That's the way all our watches run, and our clocks have the well regulated habit of doing precisely the same thing. Perhaps you have a watch that is somewhat eccentric in its movements; if you have, we will straighten it out for you in short order and we will also see to it that the expense involved in the operation is exceedingly moderate. A good way to ruin the best of clocks and watches is to let them go too long without cleaning. We not only make a specialty of cleaning, repairing and regulating, but just now we have another specialty—a special display of fine umbrellas to which we would call your attention.

WANTS TO HIT A BISHOP.

CURIOUS DESIRE OF A DELEGATE.

He was Only Joking, However—

Some Important Resolutions

Considered, and Objected to,

Looking Toward Church Unity.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Rev. Dr. Donnelly, of the First Methodist church, presided over the Ecumenical Methodist council at the beginning of the eighth day's session. In the reading of the minutes reference was made to an "Excellent impromptu address." Objection was made, first to the use of the adjective "excellent," and afterward to that of "impromptu," and they were stricken out, notwithstanding Mr. Atkinson's motion to leave the word "impromptu" in, on the ground that it was well understood that Theodore Hook's "impromptu" jokes were carefully prepared in advance. Mr. Atkinson also objected to the exclusion of laymen from the presiding officer's chair, saying, "I have an uncontrollable desire to knock down some American bishop and if I can't do it, from the chair I must, I fear, do it from the floor." (Laughter.)

The first business before the council was further consideration of the report of the business committee in response to the memorial of the Methodist federation, and Dr. Stephenson in behalf of a committee, made an explanation of the purpose in reporting the resolutions and expressed the hope that they would pass. He also suggested a few alterations in the original text so that, as reported, the resolution reads as follows:

"First, The conference recognizes, with gratitude to God, the growing desire for a closer union among the evangelical churches of Christendom, and especially those with devout thankfulness the extension of that desire amongst the various Methodist churches.

"Second, The conference cannot doubt that concerted action upon many questions would be greatly to the advantage of the kingdom of God. The conference would suggest that such concerted action might be possible and useful in the following great provinces of the Methodist world: Britain, including its affiliated conferences and missions, United States, including its missions and missionaries; Australia, with Polynesia and its other missions; Canada, with its missions.

"Third, This conference, therefore, respectfully requests the churches represented in this assembly to consider whether such action be possible and if so, by what means and in what way, and directs the secretaries to forward a copy of this resolution to the senior bishop of every conference represented here."

Mr. Waring Kennedy, of Canada, held that the time was ripe for an organic union of the Methodist bodies elsewhere.

Rev. Dr. Waller, of England, thought it would be better to adopt no resolution relative to a Methodist union at this time. The resolution should read "unity" or preferably "Christian unity," instead of "union," and the "united kingdom" instead of "Great Britain," which excluded Ireland.

"THE NEXT PRESIDENT."

That Means Cleveland in King's County, New York.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 15.—The democracy of Kings county turned out in full force last night to aid in firing the first big democratic gun in the present campaign in Kings county.

When Mr. Cleveland arose he was greeted with "three cheers for our next president!" Mr. Cleveland spoke nearly an hour upon the important relation which the pending state campaign bears to the national policy. At the conclusion of his address, Mayor Chapman entered and was roundly cheered.

N. C.'S UNIVERSITY.

Inauguration of President Winston—Notable Addresses.

CHAPEL HILL, October 15.—The inauguration of G. T. Winston as president of the University of North Carolina took place yesterday in the presence of a large audience. Addresses were delivered by Col. Kenan, president of the Alumni association, President Gilman, of Johns Hopkins University, and Walter H. Page, of the Forum. Kemp P. Battle, the retiring president, introduced his successor.

MISSING SMITHSONIANS.

Have They Perished on the Heights of Mt. Elias?

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—Much apprehension is felt for the safety of Lieutenant Russell and party, who were sent out by the Smithsonian institute to explore Mt. St. Elias. Russell and his men were to meet the revenue cutter Corwin at Yakut Sept. 1, but when the Corwin went there Russell did not appear, and a searching party sent out failed to find any trace of him.

TWO PERSONS KILLED.

A Fly Wheel Burst With Fatal Effect.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Oct. 15.—The fly wheel of an engine of the mill of the Amoskeag corporation burst this morning tearing through a floor of the first and second stories. Two persons are believed to have been killed and a dozen badly wounded. The excitement about the mill was great.

German Political Minister Dead.

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—Count Ludwig von Arco Valley, German minister to the United States, is dead. Prof. Bergmann performed an operation on the Count Monday last, his stomach having for some time past refused to receive all food. The operation was not successful.

"Battle of the Amazons."

TROY, N. Y., October 15.—It is announced today that the democratic state committee will invite J. Sloat Fassett to meet ex-Senator Grady at any place in the state and at any time before the election in a discussion of any or all the issues pending in the campaign.

Early for the "Fourth."

MADRID, Oct. 15.—An explosion occurred yesterday in the fire works factory at Makaga, setting fire to the building, which burned to the ground. One person was killed.

PHILLIPS BROOKS

The New Bishop of Massachusetts—All Opposition Silenced.

