An Opportunity.

A cash prize of one thousand dollars has been offered for the best short story or novel having the Grandfather Mountain and the beautiful scenery of that locality woven into the plot.

This mountain, situated as it is in the most picturesque part of Western North Carolina, furnishes an attractive setting for an interesting story.

The selection will be made by a committee of competent reviewers, and the story must not be less than 10 nor exceed 50 pages.

Detailed information may be obtained of the Linville Improvement Company, of Linville, North Carolina.

RUNNING ON TIME.

That's the way all our watches run, and our clocks have the well regulated habit of doing precisely the same thing. Perhaps you have a watch that is somewhat eccentric in its movements; if you have, we will straighten it out for you in short order and we will also see to it that the expense involved in the operation is exceedingly moderate. A good way to ruin the best of clocks and watches is to let them go too long without cleaning We not only make a specialty of cleaning, repairing and regulating, but just now we have another specialty—a special display of fine umbrellas to which we would call your attention.

ASHEVILLE'S ART CLUB

A FINE INITIATORY MEETING LAST NIGHT.

The Ball Put in Motion, and It Looks as if Success Were Already an Assured Fact.

The call which appeared in THE CITIZEN of Tuesday afternoon for a meeting of such persons in the city as were interested in the formation of an Art club had a most gratifying response last night.

The series of rooms on the second floor of the Lyceum building were filled, though not crowded with gentlemen and ladies interested in the subject. The large room, fitted up for the occasion by the taste and judgment of F. A. Grace, an artist of no mean pretension, and the leading spirit in this art movement, illustrated, in anticipation, the points of suggestions having in view the cultivation of public taste and the domestication of decorative art.

There were probably fifty gentlemen and ladies in attendance, every one of whom were inspired by the one sentiment that had originated the call and the meeting. The presence of such a number, and of such character, gave assurance that success had already crowned the movement; for it was clear enough, from the number present, that all doubts of the sufficiency of the community to organize and uphold such movement might at once vanish, and the good work go on with constantly gathering strength.

At the request of Mr. Grace, Col. J. D. Cameron at some length explained the objects of the meeting, discussing the principles and objects of art, its influence upon human manner, morals and happiness; and also its agency in social development and national as well as local prosperity; and impressing upon the audience the duty as well as the ability of this community to at once organize an association through which the existing as well as latent talent among us might find exercise or development.

At the conclusion of Col. Cameron's remarks, the organization of the meeting was proposed; and on motion Col. Cameron was called to the chair and W. S. Cushman elected secretary.

Mr. Grace was then called on for explanation and elaboration of the plan of action outlined in the published call for the meeting; and in a very animated, but informal, though very clear and intelligent "talk" of more than half an hour put his audience so full in possession of his ideas, and so impressed it with their feasibility, that all eagerly awaited the moment when they were to be put in shape and action.

Remarks, in addition were made by Lloyd Freeman, Julian C. Breese, Col. L. M. Hatch, and more briefly by others.

On motion the chairman appointed Messrs. Grace Freeman and Hull as a committee to solicit subscriptions, in addition to those already secured, to fill up the number proposed as essential to organization.

Upon the suggestion of Mr. Grace, the audience, out of its numbers, added at once twenty one names to the subscription list.

The committee will report at an early day; and without doubt an organization will be perfected by the 18th or 20th of the present month.

The meeting adjourned at half-past 10 o'clock, after an exceedingly pleasant and useful session.

H. Redwood & Co., J. P. Sawyer, F. P. Mimnaugh, W. B. Williamson & Co., E. B. Mann & Co., Brown & McDowell, furnished the decorations and furnishings used for the occasion.

FALL FASHIONS

Some of Worth's Latest Gowns in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—With stately tread and black night gowns like robes that didn't fit, the three judges of the new appellate court for the Seventh district took their seats yesterday. The gowns were cut en train, low corsage, gathered full at the belt and tied with V-shaped yellow ribbons. The dignified judges got into their respective seats without tripping. Then shifting their bustles to the leeward they settled back to earn their salaries. The hearing of cases was then begun.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 6.—Justice H. B. Brown and Judges Jackson and Sage, togged out in their fall robes, opened the appellate court here yesterday. The court room was crowded. The appellate judges blushed painfully when they saw the crowd and there was an involuntary movement as though to tuck the garments inside their trousers. It was a silly exhibition throughout.

