IN A REIGN OF TERROR.

THE REVOLUTION IN GUATEMALA.

President Barillas Declares Himself Dictator and Martial Law Prevails—Five Hundred Lives Said to Have Been Sacrificed.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 29.—Telegrams received here bring information that the outbreak at Guatemala occurred in Guatemala City on the 15th inst. and was still in progress at last accounts. According to these reports the people of that city were celebrating the anniversary of their national holiday. President Barillas had personally appointed the orators of the day. To this the masses took exception and when the orators took the rostrum it was a signal for stormy scenes which put them to flight. They were chased across the big plaza by a howling mob which shouted: "Down with the government!" "Down with despotism and tyranny." Exciting scenes followed and every known liberal or partisan was driven from the plaza, being stoned at every step. After that the masses elected their orators and the most violent and incendiary speeches followed. The news of the riot spread rapidly and soon Barillas sent a battalion of infantry to the large square for the purpose of dispersing the mob. They, with fixed bayonets, attempted to carry the plaza by assault. They were met with a shower of stones and bullets from revolvers. This unexpected action of the mob put the soldiers to flight, leaving many of their number on the ground. The mob was something to be long remembered. Members of the mob shouted: "Let's storm the national palace, kill Barillas and restore a republican form of government. Guatemala should not be ruled by a dictator." "The plundering of the national treasury must cease!" Barillas then ordered the artillery into the plaza and the infantry and two companies of guards hissed. When the guns were turned on the mob there was a general dispersing of them, though they discharged their revolvers at the artillery men. They left the plaza, but fought in the side streets; in fact, they practically, during night of the 15th, held full control of the city, though at intervals they were attacked by the infantry, who killed many of them. Reports of revolution were to be heard all night and at the hour the gentlemen on whose information these telegrams were based left for San Jose de Guatemala to embark for Realquico the fighting was still in progress. In his conception this will cause a general revolt throughout the entire republic of Guatemala and endanger war in all of the Central American states. Strict censorship is maintained over all the press dispatches, and the mails are also trifled with to prevent the breaking of any information concerning the actual condition of the country. It is stated that cable communication with Guatemala city has been interrupted.

At 5 o'clock Monday afternoon the American received a special dispatch from Newton on the line between Guatemala and Mexico. The telegram was delivered by the Mexican telegraph officials by special courier and it brings information that Barillas is master of the situation, he having put down the revolt after three days' hard fighting. The revolt the dispatch stated was precipitated by Montefarson, one of the candidates for the presidency, who is a strong partisan of Barillas, in attempting to make a political speech on independence day. The mob threw him and his friends from the platform in the main plaza, pelting them with stones until they found shelter in neighboring houses. From that time until the night of the 18th there was street fighting, sometimes the mob being in control of the city and other times the army. The arrival of troops from the adjoining districts eventually restored Barillas to power and the city is thoroughly garrisoned with soldiers. Martial law has been declared. It was expected the gentleman left the city, that Barillas would declare himself dictator, so as to prolong his term of office. Salvador is moving troops to the military district of Santa Anna bordering on the southern frontier of Guatemala and it is believed for the purpose of invading the latter country if the city of Guatemala revolt spreads to the interior points. It is said that already in Quezaltenango, one of the most important cities in the upper districts of Guatemala, a revolt has occurred against Barillas' rule within the past three months, but they have proved so far abortive. A private dispatch to prominent merchant in this city who has business relations in the city of Guatemala were shown to the associated press correspondent last night from Newton. It says that fully five hundred lives were sacrificed in the three days' fighting in the revolt in the city of Guatemala and that the shooting is still going on. The dispatch also conveys the information that Barillas has declared himself dictator. It is stated that Col. Jobon killed Gen. Sanchez and it followed that a brother of General Sanchez learning of his assassination, went to the place, which was surrounded by cannon, where Jobon was situated and shot and killed him. A reign of terror prevails and the inhabitants have been afraid to leave their houses. In the revolt which has taken place at Quezaltenango the revolutionary leader is reported to be supported by over 1,000 men. The palace and residence of President Barillas are guarded by both infantry and artillery. The president does not go abroad unless guarded by a large force of cavalry.

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATS

They are Not for the Free Coinage of Silver.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 30.—When the democratic state convention opened here yesterday morning the convention was permanently organized by the choice of Hon. P. A. Collins, of Boston, with a long list of vice presidents. Mr. Collins in addressing the convention said:

"The republican party of today, yet writhing in agony from the mighty blow dealt them last November, demands a return to full power upon their own terms."

