

DIBBOLUTION.

Ernest P. Jenks to Succeed Messrs. Jenks & Jenks.

The dissolution of partnership in the real estate and insurance business between Messrs. Charles N. Jenks and Arthur E. Jenks, notice of which is given in another column, although probably somewhat of a surprise to most of their friends here, has been anticipated by the members of this firm for nearly a year.

Since the establishment of their business here two years ago, the Messrs. Jenks have successfully floated two stock companies—the Western North Carolina mining and improvement company, and the Western North Carolina corundum company—both of which are heavily backed by northern capital.

These two corporations have invested largely in timber and mineral lands in Jackson and Transylvania counties in this state, and in Georgia, the first named company being at present the possessor of about 2,000 acres, lying on the head waters of the Toccoa and Tuckasee rivers, and covered with an unusually heavy growth of poplar, cherry, oak, spruce pine and other woods.

The company's property embraces the famous Hogback mountain, one of the loftiest peaks of the entire Blue Ridge range, its elevation above the sea being slightly over five thousand and five hundred feet. On the summit of this mountain the company has built a commodious hunting lodge for the accommodation of its stockholders, and has taken active steps to effectually protect the game and fish on its magnificent preserve from the depredations of the "pot hunter."

The company proposes at no distant day to stock its streams with California trout, and to construct an artificial lake on the property, covering an area of several hundred acres, by damming the head waters of the Tuckasee. The immense timber resources of this tract will also be utilized as soon as a railroad is completed within a dozen or fifteen miles of its borders.

The Western North Carolina corundum company owns and controls twenty-five of the most valuable corundum properties in North Carolina and Georgia, having acquired through the efforts of the Messrs. Jenks, who have personally examined every corundum deposit of any promise ever discovered in the United States. The company is at present working two of its mines with great success, the output being large and the quality of the mineral being superior to any that has heretofore been put upon the market in quantity. The company is about to erect a very complete and costly plant in New England, where the raw material will be shipped and afterwards crushed and graded.

Mr. C. N. Jenks has been for a year and a half the superintendent of the improvement company and general manager of the Corundum company, Mr. A. E. Jenks having been the secretary and treasurer of the latter corporation for the same length of time. The duties incident to these positions have now become of such an important nature that the Messrs. Jenks are obliged to give up a measure of their other business interests here, although Mr. C. N. Jenks will still make his headquarters at Asheville, where the principal office of the Corundum company will continue to be located.

Mr. E. P. Jenks, who will in the future carry on the real estate and insurance business of Jenks & Jenks, will, in carrying out the plans and business policy of the old firm, receive the advice and assistance of his brothers, especially with reference to the purchase or sale of timber and mineral lands, concerning which the firm of Jenks & Jenks has a most thorough and comprehensive knowledge.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE.

Lock Boxes Put Into Position in the New Building.

J. Walter Graham, foreman of the work on the government building, took THE CITIZEN through the big house this morning.

On the first floor, or postoffice, workmen are busy finishing the plastering, while others are putting in the postoffice screen. The lock boxes were put in position yesterday. Of these there are 711, new and handsome as can possibly be.

The working room of the postoffice will be in size 60x84 feet. The postmaster's private office will be in the wing which extends to Haywood street. The wood work for the office was done by the P. A. Demens' company, and is a splendid piece of workmanship.

The offices for the use of clerk and other officials at the United States court, on the second floor, are finished. The court room, however is still under hand of the plasterer, and on account of the elaborate cornice work will not be finished for some time.

In the basement workmen are now putting in the brick floor. Herein to be the furnace room, from which hot air will be sent through every room in the building. Here also is the watchman's room, a little space, with an iron ladder by which he can climb to a level with the postoffice floor and see that all is right.

A large ventilating shaft runs from basement to roof. An ornamental top is to be put on which will make it eight feet higher than it is now. There will be a hose on every floor, with proper connections, which will be used in case of fire.

Mr. Graham is doing everything to complete the work quickly, but will make no promises. There is much trimming and cleaning to do, and he cannot tell when he will be done. The area wall for the front has yet to be built, and the heating apparatus remains to be put in. The plumbing and heating work is being done by Ballard, Rich & Boyce.

Tribute From an Ohio Man to the Late Col. R. G. Dun.