DEMOCRAT POLITICS.

To Succeed M. H. Ford—Reformers in Nashville.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 9.—The democrats of this congressional district have nominated John L. Lawrence for congress to succeed late M. H. Ford.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 9.—A reform democratic ticket was elected in the city election yesterday over the regular organized democratic ticket by majorities ranging from 500 to 1,000. George B. Gould, who was elected mayor, led the ticket. He is an old confederate soldier. There was no republican ticket, this city being overwhelmingly democratic.

MICHIGAN FARMERS.

They are for the Ocala Platform and Politics.

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 9.—At yesterday's meeting of the state farmers' alliance the following resolution was adopted without a dissenting voice.

"Resolved, That we heartily endorse the Ocala platform and further declare to the oppressed toilers of America that we are unwilldingly in favor of independent political action as outlined at the Cincinnati conference."

A KING'S FUNERAL.

The Emperor of Germany Will Attend It.

STUTTGART, October 9.—The Emperor of Germany arrived here today. His visit to the capital of this kingdom is for the purpose of attending the funeral of the late King of Wurtemburg.

At the railroad depot the Emperor was met by King William II. successor of the deceased; by Princess Wurtemburg and Prince Henry, of Prussia. The Emperor proceeded to the castle and entered the hall where the remains of King Karl were lying in state. The Emperor then laid a magnificent wreath of flowers upon the casket and knelt beside the remains of the dead ruler of Wurtemburg. After a short prayer conversed in low tones with King William II.

Grand Duke Michael, of Russia, in view of the fact that the wife of the late King was a Russian Princess. Grand Duchess Olga, daughter of Emperor Nicholas, has arrived to attend the funeral as a representative of the Czar.

BUSINESS ENDORSEMENTS.

An Old Firm in Dry Goods Fails—Want Extension.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., October 9.—A. S. Man & Co., dry goods dealers, have failed for $100,000. The firm was one of the oldest in the city and the failure is a great surprise. H. B. Claflin, N. Y., are largest preferred creditors, at $20,000. W. B. M. Jordan, Claflins' financial man, is assignee.

PITTSBURG, October 9.—The Oliver & Roberts wire company, one of the largest concerns of the kind in the country, made requests of its creditors today for an extension They claimed to be solvent.

CHINESE RIOTING.

Great Excitement in the City of Amoy.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Despatches dated September 27, received here from Amoy, a seaport town of China on the island of the same name, province of Fo-Kien, nearly opposite the center of the island of Formosa, announce that there has been serious rioting forty miles from the town of Amoy. The population of Amoy numbering about 300,000 people, was in a great state of excitement. The riot was caused by fiscal abuses. Several mandarins and other officials were killed by the rioters.

SENSATIONAL POSTERS.

They Attack Those Who Had To Desert Parnell for Decency.

CORK, Oct. 9.—Large posters have been placarded on the walls, fences and other places throughout this city. These posters have deep mourning borders and bear in their centres the words: "Murdered to please Englishmen," together with verses denouncing the McCarthyites and United Ireland articles; declaring that Parnell was murdered and imploring the people to remain tranquil. The posters are creating much excitement.

INTIMIDATED A VOTER.

And Now he Sojourns in Jail For Half a Year.

LYNCHBURG, Oct. 9.—In the United States district court at Abingdon today, Judge Paul, presiding, Jack Mullins, of Buchanan county, was convicted of intimidating a voter at a precinct in Buchanan at the last presidential election and was sentenced to six months imprisonment in jail and to pay a fine of $50. This is the first conviction in Virginia under the federal laws for the protection of the elective franchise.

STATE NEWS.

—Burke county fair will be held Oct. 13-16. Gov. Holt delivers an address.

—Among the converts at the Clinton revival, conducted by Mr. Fife, was Mr. Marion Butler, president of the state farmers' alliance.

—Mrs. George B. Hanna, wife of one Charlotte's citizens, dropped dead on Seventh street Tuesday.

—Hickory Press: The Mercury mentioned last week that one Deal ran off with Noah Benfield's wife and $55. We hear he was treasurer of the alliance and took with him $300 of Alliance funds.

—The Durham Bull Globe of Wednesday had fifty-five editorial paragraphs Business was suspended in the tobacco town for 24 hours to find out what they were all about As a matter of fact they were all about four lines long.

