END OF ONE ONCE GREAT.

PARNELL, THE IRISH EX-
LEADER, IS DEAD.

He Took Cold a Week Ago and This Resulted in His Death Last Night at Brighton—His Wife With Him to the Last When He Was Unconscious.

LONDON, October 7.—Parnell died at Brighton last night.

Parnell's death resulted from a chill caught last week.

He took to his bed Friday and died at Walsh Terrace at half-past eleven last night.

The news of Parnell's death was utterly unlooked for. It has been well known that Mr. Parnell had not enjoyed the best of health for years past, and it has been noticed, and widely commented upon, that since the O'Shea divorce developments became a matter of public notoriety and since the political trouble came upon him Parnell had grown thinner and had perceptibly aged in appearance. But nobody expected to hear of his death and no inkling as to his illness had reached the newspapers.

Parnell took to his bed on Friday last, and from that time he steadily lost strength and finally succumbed. The exact nature of his disease is not made known as yet. He expired in the arms of Mrs. Parnell who is utterly prostrated by the shock experienced through her husband's death.

Coupled with the announcement of Parnell's death is the news that Sir John Forster, member of parliament for North Kilkenny, is also dead. Sir John, immediately after the exposure in the O'Shea divorce case in December, 1890, contested the North Kilkenny election and defeated the Parnellite candidate, Vincent Scott, 1,147 votes. This was a great, and possibly the greatest, test of strength between the Parnellites and the McCartyites and the defeat of Sir John was a serious blow to the party.

It was regarded as serious from the very first.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Another account of Parnell's fatal sickness is as follows: Parnell arrived at his home at Brighton from Ireland Thursday and complained of suffering from a chill. On Friday following his regular physician was summoned. He seemed to have considered Parnell's illness to be of a serious nature for he soon sent for another physician with whom he held a long consultation.

This consultation of physicians was resumed Sunday when Parnell was found to be in great pain and apparently growing weaker every hour. His sickness was pronounced to be an attack of acute rheumatism and every attention and care was paid to the sufferer. He was carefully and tenderly nursed by his wife who hardly left his bedside from the moment of her husband's first illness.

Parnell did not rally from the rheumatism and grew weaker and weaker daily. Several hours before his death he became unconscious and so remained until he died in intense agony.

Owing to the suddenness of the Irish leader's illness and to the belief of his wife and of the attending physicians that he would recover no friends or relations of his family or of that of Mrs. Parnell, were present at Parnell's bedside when he died. Mrs. Parnell and the physicians were alone in attendance upon him when he breathed his last.

THE NEW LINE.

The Aldermanic Committee Considering the Charter Asked for.

The aldermanic committee, Messrs. Brevard, Starnes and Leonard, appointed last Friday to confer with the Asheville and Biltmore electric railway people, had a talk with J. S. Adams, esq., attorney for the company, yesterday.

The tobacco men on Valley street wanted the board to allow part of the road built at once, that portion which will connect on South Main street with the Asheville street railway, to accommodate them in freight matters.

The committee does not like the idea of accommodating any warehouses without accommodating them all. It also desires that the line from Biltmore be built first. The construction of the short line would add another link to the going Asheville street railway's $5,000,000 system.

The Asheville and Biltmore company, however, say they will build the main stem as soon as the grades on South Main street have been definitely established.

The committee will consider the charter which the company asks for, make changes as they think best, and report to the board on Friday.

STREET CAR ACCIDENT.

An Extra Run into a Regular on a Down Grade.

WINTON, N. C., Oct. 5.—A rather costly collision occurred on the West 4th street car line yesterday and came near being a fatal one. The large summer car that was augmenting the regular runs with extra trips was behind the regular car going down the deep descent at a very rapid rate when the former stopped to put off passengers and the latter dashed at full speed into the same, breaking the switch boards and timbers of both cars and causing a $500 wreck. The motorman in the latter car was thrown over in the former and badly bruised, while one or two others were slightly injured. The two cars were twice so rapid other and both were making too rapid time.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Chicago Grant Monument.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The Grant monument was unveiled today in the presence of many thousands of militia, grizzled veterans of the G. A. R., Knights of Pethias and similar organizations and citizens. The oration was delivered by Walter Q. Gresham.

The "World" is Dead.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 7.—The Charleston Daily World, the Weekly World and the Sunday Budget, published by the World-Budget company here, have suspended publication.

THE OCALA PLATFORM.

It Will be Endorsed by the Michigan Farmers.

LANSING, Mich., October 7.—Thirty-four counties were represented by nearly 1,500 delegates at the second annual convention of the Michigan farmers' alliance which convened yesterday. The sessions will continue through Thursday and the principal topic of discussion involves the future attitude of the order as to the matter of independent political action. It is evident that while there is much opposition to such action the majority are in favor of endorsing the Ocala platform.

WORLD'S RECORD BROKEN

LIGHTNING TROTTER BY A TWO YEAR OLD.

Blood Will Tell, Especially Electioneering Blood—A Wonderfully Fast Yearling and a Faster Stallion.