The great hearted broad churchman,

Phillips Brooks, the ornament and pride of Boston, is now Bishop of Massachusetts. As head of the diocese his influence will certainly enlarge still further the interests of the Protestant Episcopal church. Phillips Brooks is a man beloved, and the opposition manifested by certain high churchmen to his elevation to the Episcopate is no longer manifested. When his election was confirmed the men who opposed his consecration yielded with brotherly good will.

Dr. Brooks was born in Boston some what more than fifty-six years ago. He was graduated at Harvard when 20 years old, and after a course of theological study was admitted to holy orders. From 1850 to 1870 he preached with increasing popularity in Philadelphia. He removed to Boston in 1870, where his triumphs of noble oratory and exemplary manhood are one of the chief glories of the city.

The new bishop has a large and handsome presence. His countenance is singularly expressive and powerful. The rapidity of his utterance, which possibly impairs his delivery, is accompanied with a voice which is wonderfully sympathetic and commands earnest attention.

Sub-Treasury and State Politics.

From the Raleigh News and Observer.

Whether constitutional or not, the sub-treasury bill has no place in state politics, and it every democrat in North Carolina were to vote for it to become a law, and the next general assembly were to make it a law, it would be wholly ineffective, because it is a measure which belongs exclusively to the province of Federal politics and can be made effective only by congressional action. Then why should democrats think of dividing about such a measure?

SHOT WITH A GOLD RING.

—Mr. Eli Butler, in Bertie county, while setting up a beef he had bought, found in 18-carat gold ring in one of the hind quarters. The only way the Banner can account for this remarkable find is this: Some years ago a disease broke out among a man's cattle in the county, and some suspicious person told the owner to shoot one of his cattle with a gold ring, and that the plague would depart. The presumption is that the owner followed the instruction, hence the ring found.

—Raleigh News and Observer: A man apparently about 23 years old approached Officer McCullers, and with tears in his eyes and a frightened expression started to the officer that he was lost, that he had never been in a city before in his life; that he had come with some friends and got separated from them, and that he did not know what to do or where to go. The officer gave him such information as he could to straighten him out and assisted him to find his friends. This beats the record.

—Some months ago a pretended agent for a wire fence sold township rights to several Pittsboro people—took their notes—went to Durham and sold the notes. The purchaser sued to recover. The defendants claimed that they had been imposed on and there was no such wire-fence factory as the agent set out. The court held that they were liable for the full amount. Moral: Read the newspapers; this kind of fraud has been exposed by their means of times.

—Wilmington Messenger: Sunday's issue of the Messenger represented more advertising and more money than ever appeared in an issue of any paper published in North Carolina, save trade issues. The ad. man, with one assistant, set up 67,000 lines which at 20 cents per thousand, paid them $13,400 each for one night's work!

—Sherman Greer, who recently shot and killed a man in Wilkes county, is in jail at Wakesboro to await trial at spring term of court. He is 20 years old.

—The state fair opened Tuesday. Gov. Holt made the formal address, occupying about a quarter of an hour's time. He was introduced by R. H. Battle, president of the fair. The attendance was very small.

—The North Carolina missionary convention will hold its annual assembly at New Bern, October the 22d to continue four days. There will probably be 150 delegates present.

—News has been received today of the death at Chapel Hill of James Watson, a lawyer who served a term in the lower house of the legislature from Orange.

—A big alliance meeting was held at Roxobel, on the 9th inst., and over fifteen hundred of the citizens of Bertie and Northampton county attended it.

—Cards are out announcing the marriage of Col. Benjamin Cameron, to Miss Sallie Mayo, daughter of Hon. Peter Mayo, of Richmond.

—The Dukes, of Durham, are building at Trinity College the College Inn, which is to cost $30,000 and will have a hundred rooms.

—The work of rebuilding the fallen tower at Trinity College, Durham, has begun.

IN HARBORS OF REFUGE.

FLEEING FROM THE WHITE WRATH OF A GALE.

Destruction to Shipping Still Being Reported From all Quarters—An Abandoned Vessel Lost from a Pilot Boat.

New York, October 15.—A number of steam and sailing vessels arrived here today. They report having experienced heavy weather as far south as the Straits of Florida.

The steamer Knickerbocker, from New Orleans, reports that on October 11 she fell in with a three masted, lumber laden schooner, water-logged and abandoned. Her name could not be made out.

Pilot boat C. H. Marshall reports that on October 12 a heavy sea running at the time, Hans Coolidge was washed overboard and drowned. A number of vessels bound for New York have been obliged to run off-shore to the various harbors of refuge along the coast.

A Dose of Black Strain.

From the Charlotte News.

It seems to be the amusement of little boys along the A. T. & O. railroad to place crossties on the track. The train which left Charlotte for Taylorsville last night, encountered a tie on the track near Huntersville, at about the same place the tie was encountered on October 7th. The culprit in this instance was a ten year old colored boy. He was arraigned before a magistrate in Huntersville who released him upon condition that his mother would give him a good flogging. They do say that the winking child that boy got was a most artistic one in all respects.

Latest News From Ashe.

From the Pilot Mountain Messenger.

Mr. J. M. Rodman has returned from a business trip through the counties of Ashe and Alleghany, and Grayson county, Va. He informs us that he saw a negro in Ashe county, that had a tumor on his breast as large as a water bucket. The negro is going about.
