached rail in place had been removed with the tools usually used for that purpose and not by the force of the trains of the track.

The Wagons on the Square. THE CITIZEN has received a letter—no intended for publication but by way of suggestion—of which the following is a part: "We have suffered and suffered and have now reached the point where we can suffer no longer."

Quick Ripe, Quick Rot. Confirmation was on Tuesday received from a prominent source of the news as to the sending of the third party managers at Washington of letters to each democratic candidate for office, informing him that he must fall in line with the third party.

DEBT STATEMENT. The Treasury Has Some Money on Hand Now.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The debt statement issued yesterday shows the total interest-bearing debt outstanding, $610,320,420; decrease since March 1, 1889, $203,575,500; increase during August, $1,041,210.50; total debt of all kinds, $1,062,226,345.11; total cash in the treasury, $706,600,347.79; net cash balance, $609,274,394.95; gold certificates outstanding, $155,994,350; silver certificates outstanding, $124,213,299; currency certificates, $24,180,000; treasury notes of $200 (billion purchased notes), $39,956,000; Pacific railroad bonds not included in above.

The amount of 4 1/2 per cent. bonds maturing at 2 per cent. today is $384,300, making a total to date of $23,408,550. There are also about $600,000 more bonds in process of maturation. The interest on the outstanding 4 1/2 per cent. will cease tomorrow, after which date the department will redeem all that are presented for that purpose. A circular, however, will be issued tomorrow explaining for an indefinite period the privilege of continuing these bonds at 2 per cent. So far $2,500,000 have been received for redemption, and it is expected that the rest of the outstanding bonds estimated at an aggregate of $20,000,000 will be presented for redemption during the next two months.

The net amount of gold in the treasury to meet this liability is $132,471,400, an increase of $3,800,000 since the first of July, and an increase of $11,358,380 since the first of August. Should the entire $20,000,000 be paid in gold it would not trench on the $100,000,000 of gold reserved for the redemption of legal tender bonds.

DO YOU WANT A WATCH? Or Would You Prefer A HANDSOME PIN?

THE DAILY CITIZEN has bought, and they may be seen in the show window of A. M. Field, on South Main street, A SOLID GOLD LADIES' WATCH AND CHAIN. The case is 14 karats, handsomely carved, with Elgin movement.

Also, a BEAUTIFUL LADIES' STICK PIN, made upon special order. The Pin is what is known as the Clover Leaf design, and consists of four handsome stones—one Aquamarine, one Amethyst, one Topaz and one Diamond, set in solid gold, beautifully ornamented and engraved.

The Watch and Pin are to be given to the two ladies in Asheville who will show that they deserve them. The Watch will be given to the lady securing the largest number of subscribers to THE DAILY CITIZEN between this date and December 1st.

The Pin will be given to the lady getting the next largest number. A subscriber will be the name of any person in Asheville not now a subscriber to THE CITIZEN, accompanied by $1.00. A name accompanied by $2.00 will count two, and a name accompanied by $3.00 will count three.

They are unusually costly and beautiful, and there is not a lady in Asheville but would be delighted with either for Christmas. They will cost you nothing, except a little effort during odd moments when doing nothing else.

THE DAILY CITIZEN is the people's paper, and this unprecedented inducement is offered in order that many more people may read it each day. There are at least 1,500 men in Asheville who do not now subscribe for THE CITIZEN, who are amply able to do so, and THE CITIZEN knows no easier way to secure them than by enlisting the efforts of the ladies in its behalf.

All names will be carefully entered in a book kept for the purpose, and the lady sending in the greatest number of names, accompanied by the money, as indicated, before December, will get the Watch on December 1st, and the one getting the next largest will get the Pin.
