WAIT FOR THE GLEE CLUB.

THE BOYS OF BINGHAM HAVE ORGANIZED.

The Musically-Inclined Cadets Will Give an Entertainment in the Grand Opera House Soon The Composition of the Club.

HAZEL, N. C., Oct. 23 .- [Special.]-Eureka! The Glee Club of Bingham school has been formed, and a glorious old time is in store for those who love music. An order was made last Saturday by the president acting pro tem. calling together a number of boys with musical instruments, and a finer assortment of musical paraphernalia and goodooking young men could not be found. The object of the meeting was stated by C. D. Pinson. Mr. Gahagan moved that Robt. Bingham be elected president, which was carried by a unanimous vote. C. D. Pinson was next elected secretary and treasurer unanimously. Mr. Bingham then stated that "he thought if every man would come down but otherwise it would not." The quartette is being formed, and if possible an octette will soon be organized. in the club: Six guitars, three basjos, twelve concert harmonicas, one flute and mandolin. The voices in the club are all very good, and are only needing a little

The club is composed of the following The club is composed of the following gentlemen and their different positions:
Robt Bingham, guitar: Geo. W. Gahagan, guitar: C. D. Pinson, guitar: W. P. Smith, guitar: Chas. Tatum, mandolin:

The octette is composed of the follow ing gentlemen: Messrs. Smith, Gahagan, Merrill, Pinson, Bingham, McAllister, Lewis annd Brown

A committee of three was appointed to attend to the business of the club, also to see about all entertainments, etc., composed as follows: Pinson, Gahagan and McAllister.
All of the gentlemen in this club are strictly of the finest material and of con-siderable musical talent. Take Robert Bingham; he has a fine tenor voice and plays beautifully on his guitar. With a fine voice, splendid "ear" r music, and being one of the most handsome young men in school, he will soon attain that position which so few are capable of filling.

Then Mr. Geo. W. Gahagan, as he is known, "Smiling Smokey," is also a member who will do justice to the club. He is also a handsome boy and loves the Worth McAllister plays well on the guitar, sings well, has a tenor voice, and minerals, and the important mica mines as quite popular with the boys. He is to be one of the very best members.

Then we come to Mr. Sellers, a very small lad, of Lexington, Ky. He plays admirably for a vouth of his size, and at no distant day will soon surprise the public with his wonderful musical feats.

J. Ernest larratt has a splendid alto voice and is quite a help to the club. He is quite popular.

W. P. McBee is also one of the chorus men and sings a deep bass, the sound of which resembles that of an approaching tornado Edwin M. Brown has a soprano voice. He is pronounced by all the musicians as a musical genius and sure he is appreciat-