Col. T. B. Long, of Asheville, has received a letter from J. B. Mogridge, of Plain City, Ohio, in which the following tribute to Col. R. G. Dun, who died in Asheville recently, occurs:

"In him the agricultural world has lost one of its ablest supporters. The friends of progress, justice, reform and humanity sustain a great loss. He had few equals and no superiors. His relatives are truly distinguished, but as a reformer and supporter of all that is great and good no one surpasses him; his many virtues will not soon be erased from the memory of the hosts of his friends in this state who truly loved him for his many virtues."

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment Course.

The committee of the Young Men's Christian Association appointed to secure subscriptions for the entertainment course during the coming season are still at work and will be glad to receive additional subscriptions. Two hundred and twenty-five tickets of the three hundred needed have been subscribed. Any who have not subscribed for the course and who are desirous to have first-class music in Asheville should send their names to the association at once.

AROUND TOWN.

Forecast till 8 a. m., Friday—Generally fair, with change in temperature; southeasterly winds.

Tuesday's revenue collections amounted to $9,350.12.

J. M. Moody, of Waynesville, was in the city yesterday.

Frank Loughran, of the Hickory Inn, is in the city today.

Rev. R. A. Childs, of Clio, S. C., is registered at the Swannanoa.

At Grant's pharmacy at 2 p. m. today the thermometer registered 75°.

W. H. Deaver has returned from a trip through Tennessee and Kentucky.

"T. W. Patton, esq., of Asheville, is at the Yarboro," says the Raleigh News and Observer.

J. W. Stasley, a popular commercial man of Cincinnati, is autographed at the Swannanoa.

E. G. Carrier, of the West Asheville and Sulphur Springs railway company, is in New York on business.

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the board of aldermen will meet in regular weekly session in the mayor's office.

The new nickel-in-the-slot telephone was put in at the passenger depot today. It is located in the ladies' waiting room.

"Uncle Hiram," with Aaron H. Woodhull in the leading character, will occupy the boards at the Grand next Tuesday night.

Managers Reynolds & Spears, of the Grand opera house, had a bill board put up on the side of Reynolds' building on Patton avenue today.

Deputy Sheriff Morgan yesterday sold his horse, which made a record in the race after Britain lost week. Mr. Herndon, of Biltmore, was the purchaser, and the price was $150.

Darham Sun, Tuesday: "T. H. Martin came down today from Asheville. He says he left Mrs. Martin very much better and thinks she will be able to come home in about two weeks."

M. J. Bearden, who on yesterday fell from a ladder while descending from the loft of his stable, is better to-day. His hip causes considerable pain, but it is thought he will be out in a week or perhaps less time.

Recorder Miller had only one case before him this morning. A black and white named Murray was up charged with trespass at the passenger depot. He was fined $7, and not being able to pay was sent to jail.

Rev. W. A. Nelson, pastor of the First Baptist church, J. R. Patterson, clerk of the annual court, and Deputy Register R. J. Stokely, left this morning for Tennessee, to attend a meeting of a Baptist association near Del Rio.

Some improvement in the street has been made at and near Battery Park switch on Patton avenue. The street leading up to the Park has been cut down near the junction, and new macadam spread. The holes between the tracks have also been filled up.

There will be a meeting of the lecturers of the district alliance in Asheville on Friday, Oct. 29. It will be held for the purpose of organizing the lecturers of the state. President Marion Butler, of the state alliance, and state lecturer J. S. Bell will be present.

Great is the power of authority! Yesterday the drays were moved from the square as told exclusively in THE CITIZEN and today the tar barrels, which alone remained to greet the eye and rattle the temper of the oldest inhabitants, were taken away. The aldermen now have permission to take hold of the 10-cent fare, and let the people see what a determined board can do.

THE REVIVAL.

Interest in Mr. Tuttle's Meeting Does Not Diminish.

The sermon at the Central Methodist church last night was on "Confessing and forsaking sin," and was based on Prov. 28:13. "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy." It was one of Mr. Tuttle's best efforts, and that is to say that it was heart-searching. There were twenty-one penitents at the altar for prayer and not less than a half score of professions of faith.

The congregations are so large that it is impossible to seat them in the church. If there were a larger building in the city to which this meeting could be moved, the indications are that larger numbers would be reached. It is evident that the Central congregation will have to enlarge the seating capacity of their church at an early day or swarm and form an other congregation. This church can scarcely accommodate the congregations on ordinary occasions, and when there is a special interest, as at the present, it is utterly impossible to seat the crowds of anxious hearers that attend. Central can seat a goodly number now, but its capacity should be greatly increased.

NOT UNANIMOUS.

