Railways! railways! railways!

That's what was dinned into the ears of the board of aldermen yesterday. A special meeting was held at 4 o'clock in the mayor's office, for the consideration of new and old street railway projects. Mayor Blanton wielded the gavel, and all the aldermen were present except Mr.

sheville street railway line. And last, but by no manner of means least, was Maj. Martin (or "Col." as be asked Col. McBrayer to address him) who had deigned to drop in and follow the business of the board.

Asheville and Biltmore. Mr. Adams' company's charter for a ar line from the city limits to the square by Valley street, was taken up first. The committee had made a few changes. The clause as to a maximum charge of three cents per hundred for freight was stricken out. A lengthy discussion was indulged in, and finally the ordinance granting the charter was adopted, by suspending the rules. There were no dissenting votes.

T. A. Jones, attorney for the Asheville street railway company, asked at amendment to the charter of the com-AND TRIMMINGS pany, allowing it to extend its road across Atkin and Valley streets. This mendment was adopted

He asked if as a question of business pru-dence it would be wise to set two companies to pulling hair in a court room, spending all the revenue in law suits. The granting of the exclusive franchise by a previous board, was a matter of good faith as well as a legal obligation upon the present board. It would have a bad effect upon capital to take the rights of the company that has spent its noney here and give them to a new com
