A LYNCHING AT OMAHA.

TERRIBLE SCENES IN THAT CITY LAST NIGHT.

A Mob Forces the Jail, Takes Out a Negro Who Had Raped a Little Girl and Hanged Him to a Trolley Wire—The Police Powerless Apparently.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 10.—The city is peaceful and quiet this morning, and beyond a few dozen people around the city jail there is nothing to remind one of a scene of wild excitement that occurred last night. Joe Coe, a negro, was lynched for outraging a five year old girl.

Early last evening it became evident that the city officials would shed no blood in defence of their prisoner, and as soon as the mob realized this the fate of the negro was sealed. The first and second barriers to the city jail were soon passed, and it did not take the crowd long to effect an entrance to the huge steel cage in which the cells are located. There, wrapped in a blanket, covered the trembling wretch for whom the lynchers sought. A howl of gratification was sent up by the leaders, who called for tools to cut their way into the cage. A yell of triumph went up from the outside and soon sledges and cold chisels were in the hands of those nearest the cage.

Police Carried Away. As the clang of blows rang through the jail and into the court yard the crowd kept up its howling. In the meantime the police under Chief Seavy undertook to disperse the mass at the jail entrance. But the crowd surged forward picked up the police and carried them to the edge of the yard. There they stayed. Then the work went on.

Inside the cage the negro begged and pleaded. He insisted he was charged with burglary. "Damn you 'we'll bury you," was the response. He prayed and cried and rolled on the floor in terror. His shrieks for mercy were answered by the blows that brought his executors nearer.

Eager for Blood. At this time the door was opened. Then, with one last yell of terror, the negro was seized by the hands of the men eager for his blood and thrust through the corridor. Here men to identify him were called for. It was determined to make no mistake. Soon pressed forward those who knew him and his doom was sealed. A lamb would have fared better amidst a pack of wolves. Coe was not torn limb from limb, but he got a thousand curses and a blow for every curse.

There is a drive way 50 yards long leading from the jail to the intersection of 17th and Harney streets. This is paved with granite. Over this rough road the wretch was dragged by his ruthless captors. Since he had reached the door he had not spoken a word and in all probability was unconscious by the time the street was reached.

Hanged. A rope was thrown over the trolley wire of the electric line. It had served to drag the doomed man from his cell. Then a hundred hands pulled and 50 men surged back, and high above the street directly in front of the beautiful new Boyd's theatre swung the lifeless corpse of Omaha's latest rape fiend.

AT BINGHAM.

The School is in Good Running Order Now.

HAZEL, N. C., Oct. 10.—[Special.]—Bingham school is now in good running order. The classes have been organized and the work will go on as usual. All the faculty have splendid class rooms and the classes are all very nice size, with about the right number of boys in each class. The "study hours" begin at the "inspection" and last until 2:15.

The duties which we have to undergo are as follows: At about 7 o'clock reveille is sounded, at which all the boys have to answer to the roll-call, then 20 minutes are given in which the cadets have to straighten up their rooms and prepare for inspection, which includes making ready and turning up your bunk, drawing water, sweeping the floor and gallery, blacking your shoes and having your person in a tidy condition.

Then at about 7:45 the breakfast bell rings which is a preliminary for the second, which rings about five minutes after. After breakfast the "assembly" is sounded, and the men form and march in to the mess hall where the report is corrected and all orders are issued. After "assembly" comes the first bell which is 9 o'clock, and that period (which lasts three quarters of an hour) is given for what is known as "English hour." Then comes the regular periods for the different hours.

At 2:15 school adjourns, or as it is known, "study hours" cease, and then dinner is had. After dinner at 3 o'clock the drill signal is sounded, at which all have to participate, except those physically disabled. At 4:30 the "recall" is sounded which announces the drill to be at an end.

At about 4:35 the reception bell is struck when all those who have missed their lessons have to be in attendance and a more cordial greeting a person could not have. The captain who holds this meeting is very kind and considerate and sees that you are not permitted to look off your book, or the penalty is realized in demerits. This reception lasts for an hour and a quarter when it adjourns. Then a short space of time is had for recreation between reception and supper.