STOCKTON, Cal., Oct. 7.—Two world's records were broken here yesterday on a kite shaped track. For the first time Marvin came out behind the famous Palomino two year old stallion Orion, by Electioneer out of Manotte, entered to beat his record of 221 made in a race at the state fair a few weeks ago. Orion was accompanied by a running mate and went off easily. He went the first quarter in 31 1/2 seconds, the half mile in 1:05, the three quarters in 1:42 1/2, and made the mile in 2:15 1/2, thus beating the world's best two year old record of 2:18 held by Sunland made by her in October 1888.

Marvin then brought out the yearling Bell Bird, by Electioneer out of Beautiful Bell, to go against Claxton for a purse and to beat the world's record of 2:29 1/2. He acted splendidly and led to the one fourth post in 37 1/2, the half mile post in 1:13 1/2, three quarters in 1:50 1/2 and the mile in 2:27 1/2, beating the world's record for yearlings by two seconds.

ANOTHER ESCAPE.

John Boston, a Colored Man, Ran Away from the Chain Gang.

There has been another escape from the county chain gang.

The gang were at work yesterday on Dryman's mountain, four miles from Asheville, and about 2 1/2 miles from the stockade where they are kept while not at work.

Overseer H. H. White had come into the city to attend to some business, leaving the gang, consisting of sixteen men, in the care of two guards, W. H. Rogers and B. F. Foster.

A little after 5 o'clock, as the men were quitting work, two of them, Bumpass and Boston, colored, stepped aside on a slight pretext into the thick brush. Bumpass returned in a moment, but Boston did not. Mr. Rogers noticed this and ran into the underbrush, looking everywhere for Boston, but seeing nothing of him. Several persons who were passing that way, aided in the search, but it was finally abandoned, as no trace could be found except Boston's cap, which had been probably knocked off by a limb.

Boston is the man who was sent up at the last term of criminal court for two years, for cutting the throat of Salie Bradshaw, a colored woman. He is tall, very black, and when he escaped had on a suit of convict clothes.

JUST WANTED TO KNOW.

A Citizen of Asheville Gets a Little Off on the Time.

A very much befuddled man wobbled across court place last night. That he had become overloaded with "old John" was painfully apparent.

The man reached the pole which stands near the tower, and then halted, with the aid of the pole. Seeing an officer passing near him, the fellow braced up, and called to him:

"Shay, mister p'leece'nciman, c'm over here."

The club-swinger complied, and inquired what he could do to alleviate his troubles.

"Yes, 'M g'otter hearp' (hic) troublesh; 'n I shan't be g'inner tell whole shing's t' p'leece'man. Now (hic) tell me zackly whash time by (hic) town clocksh."

The officer told him it was 8 o'clock and 5 minutes.

The man looked hard at the clock for about two minutes and then sprang this interrogation in a thrilling whisper:

"Wonsher t're (hic) now, 'ish' ater'clock amornin' er 'Ist wake (hic) 'n drunk's a Biltmore 'Ishman'?"

The policeman told him he was probably drunk, and he went on his serpentine way, apparently satisfied on the point he inquired about.

TO TOBACCO RAISERS.

J. Arthur Reagan and the Danville Warehouse.

In THE CITIZEN'S advertising columns today will be found the advertisement of J. Arthur Reagan, who is now with the Cabell and Planters' tobacco warehouses, Danville, Va.

Mr. Reagan is a Western North Carolina boy, and as he is representing two of the best warehouses in Danville, farmers and shippers cannot do better than ship their tobacco to him. Danville is perhaps the best tobacco market in the country; and you will always get the top price if you sell in that market, and Arthur Reagan will see that Western North Carolina people who patronize him are taken care of. Try him once and see what he will do for you.

THE METHODIST COUNCIL

OPENED IN WASHINGTON TODAY.

Distinguished Delegates Present—Large Attendance—Opening Ceremonies—Dr. Risling's sermon Read by Dr. Shepherson.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The Ecumenical Methodist council met this morning in the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal church. This edifice has larger seating capacity than any other Methodist church in the city.

Seated on the platform were Bishop Bowman of St. Louis, Bishop Hurst, of Washington; Rev. Dr. Arthur, of England; and Dr. A. Cameron, of Canada; Rev. J. Stephenson, president of the British Wesleyan conference, London; Rev. Dr. Joseph Ferguson, of Leeds, England; president of the Primitive Methodist church; Bishop Keener, of New Orleans; Bishop Wayman, of Baltimore, of the A. M. E. church, and Rev. S. F. Huestes, of Halifax.

The body of the church was nearly filled with delegates, about 500 being present.

The morning session was opened by the Rev. Bishop Thos. Bowman, of St. Louis, who read the 882d hymn from the Methodist hymnal. The entire assembly sang the hymn. Bishop J. C. Keener, of New Orleans, was called upon for a prayer.

The assembly then recited the Apostles creed, led by Rev. Bishop Wayman of the African Methodist Episcopal church, Baltimore. Dr. Huestes, of Nova Scotia, read the sixth chapter of Isaiah and when he closed the Rev. Dr. Arthur, of London, read the 955th number of the hymnal.

Dr. Arthur Risling's sermon, prepared to open the council, was read by Rev. Dr. Stephenson, president of the British Wesleyan conference.

The Daily Citizen

Is always alive to the interests of Asheville and its people.

Is the most popular advertising medium in North Carolina.

Is read by a greater number of people than any other secular paper in the state.

Is always filled with the choicest reading matter of the day.