"We approach the people in no such haughty temper. This is a democratic temple through whose open doors every honest man may enter and be welcome. The republicans expect not to compromise with the people meant by their votes last year. They say the sentiment has changed since then; that the people have forgiven the spending of a billion dollars by the lost congress that they are 'used to the McKinley bill and that all ought to be forgiven because that congress passed the copyright bill. Read the house as he would a circus and they passed a bill through that body to strangle liberty and create civil war in the south."

"All these things were known a year ago and the popular mind has not been changed. The present complaint is that there has been coined a large amount of silver dollars, worth as bullion or as merchandise only 80 cents each, and the fear is that the continued coinage of these dollars, or worse, that the larger coinage of them, will dangerously inflate the currency and ultimately drive gold out of circulation. This was the situation a year ago last July and it is the situation today. At that time the treasury was coming at the rate of two million dollars a month of these 80 cent silver dollars and the demand on the part of sound financiers was that the coinage should cease or that something should be done to insure the parity of silver dollars with gold."

"But the administration debt was due to the silver men of the far west as well as to the iron men and the wool men, and to other monopolists; so the silver men demanded payment. The result was the 'Sherman act,' so-called, of July 14, 1890. The republican representation from Massachusetts voted for this naked inflation measure, while the democratic representatives voted against it."

BEFORE THE GRAND JURY.

Georgia Officials Summon Sam Jones and Sam Small.

ROME, Ga., Sept. 30.—The session in Rome is that Rev. Sam Jones and Sam W. Small are summoned to appear before the grand jury as witnesses.

Their abuse of Rome and its corruption is what the grand jury wants information on, those statements having been made in the warehouse meetings a few days ago.

Several prominent members of the Methodist church were also summoned, the subpoenas being sent this afternoon.

The charge Judge Maddox gave to the grand jury was a vigorous one. It was on the line that if ministers of the gospel could stand up in warehouses and say there were men here who ought to be in the penitentiary, and Rome was a hotbed of wickedness, it looked as if there must be some foundation. If men could make these charges, have them before the grand jury and make them prove their assertions—any man in Georgia could be brought before them as a witness.

NOT CREDITED.

Guatemala's Minister At Paris Has Heard Nothing.

PARIS, Sept. 30.—The minister in this city of republic of Guatemala was interviewed today in regard to a report that a revolution had occurred in that country. The minister stated he had received telegraphic advices from his government since Sept. 15, on which day the revolt is said to have broken out, but no mention was made in them of any facts that would justify the circulation of reports of a revolution. In connection with the rumors that the government of San Salvador had dispatched bodies of troops to the frontier of Guatemala the minister said he was in position to deny that there was any foundation for such reports.

WENT UP LIKE A ROCKET.

AND CAME DOWN LIKE A STICK.

Gen. Boulanger, Who Once Stirred France From Center to Circumference, Commits Suicide on the Grave of His Former Mistress.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 30.—Gen. Boulanger committed suicide today on the tomb of Madame DeBonnenain, who died recently in this city.

Madame DeBonnenain had been known as the mistress of Boulanger. She accompanied him to England after his flight from France, and, early in July last, she was dangerously ill in Brussels, suffering from consumption. A Paris physician went there expressly in order to treat Madame DeBonnenain by a new system of treatment consisting in inoculating the person affected by the germs of phthisis with glycol which is obtained from cressets. However, in spite of the efforts made to save her Madame DeBonnenain died during the morning of July 17.

Madame DeBonnenain, at the height of General Boulanger's career, two or three years ago, lived in the Rue de Beeri, Paris, where she was continually visited by the general. Spies kept track of their movements and soon discovered that the persons referred to were very intimate. Madame Boulanger was informed of these facts, but refused to apply for a divorce. It was greatly through Madame DeBonnenain's favor that Gen. Boulanger was able to carry on his political intrigues for the madame had inherited $1,500,000, all of which sum she devoted to the cause of Boulanger. To such an extent did General Boulanger carry his infatuation for Madame DeBonnenain that when the French government determined to arrest him he couldn't be persuaded to pose as a martyr before the French people by going to jail, preferring to fly with his mistress from France to England and eventually to Brussels.

Boulanger committed suicide at about noon. He stood alone by the grave of his mistress for some time appearing to be deeply affected by sorrowful recollections. An attendant of the general who had remained at some distance from the tomb, DeBonnenain's tomb, suddenly heard a sharp report in that direction. Running to the spot, the attendant found Gen. Boulanger lying dead upon the ground with a revolver clinched in his right hand. A hasty examination of the body showed that the dead man had placed the weapon to his right ear and fired the fatal shot.

The affair has caused great excitement in this city. Boulanger had no hopes for the future and his remaining friends were few and becoming colder as the once famous general dropped more and more out of public notice.