The first supper bell rings 6:30 o'clock, at 7 o'clock retreat is sounded, when all the cadets are confined to their quarters. The retreat round is made, to see that all are in. At 8 o'clock officer of the day makes the round. Night study hours last until 9:30 when tattoo is struck, which announces study hours over. Then one half of an hour is given for the boys to visit, at 10 o'clock taps are rung, when all the lights are to be put out and all students are to be in bed.

At 10:15 the "silent signal" is given, when all talking must cease, under penalty of demerits. The officer of the day, and the assistant officer of the day make a round and see that all the men are in their rooms, and in the sweet neighborhood of dreamland.

An excellent stock of clothing, dry goods, fancy goods, shoes, hats and carpets, H. Redwood & Co.

THE "PRESIDENT'S YACHT."

Ashore Off the Virginia Coast in a Great Gale.

BALTIMORE, October 10.—The United States Steamship Dispatch went ashore last night in a heavy gale on the Assateague shoals, on the east coast of Virginia about sixty miles northeast of Cape Charles. It is not known exactly how great perils she and her crew are in, as it is impossible to reach the ship from the shore.

PARNELL FUNERAL TRAIN.

IRISH MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT PRESENT.

The Cortège Starts in a Terrific Rain Storm—Mrs. Parnell Not Able to Attend—On the Way to Dublin.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Among the reminiscences of Parnell published in the newspapers, is a contribution from Mr. Thos. Power O'Connor, member of parliament for the Scotland division of Liverpool, who says he heard while in America that during the visit Mr. Parnell paid to the United States the Irish leader met at Newport one of the reigning beauties of the season; that he fell in love with and proposed marriage to her, and was conditionally accepted. But either the lady was fickle or marriage with a foreigner was hateful to her American parents and she married another. Parnell felt this blow most acutely.

A great concourse of people surrounded Walsingham Terrace this morning when the casket containing the remains of the late Charles Stewart Parnell was taken from the house. Slowly and sadly was the body placed in an open hearse drawn by four horses. At 12:15 o'clock p. m. the cortège started for the railroad amid a terrific pour of rain. Immediately following the hearse and mourning coaches was a committee of Parnell's colleagues in parliament who had been selected to escort the body to Hollyhead. The route to the railroad station was lined with masses of people who respectfully watched the passage of the funeral procession. At the station the remains were placed on board a funeral car and with the members of the Parnell parliamentary party as watchers started for Wilsden junction where it was, at 7 p. m., joined to a train bound for Hollyhead. The remains consequently did not pass through London as was at first proposed.

Mrs. Parnell was utterly unable to accompany the remains to Dublin.

Revolution vs. History.

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 10.—At the annual reunion of the New England survivors of Confederate prisons yesterday a committee was appointed to frame resolutions denying the published statement of the late Jefferson Davis that northern prisoners in southern camps were treated no worse than the exigencies of war demanded.

Condition of the Cotton Crop.

WASHINGTON, October 10.—The October cotton report of the department of agriculture makes the general average of the condition of cotton 75 7/8 against 82.7 a month ago. Last year in October it was 80. Besides this the crop is late this year.

An Interview With Gov. Campbell

From the Chicago Herald.

"I could not wish that my prospects of election were better and brighter than they really are. I am entirely confident of success. I do not care to make any predictions as to my majority, but it will be as large as or larger than it was two years ago. We are engaged in the tariff issue. It is the evils of protection from which the people are suffering. We must first get rid of those and then the money question will be properly settled.

A Slippery Sab Knife.

From the Durham Globe.

The painful news comes home to us that Captain Ashe, in attempting to skin Colonel Polk, dislocated his carving knife, and killed Jerry Simpson. The wild rumor is denied by Jerry Simpson, but the truth is that he is dead. No ante-mortem statements will go in this print shop, especially while we have the corpse in sight.