Six Millions to Loan.

I will loan this amount in sums of 200 up, at 8 per cent per annum (interest payable semi-annually), on simply the wife's, son's or daughter's endorsement, to fairly intelligent persons who can read a little and reason a little, if they cannot keep themselves and families in good health and save a world of sickness, suffering and premature dying by owning a copy of this new comprehensive common sense doctor book that you've heard about. See or address R. W. Seager, Grand Central hotel, the very first thing you do in the morning or after tea, tonight. Mind; if you've only the fragment of a lung and one dilapidated shoe to begin on, it won't quite make a new nickel plated Corliss engine of you. And, "No, sir," it wont cure everybody. The only infallible thing that I know of on this green earth, is, to engulf all the drugs and medicines you can hold. Your family physician will tell you this. He will also tell you to buy this book—if it is his intention to retire from practice soon, and establish a bank. Mony? No matter about that. I often give away books—to persons who can save up 50 cents a week for twelve or fourteen weeks. This trifling amount they would pay us for information—and get the book for nothing, see?

Sheetings, pillow-case cottons, covers, comfortables, blankets, table linen, towels, napkins, etc., at fixed and reasonable prices. H. Redwood & Co.

A QUESTION OF TITLES.

IT IS CONSIDERED IN THE METHODIST COUNCIL.

A Difference of Opinion—Report of the Business Committee—"Christian Unity" Discussed at the Morning Session.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The third day's session of the Ecumenical Methodist council opened with H. T. Marshall, of England, occupying the presiding officer's chair. The usual devotional services were held.

Rev. James L. E. Huray, of England, read some passages from the scriptures and prayer was offered by Rev. George Packer, of Halifax. The minutes were then read and some time was spent in a discussion of a technical disregard by the secretaries of injunction laid upon them yesterday to refrain from mentioning titles in reading. There appeared to be a difference of opinion between the delegates on the propriety of omitting these titles but finally it was decided that the title "Reverend" might be used. The minutes were them approved.

The business committee reported as follows: Greetings from Evangelical Lutheran synod of Maryland; memorial on Methodist federal relations; resolutions on opium traffic; memorial on the social question; memorial from local preachers association of Methodist Episcopal church; motion to hold special love feast on fellowship meeting; motion to appoint a committee on statistics of Methodism. The business committee reported the following list of presiding officers for the succeeding sessions: Bishop H. W. Warren, Methodist Episcopal church, of Colorado, for second session of third day, Bishop J. W. Hood, African Methodist Episcopal Zion church, of Fayetteville, N. C., for the 1st session fifth day; Rev. W. T. Myers united Methodist Free church of England, on 2nd session of fifth day; Bishop R. K. Hargrove M E. church, south, first session sixth day; Rev. Dr. D. J. Waller, secretary of Wesleyan Methodist Conference, London, 2nd session sixth day.

The topic of the morning session, "Christian unity," was then taken up and an essay was delivered by Rev. Dr. T. G. Selby, Wesleyan Methodist church, Greenock, Scotland.

THAT TEN-CENT FARE.

A Consultation Between the Committee and Major Martin.

The ten-cent fare committee of the board of aldermen, Messrs. Brevard, Starnes and Leonard, had a consultation with Maj. J. G. Martin, yesterday. Maj. Martin told the committee about the financial condition of the company. He stated that when there were only two cars between the square and the depot, the business was a paying one, but that the addition of the other lines took the profit off the line that was paying. He said he would not reduce the fare; in fact, he would stand the city a lawsuit in the case.

The board of aldermen considered the report of the committee this afternoon.

Buncombe Sarsaparilla

A positively Safe and Reliable

Blood Purifier.

Containing Burdock Root, Sarsaparilla Bark, Prickly Ash Bark, Poke Root, &c.

By its use you can save yourself from the suffering caused by foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system strives to rid itself of corruptions. It purifies the blood, giving it renewed vitality and force. Being an alterative, it changes the action of the system, imparting fresh strength and vigorous health in place of that weakness and tired feeling, which is an indication of disorder and decay.

The concentrated power and curative virtues of Buncombe Sarsaparilla render it the most reliable Blood Purifier that can be used, while it is entirely safe for patients of all ages.