Alderman Gudger Did Not Vote to Sell the Bonds.

Alderman J. M. Gudger informed THE CITIZEN today that the statement made yesterday as to the "unanimous vote of the board" on the question of selling the city bonds at 95, or paying 5 per cent. commission, was an error.

Mr. Gudger was opposed to the sale of the bonds at the price offered, and so expressed himself at the joint conference on Wednesday and the aldermanic session yesterday. Mr. Gudger presided at the meeting at which it was decided that $120,000 of the bonds should be sold at 5 per cent. commission. As an alderman Mr. Gudger was entitled to a vote, and accordingly voted "no."

Mr. Gudger tells THE CITIZEN further that as a private citizen he would favor the sale of the bonds in this way, but occupying the position he does, he felt that he could do nothing except comply strictly with the act, which provides that the bonds shall not be sold for less than par. Looking at the matter in that light he voted in the negative.

SOMEBODY SAYS:

The pens in the postoffice for general use cannot be used generally.

That "World's Fair Advocate" man was pretty slick.

That the worthy sheriff writes about as vigorously as he executes the laws.

That the aldermen, with the paving begun and the market house again under way, will not have it in their great hearts to press the Mission hospital case further.

THE CITIZEN continues to print news when news is news.

That quiet reigns still at Biltmore, the seat of war, while peace and prosperity have their shingles out at the old stand in Kenilworth and Victoria.

It is a pity to drive the wagons from the square, as they might subscribe for a paper, paving in knotty melons.

The "inspector of meats" should get hold of the diseased beef question. Butchering has not been discontinued on the river just above the water works.

Really Transactions. The following deeds have been filed in Register Mackey's office for registration: S. H. Reed and wife to J. H. Reed lot in Biltmore, 60x105 feet.....$ 300

While others are putting a bug in your ear, listen to me. I am now better prepared than ever to furnish you with anything usually kept in a first class saloon. I have the largest and best stock in Western North Carolina. If not in a State, and it consists of the finest brands of Whiskeys, Wines, and Brandy known in a world. Burke's Three Star Irish Whiskey, beyond a doubt the finest in the world. Try While in Europe, during the summer of 1890, I made arrangements for the above, which are, Spanish Sherry and Port Wines, the equal never brought to Asheville. Imported Claret, Poutet Cane, Margaux, Chateau Belmont very fine. In French Brandy I have a large stock, including John Hennessy & Co.'s Three Star and other standard brands; Hennessy & Co.'s Pale Ale, and Guinness' Extra Foreign Stout. In fact, my stock of imported liquors is too numerous to mention. My stock of Rye whiskeys embraces some of the finest and oldest brands known. Beer, the finest on the market for family use. The best brands of CIGARS and TOBACCO. When you are in need of anything in my line, before going elsewhere, come and see me and be convinced. My whiskeys are recommended by some of the most eminent men of the age for medicinal purposes. Respectfully, FRANK O'DONNELL, PROPRIETOR. THE CAROLINA SALOON, 19 NORTH MAIN STREET, ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Vichy and Seltzer Water in Siphons. SEE ANALYSIS OF WATER USED, ON FRONT PAGE. OAKLAND HEIGHTS SANATORIUM. (FORMERLY OAKLAND INN.) ASHEVILLE, N. C. The Most Complete Health Resort in the South.

Is now open and ready for guests. This house is the most desirable in the South for persons who need rest and medical attention. No hotel in Asheville has as well furnished rooms and its cuisine is unequalled. Only in the case of patients is the diet regulated. The bath is an important feature of the sanatorium. The water is pure and plentiful, coming from a large limpid spring near by. The sanitary arrangements are as perfect as care and money can make them. Persons suffering with throat and lung troubles are especially benefited by a stay at this place. The medical management is under the direction of Dr. P. W. Norris, recently of the Jackson Sanatorium, at Danville, N. Y.

The Sanatorium is thoroughly equipped with modern appliances for the relief and cure of all nervous and chronic diseases. The bath departments are complete and are under the supervision of competent and skilled attendants. The methods of treatment include all forms of baths, the Medicated Vapor, Turkish, Electric, Russian, Roman, Mollire, Thermo-Electric, Electro-Chemical, Massage, Electricity in all its forms, also Swedish Movements. Medical attendance and every form of treatment included in price of room. Although the comfort and welfare of the sick are the first considerations, every opportunity is given to those who desire to spend pleasant and profitable season here.
