YES!

I buy my Groceries, Provisions, Feed, etc., from this house. They always give me good fresh goods and sell at prices as low or lower than any other. I have always found them reliable and have no cause for complaint, and would most certainly advise you to give them a trial, as I believe they will make it to your interest to trade with them.

You cannot blame the juvenile fingers that find their way into a barrel filled with our groceries; in fact it would be a mystery if you could keep them out.

If there is anything in the world that should be sold at popular prices, it is what goes into the kitchen.

That which you cannot do without ought to be purchasable at the slightest possible advance over cost of production and we are guided by this principle in every sale we make. Whenever we can see our way clear to marking down prices that is what we promptly do.

Respectfully,

Powell & Snider,

Wholesale and Retail Grocers.

THE THIRD PARTY IN OHIO.

JERRY SIMPSON ON HIS LUCK IN THIS CAMPAIGN.

The General Telegraphic News From All Parts of the Country to "The Citizen" Today.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 6.—John Seitz, Jerry Simpson and some of the local third party leaders held an all day consultation here today. They refused to be interviewed and said that they did not do party work on Sundays. Jerry Simpson left for Chicago this evening and will go from there to Kansas. Asked about the relative effect the people's party would have on the other two parties he said that it was hard to tell, but he had found the republicans and democrats about equally divided in the matter of fidelity to their respective organizations, and that the people's party could hope for better things if the contest was not so close in Ohio.

Republicans did not care to vote for a people's party candidate for representative for fear they might endanger the chances of their own party, and the democrats looked at the situation in a similar manner, and taken all around he did not think the chances were very flattering for third party representatives in the next legislature.—New York Herald.
